Mrs. William Wall is Honored in Lenoir

Mrs. William Wall of this city was guest of honor at a delightful tea given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. E. Wall in Lenoir. Mrs. Wall was before her marriage late in December Miss Margaret Cragan of Maryville, Tenn., and Elkin, and is a member of the local school faculty.

Mrs. Whisenhant to Address Woman's Club Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Eph Whisenhant will speak at the open meeting of the Woman's Club to be held Tuesday afternoon, February 1, at 3:30 at Hotel Elkin. The program will be under the direction of Mrs. Joe Evans and Miss Blanche Dixon of the Literature Department of the Club.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend and all club members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Laffoon is Hostess To Book Club

Mrs. H. F. Laffoon entertained members of her book club at the regular meeting at her home on Church street Friday evening. Three tables were placed for rummery. In the final count of scores Mrs. Edworth Harris was awarded the high score prize and the consolation prize went to Mrs. W. C. Cox. Mrs. I. C. Yates, Mrs. Ted Brown and Mrs. C. S. Foster, guests in addition to the club members, were each given a remembrance.

At the conclusion of the games an ice course was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Somers Entertain Bridge Club Friday

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers entertained members of the Port-nightly Bridge Club at an enjoyable bridge-dinner Friday evening at Hotel Elkin. Spring flowers were used as a centerpiece for the dinner table, where covers were placed for twelve.

During the evening bridge was played at three tables. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter were awarded the high score trophies at the conclusion of the games.

Those making up the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poindexter and Mr. and Mrs. Somers.

T. G. Harris is Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. T. G. Harris entertained at a surprise dinner at her home on West Main Street Friday evening to honor her husband on his birthday anniversary. The beautifully appointed table, where covers were placed for fourteen, was centered with a handsome birthday cake adorned with candies.

White candles in crystal holders and sprays of January jasmine were also used in the decorations. A three course dinner was served.

Misses Moseley and McNeill Celebrate Birthday Anniversaries

In celebration of their birthday anniversaries Misses Nancy Moseley and Elizabeth McNeill entertained at a delightful dinner party at the home of Miss Moseley on West Main street Tuesday evening. The guest list included Misses Elizabeth Anderson, Alice Dixon and Mary Virginia Barker, teachers of the hostesses in the high school, and their Sunday school teacher, Miss Hazel Byrd.

The table was centered with a heart shaped birthday cake, decorated in pink and white, and adorned with lighted candles. Pink and white flowers were also used in the decorations.

A tempting and beautifully appointed dinner was served.

Parent-Teachers Have Program on Social Diseases, Dr. Haywood Also Speaks

At the January meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association held Friday afternoon at the elementary school auditorium, Dr. J. C. Knox, of the North Carolina State Board of Health, Raleigh, gave an illustrated lecture on social diseases. This was in connection with a nation-wide crusade for the control of this deadly menace.

Mrs. C. E. Nicks was program chairman for the month. Dr. C. L. Haywood, Jr., chief surgeon and head of the medical department of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital also spoke briefly on the meningitis cases in Booneville that have alarmed parents locally since their outbreak. He assured the parents that there was no need of undue alarm as the disease was not more prevalent than usual, only in the fact that three members of one family had been claimed by the disease, this he stated was unusual.

Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Jr., president of the organization presided over the business session, which featured routine reports and business. She expressed her delight at the number of new members enrolled.

The attendance award was tied by Miss Blanche Dixon's and Mrs. Garland Johnson's rooms, and each grade was awarded $1.00.

BOONVILLE

The Booneville high school opened here Monday morning after being closed for two weeks after the death of A. E. Johnson, who died with meningitis. It is stated the school will close at the same time it would have closed without the two weeks out, and that work will be made up during that time.

Miss Dorothy Moxley has been spending some time in Winston-Salem with her grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Caudle.

James Reece, who had the misfortune of sticking a nail in his hand, is in the Elkin hospital but is expected home soon.

Miss Ellen Hayes, a student at the Woman's College, Greensboro, is expected home Thursday to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hayes.

The two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Caudle died Friday morning and was buried in the Booneville cemetery Saturday. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the family.

Two of Booneville's senior class members, Carl Martin and Ola Baily, were married in Virginia, Sunday.

Ruby Sprinkle of Elkin, spent the week-end with her sister, Vermell, here.

Boonville High's basket ball team is to meet East Bend Friday night on East Bend's court. We hope there will be a large crowd to see these rival teams play.

Mrs. A. S. Speer, who has been ill for several days, is improving.

Lucy Pearl Styers, who has been ill for several weeks, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin and F. M. Woodhouse were business visitors in Raleigh last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hobson announce the birth of a daughter in a Winston-Salem hospital. Mother and child are doing fine.

Mr. N. C. Dobbins has been confined to his home for a week on account of illness.

Francis Woodhouse and his party arrived in Los Angeles, California, last Wednesday, and report a good trip.

COOL SPRINGS

The Sunday school here was well attended Sunday, and several new pupils enrolled, bringing our enrollment to 198.

The new class rooms are almost finished, and soon work will be more satisfactory here, each class room being separate.

There is much sickness in the community, deep cold and flu.

We regret to hear that Mrs. Grace Tucker Holbrook is in Chatham Hospital, at Elkin, where she was taken for an appendicitis operation Sunday evening. Mrs. Holbrook is the fourth member of Mr. Hasten Tucker's family to undergo an operation for this in the past ten months. Mr. Tucker underwent an operation there only eight days ago.

Mr. Maynard Harris of Battle-ground, Ind., is visiting his parents here.

Several friends of Uncle John Cox met at his home here Sunday afternoon for a prayer service.

The service was in charge of Mr. J. F. Fields.

Do you live in Cool Springs community? Then whether or not you are a member of our church or any other, we need you with us, and we assure you a hearty welcome. "He came not to bring the righteous, but the sinner to repentance." Step on the Lord's side, which is the right side, unfurl his banner, stand beneath it safely and without fear. He's asking for volunteers. How about you?

Prayer service Saturday evening, in charge of C. F. Holbrook and Eugene Pettyjohn. Come to Sunday school Sunday morning. Preaching service Sunday evening. Rev. Geo. Curry will be with us to deliver the evening address. Visitors welcomed at all services.
