

ROCKFORD

There remains a good deal of tobacco still to be marketed from this section. Farmers have been busy preparing soil for next year's crops before the winter rain and freezes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham and small daughter, Ellen, spent Thanksgiving with relatives in and near Winston-Salem.

Mr. Charles Hutchens, who was brought up near Rockford, died recently at his home in Winston-Salem. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Docia Brown and several children. Mr. Hutchens was, for many years a resident of Mount Airy and had a wide acquaintance in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson, their daughter, Mabel and son Miller, were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Esca Hutchens and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coe.

The entire community was shocked by the sudden death of Mr. Joe Mather Folger on Sunday, November 21 at his home in Mount Airy. Mr. Folger spent his early youth on his father's farm near Rockford and for several years after he was forced to give up the Christian ministry because of ill health resided at his father's old home on Main Street. His death was a distinct loss, not only to this community but to the Methodist Church in the state. His gentle spirit and his consecrated life were a benediction to all who came in contact with him.

Mr. Folger is survived by his wife, who was Miss Emma Welch before her marriage. A son and a daughter, by three brothers, Milton, Grady and Julius, and one sister, Miss Beulah.

ST. PAUL

We are glad to know that little Donald Walker, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Walker is much improved after being seriously ill with diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers and children, of Richmond, Va., are spending several days here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Myers.

Mrs. Sina Walker is spending this week near Dennyville visiting relatives and friends and attending preaching services at that place.

Mr. Mitchel Mahathey of Grassy Knob, spent several days here visiting W. C. Nicholson.

Miss Edith Walker spent last week in Wilkes county visiting her brother, Wade Walker and Mrs. Walker.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henderson as residents of our community.

Miss Eula Myers of Baltimore, Md., returned to her home here last Monday to spend the winter months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Macey and children visited Mrs. Macey's father last Sunday, Mr. Henry Wood.

Standing Him Off. Friend—"You can't cheat old father time." Man—"No, but some of the women drive a mighty close bargain with him."
