

HUNDREDS GAVE TO CREATE HOSPITAL

List of Contributors Discloses Donors From All Walks of Life

3 SEPARATE BUILDINGS

A list of the contributors who made possible Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, the nurses' home and the home of the superintendent, discloses that in addition to the Duke Endowment, large manufacturing companies, business firms, and generous wealthy citizens of outside towns, hundreds of people of Elkin, Jonesville and this section from all walks of life also donated to make the hospital possible.

Below will be found a list of all contributors to each of the hospital buildings, including the newly completed addition:

"Have you ever rode in an airplane?"
"No. I am afraid of airplane poison."
"What's that?"
"One drop and you're dead."

WE'RE PROUD OF

Elkin's Modern Hospital

AND EXTEND

Sincere Congratulations

Upon The Opening of the Fine New Addition Which Will Be Formally Dedicated Today!

The modern new addition to Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital will increase the scope of this worthwhile institution's work to relieve sickness and suffering among the people of this section. We're proud of this modern hospital plant and its personnel!

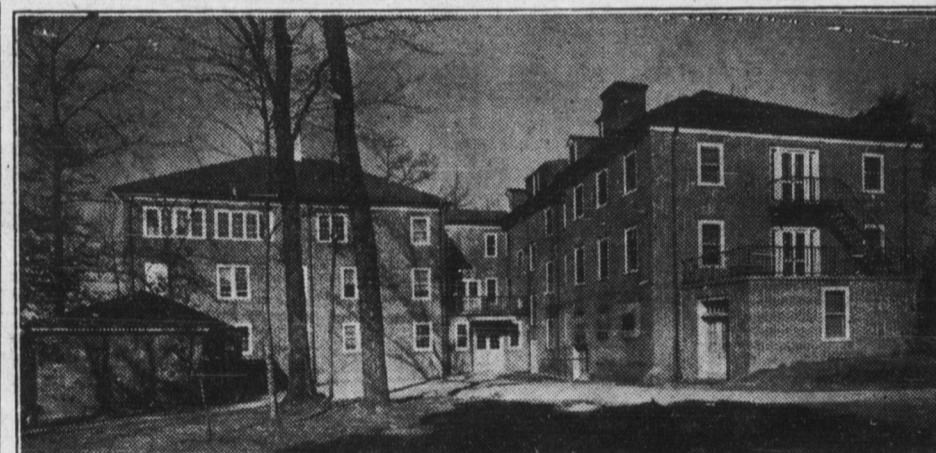

WE ARE PROUD OF OUR PART

We are proud, too, that we are playing a part in making the hospital the modern institution that it is. We supply the hospital laboratory, one of the best equipped in the entire state, with safe, economical Protane Bottled Natural Gas, necessary in the exacting work of laboratory technicians. We also supply the hospital with large quantities of sparkling pure ice.

You too will find Protane Bottled Gas and our pure ice unequalled for satisfaction and economy in your home.
