UNCLE NATCHEL RADIO PROGRAM WINS FAVOR

The new Uncle Natchel radio program, sponsored by the Natural Chilean Nitrate folks, is rapidly winning a large audience. Broadcasts began late in November and will continue every week throughout the winter and spring, over leading Southern stations.

Uncle Natchel, played by Frank Wilson, one of America's leading colored actors, takes the star role in this half-hour entertainment, as he has in all previous programs sponsored by the Natural Chilean Nitrate people. His homely "natchel" philosophy is an important part of the broadcast, and the nature story which he tells in every program is a novel feature.

In the dramatic part of the program, Helen Claire, an Alabama girl who has won star rating on Broadway and whose work in the films has attracted favorable attention, plays the feminine lead. Her characterizations change with each broadcast.

The public has been quick to sense the naturalness of the Chilean Nitrate program. That quality is one of the distinguishing features of the entertainment. And much favorable comment has been heard on the authenticity with which the all-Southern cast portrays the Old South dramatizations that make up much of each broadcast.
