"Kingdom Builders" Class Has Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wagoner entertained the "Kingdom Builders" class of the Baptist Sunday school at their home on Monday evening.

The meeting was opened by singing the class song, "My Hope Is Built." Mr. F. A. Lineberry gave the devotional and Mr. D. R. Castevens led in prayer.

After the business meeting a number of contests were held and prizes were awarded to F. A. Lineberry, Mrs. Ila Sparks and Mrs. W. V. Holcomb. Following the contests they were invited into the dining room where a huge white cake with pink and white candles stood, and as they entered they sang, "Happy Birthdays" to Mr. Wagoner in honor of his anniversary. This was a surprise to Mr. Wagoner. Later a treasure hunt was held.

Mr. Wagoner was presented a lovely gift from the class. Mr. F. A. Lineberry was also presented a gift as retiring teacher of that class for his faithfulness and loyalty to this class for a number of years.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

FORSYTH FAIR TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

Horse Racing Feature Each Afternoon's Program; Many Attractions

SPECIAL DAYS PLANNED

Next week, October 4 to 8, is Fair Week in Winston-Salem. Opening day will be Tuesday with the school children of the city of Winston-Salem as guests. On Wednesday the children of Forsyth and adjoining counties will attend the Fair with free tickets, furnished through the county superintendents.

Thursday will be manufacturers' day and Friday Farmers' day with special events planned for each.

Horse racing will feature each afternoon's program, with marvelous circus acts at the grandstand during the races. Saturday afternoon will see a revival of the popular automobile racing with the South's most famous drivers competing for valuable cash prizes.

The World of Mirth midway attractions will be at the fair grounds all the week. Agricultural and livestock exhibits will be far superior to any ever shown before. There will be something doing every minute of the day and night, from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. all the week starting Tuesday.

Each evening of Fair Week there will be a grand revue at the grandstand, with all the circus acts, pretty girls, excellent music and grand lighting effects. This program will be followed by fireworks.

It looks like a great week of entertainment in Winston-Salem next week and with the tobacco market opened, the stores filled with fall and winter goods and the people of the city anxious to entertain their thousands of friends from surrounding territory it will be a fine time to spend a day or a week in the Twin-City.

for several days with illness, we regret to learn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Vanhoy, of North Elkin, came over to visit her mother and family last Sunday afternoon, Mrs. W. A. Pardue.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh G. Osborne and children, Dorothy and James, spent the day last Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wagoner entertained the "Kingdom Builders" class of the Baptist Sunday school at their home on Monday evening.

The meeting was opened by singing the class song, "My Hope Is Built." Mr. F. A. Lineberry gave the devotional and Mr. D. R. Castevens led in prayer.

After the business meeting a number of contests were held and prizes were awarded to F. A. Lineberry, Mrs. Ila Sparks and Mrs. W. V. Holcomb. Following the contests they were invited into the dining room where a huge white cake with pink and white candles stood, and as they entered they sang, "Happy Birthdays" to Mr. Wagoner in honor of his anniversary. This was a surprise to Mr. Wagoner. Later a treasure hunt was held.

Mr. Wagoner was presented a lovely gift from the class. Mr. F. A. Lineberry was also presented a gift as retiring teacher of that class for his faithfulness and loyalty to this class for a number of years.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

HAMPTONVILLE

The farmers in this community are busy in their tobacco, getting it ready for market.

The West Yadkin school is progressing nicely, with over 800 enrollment. The principal, Mr. W. N. Ireland, and wife, entertained at their home Friday night, with a Brunswick stew for the faculty, committeemen, county superintendent and their wives.

The revival at Zion closed last Sunday with thirty-nine added to the church. The pastor, Rev. Gus Myers, was assisted by Rev. Charlie Holland of Taylorsville. Rev. Grady Burgess and Rev. Roy Crater preached for us some. They are our own home boys and we are always glad to have them and hear them preach.

The ladies missionary convention was in session at Shiloh last Saturday, with good attendance and a wonderful program. We were highly entertained by the good people in the community and our speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt Hemric of Winston-Salem, were visitors in our community over the week-end.

Miss Cleo Trivette of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Trivette.

Miss Mary Jewel Burton of Boonville, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle Allen and family last week, returning to her home Sunday.

Mrs. William White, who has been sick for sometime, is improving.

Miss Flossie Joyner, one of our teachers at West Yadkin, was very ill at last reports.

Uncle Joe Thomasson is recovering from a stroke of paralysis. We are hoping he will soon be out again.

Dr. and Mrs. V. F. Couch of Winston-Salem, were visitors at Mrs. Couch's father, Mr. G. T. White, Sunday.

Mrs. Glenn Brown and children, Glenn, Jr., and Shirley, visited her sister, Mrs. William White, over the week-end, returning to her home at Blowing Rock Sunday afternoon.

COOL SPRINGS

Our Sunday school is still going good with the record for attendance still held by the young people.

Prayer service was held at the home of Mr. Manley Carter Sunday afternoon. A large crowd attended the service and a generous donation was given to show the esteem in which his community holds him, and to help him in his illness.

The Sunday night service, made enjoyable by a great sermon by Rev. Ely Jordan, was well attended. His subject was "And the Records Are Kept."

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holbrook of Traphill, are here now. Mr. Holbrook is building a home and service station on the Traphill road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harris and children and Miss Lillie Adams visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, near Independence, Va., Saturday.

Mr. A. C. Wall has generously donated the contribution given him for his service in a ten-night singing here to building flues for the Sunday school rooms. He also recently made a bulletin board, and framed a large copy of the church covenant for the church. He has gone to his work at the Winston-Salem Tobacco Market now.

Rev. David Day will preach here the second Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, and we hope he will bring some, too. You are invited to hear him.

Young People's Service next Sunday evening.

BETHEL

Several people from this community attended and enjoyed the fair at Elkin last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam and children visited Mrs. W. A. Pardue and family and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Burchette last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplette and Clay Mastin spent a while Sunday with relatives at Jonesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham and family had as their guests last Sunday relatives from Lomax.

A great amount of sand is being hauled from here to be placed on the dirt roads in and around this community.

Mrs. J. F. Mathis and daughters, Mary Lou and Edna, were the guests of her mother, Mrs. W. N. Weatherman, of Jonesville, last Saturday evening for supper in her new home there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stroud and family spent last Sunday afternoon in Winston-Salem visiting Mrs. Stroud's sisters, Mesdames J. B. Armstrong and E. L. Ferlazzo.

Mrs. J. C. Hemric, of this place, has been confined to her home
