

LOCALS

A. L. Griffith of Charlotte, was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wall spent the week-end in Lenoir, the guests of Mr. Wall's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wolfe moved last week from their home near State Road, to Statesville.

George Pauls left Monday for Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, after a visit of several days to Mrs. Pauls here.

Mrs. J. P. Gwyn of Yanceyville is spending sometime here the guest of her daughters, Mesdames Hugh Parks and E. G. Clink.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Laxton spent the week-end in Richmond, Virginia, on a business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Annie Guy of Winston-Salem, is the guest this week of Mrs. C. N. Myers, at her home on West Main street.

Miss Laura Ellen DeHart of Bryson City, is the guest this week of Miss Elizabeth Shores at her home on Bridge street.

Mrs. R. L. Poindexter left Wednesday for Winston-Salem, where she will spend a week or ten days the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Hendrix.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hayes of Jonesville announce the birth of a son, Hugh Woodie, on January 4. Mrs. Hayes was formerly Miss Maude Wood of Elkin.

A message was received here Sunday of the sudden death Saturday night of W. B. Baldwin of Medina, Ohio. Mr. Baldwin was the father of James Baldwin of Medina, who was married early in December to Miss Frances Chatham of this city.

Mrs. M. A. Rose and children returned Friday from a visit of several days to her sisters, Mrs. M. T. Turner and Mrs. P. P. Johnson, in Danville, Va.

Mrs. Annie Barbour of Greensboro, is spending sometime here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barbour, the former her son, at their home on Elk Spur street.

Robert Kirkman returned Wednesday from a short stay in Jacksonville and Daytona Beach, Florida. He also visited his sister, Mrs. Wilson L. Stratton, in Charlotte, while he was away.

Mrs. LeRoy Salmons and daughter and son, Miss Carolyn and Billy, Walter Bell and H. D. Herring of Winston-Salem, were the guests of friends and relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Enoch Harris spent the week-end in Statesville with Mr. Harris, who is taking treatments in a hospital there. Friends of Mr. Harris will be glad to know that his condition continues to improve.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Wellborn, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. W. J. Price, Mrs. Joe Bivins and Miss Ned Ball were among those from here attending the funeral of Rev. C. W. Robinson at North Wilkesboro Wednesday afternoon.

Friends of Mrs. Ida Cockerham will be glad to know that she is making satisfactory progress following a major operation in a Mount Airy hospital several weeks ago. She was removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Poore, in Mount Airy last week and it is hoped that she will be able to return to her home here this week.

Fred Shores returned to Fishburne Military School, Waynesboro, Va., Wednesday, following a holiday visit to his home here. He was accompanied by Waynesboro by his sister, Miss Elizabeth Shores, and Miss Virginia Price, who returned the same day.

Mesdames Eph Whisenhunt and C. N. Myers of the First Baptist church in this city were guests of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church in Mount Airy at their monthly meeting Monday afternoon. Mrs. Myers conducted the devotionals for the meeting and Mrs. Whisenhunt was guest speaker.

Mrs. Mason Lillard is spending sometime in Dunn and Fayetteville, with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Smith, Jr. Mrs. Smith, who was formerly Miss Margaret Lillard of this city, underwent an operation at a Fayetteville hospital Wednesday of last week. Her many friends here will be glad to know that she is recovering nicely.

Miss Thelma Dowell of Beach Haven, N. J., Miss Gertrude Heldeshelm of Philadelphia, Pa., and Misses Beatrice and Catherine Dowell of Union Grove, Arthur Berdsall of Berneget, N. J., and James Dowell of Union Grove, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dowell at their home in Arlington.

COOL SPRINGS

Our pastor Rev. I. W. Vestal filled his appointment here Saturday afternoon and we were glad to have several visitors present, among them being Mr. David Day of Pleasant Hill, Mr. Milt Windsor of Benham, Mr. Johnny Darnell of Shoaly Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Darnell visited Mr. Darnell's brother, Mr. Ernest Darnell of Gastonia Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Lyons visited at the home of Mrs. C. F. Fields Sunday. The Sunshine quartette spent sometime here the guests of Mrs. Sarah Tucker and son Edgar, who are confined to their home by illness. We are sure that this is a good way to scatter sunshine by singing for those who are unable to attend service at the church, and we sincerely hope that health and strength will enable them to go to many places where there is need of cheer.

Several persons of this community visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, Sunday afternoon, they are shut in and no longer able to attend the church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stout, Mrs. Arthur Wall and brother, Mr. Fletcher Wall of Elkin and Jonesville were visitors with us Sunday. Mr. Howard Key and sister, Miss Metta Lou were also visitors here. Sixty-nine friends of Russell Casey visited him on the day of his return from Hugh Chatham hospital.

Owing to the condition of the church building prayer service at night has been called off until the doors opening into the Sunday school rooms are up, and the building in better shape, work will be resumed Thursday, continuing through the remainder of the week. Any help in this work will be appreciated.

Our Sunday school address Sunday by Mrs. Paul Newman was very good, her subject being "Regrets." Do your duty by your church, your community, and your regrets will be fewer for '38. Next Sunday Mr. J. D. Key will make a talk for us—be present.

ST. PAUL

The many friends of E. G. Myers are glad to know that he is able to be out again after being confined to his home by illness for several days.

BOONVILLE LEADS IN LARGEST TAXPAYERS

Taxes of Estates and Big Farmers Lead All Others In Yadkin

COMPANIES LED BY DUKE

Yadkinville, N. C., January 11.—Some of the largest taxpayers in Yadkin county are found to be farmers, it was disclosed here yesterday.

The individual paying the largest tax in Yadkin is D. W. Hobson, of Boonville, Route 1, his tax being $232.24, while Dr. T. W. Shore of Boonville is second with $222.34.

Of the companies paying the largest county tax in Yadkin the Duke Power Co. leads, paying $518.55. The next largest company is T. L. Hayes Co., of Boonville.

Estates Largest

The estate of the late George Steelman is the largest personal tax in Yadkin, being $292.32, while that of the late A. Dinkins is next with $176.65. The estate of the late J. A. Logan pays $158.12. The Henry F. Shore estate paid $156.50.

Boonville Leads

The Boonville section seems to lead in furnishing the largest taxpayers for 1937. Following Dr. Shore and D. W. Hobson other large payers of Boonville are: A. C. Stinson, $212.74 and he is followed a close second by R. M. Fletcher who pays 48 cents less than Stinson, or $212.26. Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Dobbins of Boonville together paid $167.34; Marion Speas $151.89; Frank Bryant $123.75; A. B. Hobson $122.38; J. W. Shore $119.30; John Speas $115.91.

So much for Boonville. Looking over the county it is found that Henry H. McKnight, Yadkinville, is the next largest payer with $165.63, while J. W. Casstevens of Hamptonville is next with $139.32. R. E. Mathews of Fall Creek paid $138.48 while W. H. Speas of East Bend five cents less, or $138.43. C. N. Dobbins of Yadkinville paid $136.58 and Miles F. Shore of Cycle paid $122.75. G. T. White of Buck Shoals paid $102.60 and Paul P. Davis of Yadkinville paid $112.01.

The largest lady taxpayer in Yadkin is believed to be Mary Virginia Speas of East Bend, paying $114.84.
