Legion Auxiliary to Have Christmas Party Monday

The annual Christmas party of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will be held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Harris on West Main Street, with Miss Mattie Mae Powell associate hostess.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Chatham-Baldwin Wedding Party is Feted by Smiths

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith entertained at the home of the latter Friday evening following the rehearsal to honor members of the Chatham-Baldwin wedding party and out-of-town wedding guests. The hall and living room of the home was festooned with Christmas garlands and in the dining room bridal green and white was used. During the evening the wedding cake was cut.

Miss Chatham is Honored at Luncheon Wednesday

Miss Frances Chatham, bride of Saturday, was guest of honor at a bridge-luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. A. O. Bryan at her home on West Main Street. The home was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. Luncheon was served from the buffet. During the afternoon bridge was played. Mrs. Raymond Chatham received the high score award at the conclusion of the games. Miss Chatham was presented a lovely gift.

Sixteen guests enjoyed Mrs. Bryan's hospitality. Mrs. Harold Messenger of Hartford Conn., was the only out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Hinson Honors Father and Son on Anniversaries

Mrs. W. S. Hinson entertained at a delightful dinner at her home in East Elkin Wednesday evening to honor her father, Decatur Gentry on his 54th birthday anniversary and her son on his ninth birthday anniversary. Decorations in the dining room were suggestive of the Christmas season. Two birthday cakes bearing the significant number of candles graced the table. Covers were placed for eighteen.

Mrs. Pyron is Hostess to Club Thursday

Mrs. Ruohs Pryon entertained members of her bridge club at an enjoyable bridge-luncheon at her home at Klondike Farm Thursday. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. Mrs. J. R. Poindexter won the club award for high score and the visitor's prize went to Mrs. R. B. Harrell.

Guests in addition to the club members were Mesdames R. B. Harrell and Carl Poindexter.

Mrs. Leeper is Hostess to Book Club Friday Evening

Having as guests only members of her book club, Mrs. T. A. Leeper was hostess at a delightful party at her home on West Main street Friday evening. Silver pine and spruce was used in the decorations of the living room, where two tables were placed for book. The awards for the evening went to Mrs. Edworth Harris for high score and to Mrs. J. P. Ippock for low score.

The guests were invited early for a dessert course and coffee and rock was played during the evening.

Bridal Party Feted at Party Friday Evening

Prior to the rehearsal Friday evening, members of the Chatham-Baldwin wedding party and out-of-town guests were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer at Hotel Elkin.

Dinner was served buffet style in the private dining room at the hotel. The dining room was decorated with huge white chrysanthemums in silver vases and tall white tapers in silver holders.

The bridal party was seated at a beautifully decorated table in the center of the room. Smaller tables were grouped on either side. Forty guests enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Brewer's hospitality.

Baptist Circles Observe Week of Prayer Monday

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met in joint session Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the church for a special observance of Week of Prayer for missions. Mrs. C. N. Myers was in charge of the program and led the devotionals. The meeting opened with a hymn followed by prayer by Miss Ella Cockerham. Mrs. I. C. Yates, Mrs. F. M. Norman, Mrs. Roy West and Mrs. T. W. Church contributed interesting papers for the program.

The closing prayer was by Mrs. H. G. Harris. Following the meeting the circles assembled in groups for the monthly business sessions.

Lewis-Simmons

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle, W. L. Mackie, in Yadkinville, Miss Charlotte Elizabeth Simmons of Washington, D. C., and Yadkinville, was married to Talmage Lewis of Washington.

Mrs. Lucy Vestal, minister of the Friends church, who officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents twenty-four years ago, heard the marriage vows. Only the immediate families and a few close friends were present for the ceremony.

Mrs. Lewis is the only daughter of Sidney Simmons of Washington and the late Mrs. Laura Mackie Simmons, and formerly lived here. She was educated at Wilson Teachers College, Washington, and this year is a member of the Yadkinville school faculty.

Mr. Lewis is a native of eastern Virginia and has been making his home in Washington for some time.

C. W. Gilliam is Honored on Birthday Anniversary

C. W. Gilliam Jr. was honored at his home at Jonesville last Sunday with a dinner at 1:00 o'clock, celebrating his birthday anniversary.

The dinner was served buffet style from a large table beautifully arranged and adorned with three birthday cakes made by Mrs. Gilliam, Mrs. Louis Ferlazzo and Mrs. W. A. Stroud, one bore only two candles which was for Charlie Gilliam, III, the two year old son of the honor guest, whose birthday occurs in this month.

