

YADKIN MANSION SCENE OF BRAWL

Ancient Home of Another Period Brings Headache to Officers, Neighbors

TRIAL (NEXT SATURDAY)

Yadkinville, July 6.—(Special.) Four persons were arrested and warrants issued for others as a result of a free-for-all fight at the home of Jack Hunt, at Huntsville Monday night. It occurred at the old Dr. Hunt mansion, one of the "big houses" of a period that is gone forever.

First news of the all night revel and fight reached Sheriff A. L.
Inscore at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Immediately summoning Deputies Jake Brown, G. F. Willard and R. B. Crissman the party went to the old mansion near Huntsville, where the report said probably one had been killed.

By middle afternoon Jack Hunt, 36, of Huntsville, Herman Melton, 36, of Winston-Salem, Marie Leftwich, 25, who came to Winston-Salem from West Virginia and T.
D. Brewbaker, 22, of Huntsville, were in Yadkin county jail facing various charges. All are charged with public drunkenness and other charges are being added as the sheriff and his deputies strive to unravel the nights events. A warrant has been issued for Tom Kelly, of Huntsville, who got a cut on the face in the affray, but who could not be found Tuesday.
Marie Leftwich was in jail here two years ago for public drunk-ness at Jonesville.

Warner Fry, young white man of Cornator, Davie county, was the worst hurt of the dozen reported to have taken part in the fight. He was badly cut in several places and was traced from the Hunt home for almost a mile by a stream of blood. He was found and arrested at his home at Cornator and is being guarded there until able to move to jail.

Sheriff Inscore is unable at this time to determine just how many were present. He says the fight either started over an argument about liquor or over the woman.
Herman Melton, who is alleged to have brought the woman to the place, says he bought some liquor from Hunt, but later they ran off and demolished his car.

His car, now stored in Yadkinville, looks like it had been struck by a cyclone, a Mexican revolution and a Democratic administration.

If Fry's condition will permit a hearing for all will be held here Saturday.

Find Still

In addition to other charges Jack Hunt will be charged with operating a blockade still. The officers found a still just a short distance from the Hunt home.
They destroyed tubs, barrels and other things and brought in the boiler. In the woods near the house was two quilts and a gallon jug with one pint of whiskey in it.

Jack Hunt

Jack Hunt was born under an unlucky star, the son of an unwed mother and a father who was killed three months before he was born, because of his associations with Jack's mother. The killer was never known. Some believe it was a family job and that he was killed to prevent a marriage between him and Jack's mother.
The Hunt family was one of the uppers of the section and they believed their daughter too good for a commoner. Others believe he was killed by a rival for the girl's affection. Anyway he was found in the barnyard of the Hunt estate, his body covered in snow on a morning after he had visited the girl, mother of Jack, way back about 1905.

The body was discovered by the girl, Molly Hunt, and it is related that thro this experience and the scene she witnessed, her unborn child suffered, and which accounts for this low mental and physical condition.

Jack has been giving trouble in this county for many years. One of his first breaks with the law was when he was convicted in court with John Freeman on a charge of burning the home of Frank Sofley, in the night time, while the family slept in the house. He was given 10 years in state prison, but later paroled.
Freeman was sentenced to be executed but later his sentence was commuted to 10 years in prison, to coincide with the sentence of Hunt. Later Freeman was paroled and seems to be leading a clean life since.

Hunt has clashed with the law many times since then. Last August Sheriff Inscore and deputies arrested him and nine others in a raid similar to the one Tuesday.
Hunt was given 12 months on the roads and was released from the prison camp at Sparta three weeks ago. Tom Kelly, another one in the melee Monday night was in the other gang and was given three months on the roads.

Officers find it difficult to work on the case because the neighbors of Jack and the citizens of Huntsville are afraid to talk because of what might happen to them or their property when Jack is in circulation.
