Special guests for the luncheon were: Mesdames E. F. McNeer, W. A. Jenkins, J. G. Abernethy and Grover C. Graham, the latter of Lewisville. Among these Mrs. Jenkins drew the prize.

In the bridge games, which were enjoyed during the afternoon, Mrs. Franklin Folger won the high score award and the consolation prize went to Mrs. James Baldwin. Mesdames Chatham and Dortch were each given a lovely gift and Mrs. Sam Neaves, also a recent bride, was given a gift.

Out of town guests were Mrs. James Baldwin, of Medina, Ohio, and Mrs. G. C. Graham, of Lewisville.

Methodist Circles in Group Meetings Monday Afternoon

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the following homes:

Circle number one met with Mrs. J. B. Parks on Bridge street, with fifteen members present. Mrs. Mason Lillard conducted the devotionals. The Bible study, The Life of Christ, which is being studied by each group, was conducted by Mesdames Raymond Chatham, Charles G. Ashby, E. S. Spainhour, Alex Chatham, Fred Colhard and J. P. Curtis.

Circle number two met with Mrs. J. G. Abernethy on West Main street with twelve members present. Mrs. H. C. Salmons conducted the devotionals and Mrs. R. G. Smith directed the Bible study.

Circle number three met with Mrs. J. S. Atkinson on West Main street with eight members present. Mrs. Errol Hayes conducted the devotionals and Mesdames George Royall and M. A. Biggs conducted the Bible study.

Each hostess served a tempting refreshment course during a social hour at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Money Is Hostess at Luncheon at Hamptonville Home

Mrs. Fred Money entertained at a delightful luncheon Wednesday at one o'clock at her home in Hamptonville, having as guests members of the Happy Hour Sewing club. Covers were laid for fourteen at card tables in the living room. Attractive place cards marked the places of the guests. The living room was decorated with lovely zinnias and gladioli and each table was centered with a bud vase holding a single red rose. A four-course luncheon was served.

During the afternoon bridge, rummy and fiddlesticks were enjoyed.

At a business session at the close of the games it was decided to entertain the husbands of the members at an out-door picnic on next Wednesday evening.

Those enjoying Mrs. Money's hospitality were: Mesdames W. N. Ireland, Jr., Spencer Bell, Miles Shore, Charlie Gough, Clyde Wright, Gilvin Angell, Raymond VanHoy, Misses Audrey Shore and Barbara Money. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. W. S. Harrell, Miss Willard Sharpe and Miss Thelma Lewis, of Statesville, and Mrs. Harvey Money, of Winston-Salem.

Excited Bob Jenks upon his wedding day was a most excited creature. He handed his bride the marriage fee and tried to kiss the preacher.

Should one fall down, there is no harm in, at least, "looking" upward.