The gathering included the immediate family; Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam and children, Charlie and Mary, Mrs. C. W. Gilliam Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroud and son, Ray of Wilkesboro, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones and Eugene Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stroud and sons, Wayne, Kenneth and Thomas, from Bethel, Mr. and Mrs. Seaman Dobbins of Elkin, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam and children, Misses Norma and Kathleen and Flake, Charles and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ferlazzo and little son, Eddie of Winston-Salem.

All the names were written and each drew, so everyone will be remembered Christmas. Due to the rain all left early for their respective homes.

Miss Frances Chatham is Wed to James Ellred Baldwin in Church Ceremony

In a ceremony of rare beauty and charm Miss Frances Gwyn Chatham of this city was married to James Ellred Baldwin of Medina, Ohio, Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the Methodist church.

Dr. Wm. A. Jenkins, pastor of the bride, and Rev. L. B. Abernethy, a former pastor, officiated, using the ring ritual of the church.

Mrs. Franklin Folger, organist, and John Sagar, soloist, rendered the wedding music. Prior to the wedding Mrs. Folger played "Traumerel" by Schumann, and Schubert's "Serenade." Mr. Sagar sang "Because" by D'Hardelot and "O, Perfect Love." During the ceremony Mrs. Folger played "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell.

The church was beautifully decorated for the ceremony. The altar and choir loft was banked with hemlock against which was arranged three branched candlesticks holding cathedral tapers. Each candlestick was graced with a bouquet of Ascension lilies tied with a white ribbon. A row of candles burned in each window.

The ushers, Raymond Chatham, Alex Chatham, III, Dick Chatham and Eugene Molsinger, entered first and took their places. Next came Miss Betty Messenger of Hartford, Conn., junior bridesmaid, Miss Carolyn Lillard, bridesmaid, and Miss Elizabeth Molsinger of Winston-Salem, maid of honor.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Alex Chatham, was a vision of loveliness in her wedding gown of antique ivory taffeta. The dress was made with a fitted bodice and a graceful flowing skirt. Her veil of illusion was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. It fell over her face in front and in the back it extended the full length of her train. She carried a colonial corsage of lily-of-the-valley, tied with satin ribbon.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identical period gowns of ivory brocaded taffeta.

They wore short, ivory illusion veils and carried colonial corsages of red roses tied with ivory satin ribbons.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Martin Baldwin of Medina, Ohio, as best man.

Mrs. Baldwin is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chatham of this city. She was educated at Fassifern, Hendersonville; Sweet Briar College, Virginia, and later was graduated from Culver Kindergarten School, Hartford, Conn. She is a member of one of the most prominent families in the state.

Mr. Baldwin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baldwin of Medina, Ohio. He was educated at Trinity College, and is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. Since his graduation he has been associated with his father who is publisher of The Gazette, Medina, Ohio.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chatham, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception at their home for the bridal party and out-of-town guests. In the living room bronze and yellow chrysanthemums were used in the decorations. Pink roses and snapdragons were used in the dining room white roses, snapdragons and narcissi were used. The table was centered with a lovely bouquet in a silver bowl and silver candlabrae holding white tapers were used on either end of the table. Wedding ices, cake and mints were served.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left for a wedding trip. For travel Mrs. Baldwin wore a two piece suit of slate blue wool trimmed in gray fur with accessories of gray. Following their wedding trip they will reside in Medina.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baldwin, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Baldwin of Medina, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Messenger, Miss Betty Messenger, Hartford Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Pat Williams, Miss Mary Gwyn, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finley, Edward Finley, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Finley, and Blair and Dick Gwyn of North Wilkesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hanes, Mrs. J. E. Kaverough, Mr. and Mrs. Crosley, Miss Anne Maslin, Miss Delphine Crump, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Molsinger, Misses Myrtle and Elizabeth and Gene Molsinger, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Glenn, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. B. F. Miller, Sedgfield, Paul Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Schoonover, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lillard, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Electric COOKERY!

LESS TIME * LESS EFFORT * Best RESULTS

The modern woman is no longer required to spend her entire day in the kitchen slaving away the happy years of her life through toil and drudgery in preparing the family's meals. Electric cookery has brought a new era of freedom to the housewife. It has brought economy as well into her kitchen. It has given her hours of freedom for recreation, social activities, time with her children and the many other pleasures of life that a housewife deserves.

Electric cookery is enabling thousands of homes to have better foods, cleaner kitchens, healthier families and really save money.

Let Reddy Kilowatt do your work. He does so much for a very little pay.

Don't be misled by the idea that electric cookery is expensive. We would like to point out and prove to you three facts:

1. That it is just as easy to buy an electric range as it is to buy an ordinary cooking stove.
2. That, according to the testimony of thousands of electric range users, it is just as cheap to cook on an electric range as it is on an ordinary stove.
3. That a modern electric range will outlast by many, many years the ordinary type of cooking stove.
