CYCLE

The Sunday school at Oak Grove is doing fine work under the leadership of Rev. A. S. Mathis, who has been superintendent for nearly twenty years. Rev. Mathis attends Sunday school every Sunday and walks back and forth every Sunday, a distance of two miles.

Farmers in this section are making great preparations for their 1938 tobacco crop.

We are glad to hear of the building campaign inaugurated by our old friends and neighbors at Swan Creek Missionary Baptist church for a new house of worship. We hope that the building will soon be completed. The Swan Creek church has been organized for nearly a century, and was originally of what is known as the Hardshell faith.

Mrs. Vina Messick has returned from an extended visit among relatives at Coolemeec.

Miss Ola Pinnix is visiting her uncle, General Brown, and Mrs. Brown, at Statesville, this week. Garfield Collins visited his daughter, Mrs. Doretha Whitlock, in Iredell county, Sunday.

The beautiful sunny days remind us that spring is just around the corner.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our deep appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our wife and mother.
