LATE NEWS from the State and Nation

SURPRISE MOVE MADE FOR BURGIN

Raleigh, Oct. 4.—A surprise motion for a court order requiring the state board of elections to certify W. O. Burgin, of Lexington, as the Democratic congressional nominee in the eighth district was made today by J. C. B. Ehringhaus, of Raleigh, attorney for Burgin.

The hearing was set before Judge W. C. Harris in Wake Superior court at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, but it was considered probable that the time would be changed to 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mandamus Sought
The motion by former Governor Ehringhaus asked for a "pre-emptory writ of mandamus" requiring the board to declare Burgin the nominee, and for an order permanently restraining the board from certifying C. B. Deane, of Rockingham.

HITLER BOASTS OF GERMANY'S STRENGTH

Karlsbad, Sudeten Germany, Oct. 4.—Adolf Hitler in exultant military procession added another slice of Czechoslovakia today to expanding Germany which he declared "nobody will ever be able to destroy again."

Accompanied by Sudeten Leader Konrad Henlein, the Fuehrer of all Germany rode behind his troops into this famed resort town where the Sudeten movement received great impetus April 16 through promulgation of Henlein's autonomy demands.

"I didn't know how I would sometime get here," Hitler told a hysterical, heeling crowd. "But I did know that I would come."

PEACE MOVE UP TO C. I. O.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 4.—The American Federation of Labor is waiting for the C. I. O. to make the first overtures in any peace movement, William Green said tonight after President Roosevelt had addressed a message to the A. F. of L. convention urging American labor harmony.

"There isn't any immediate prospect of the American Federation of Labor making peace with the C. I. O.," Green said after the President's message had been read to the convention.

DESPERADOES ARE BEING SOUGHT BY POLICE OF STATE

Daughter of Jailer Admits
Allowing Escape

MOSS WOUNDS FATAL

Murder Charge Follows Godwin's Promise to Girl to "Go Straight"

AWAITING NEXT MOVE

Lexington, Oct. 4.—Every police and sheriff's department in Central North Carolina was on the alert tonight for another strike by James Godwin, the boy bandit who is charged by the High Point police department with the first degree murder of Donald Moss, 30, who died this morning at 7:15 o'clock at Burrus Memorial hospital from wounds received early Monday night.

Officialdom was counting little on the fair promise he is said to have made to Miss Lula Kimel, Davidson county jailer's daughter, that he had "got religion and was going to live a straight life and bother nobody." Nor do the officers here share the sympathy of Miss Kimel, who told Sheriff Raymond Bowers after she had confessed to her father this morning that it was she who had turned the jail keys over to the high school desperado, that she didn't wish to see him go to the gas chamber.

"Well you've fixed things so that's where he is going," Sheriff Bowers told reporters this evening that he had told the young Davidson woman. He predicted that Godwin and his confederate, Bill Wilson, would be in custody again by Sunday night.

In the meantime while police were taut in every nerve waiting for some signal for action, Davidson county was attempting to piece out the puzzle of how Godwin and Wilson made their getaway from the county jail.

Miss Kimel, the girl who confessed to delivering him to his freedom, and her father, the jailer, who temporarily resigned to await a full and thorough investigation, were being accorded the privacy, which rarely goes to a royal family. Miss Kimel was being held incommunicado in the jail under a simple indictment for a misdemeanor, aiding and abetting in the escape of a prisoner, while arrangements were being made to give her a preliminary hearing Wednesday night on the charge before Judge D. H. Pickard, with Paul Stoner, prosecutor, in the recorder's court, appearing in the role of prosecutor. Her father, who relinquished his duties as jailer immediately upon the confession of his daughter, was persuaded to go to his farm in the Arcadia section, where it was stated he was receiving no visitors.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW INCREASE

Largest Increase Thus Far
Was Reflected in June,
Postmaster Says

WRITE A LETTER WEEK

Postal receipts here for the current year show a substantial increase, Postmaster F. W. Graham stated Wednesday.

Receipts have increased approximately $1,000 over the corresponding period last year, or from January 1 to September 20. The largest increase was reflected in June, Mr. Graham said, when receipts were $1,534.88 as compared to $1,071.08 for June, 1937, an increase of $463.80.

This year will likely show the largest postal receipts in the history of the local postoffice, the postmaster predicted, indicating healthy local business conditions.

Mr. Graham also called attention to the fact that this week, ending Saturday, is being observed as National Letter Writing Week by the postoffice department.

The Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held this evening (Thursday) at 7:45 at the Methodist church. All members are requested to attend.

COMMISSIONERS HOLD MEETING

Elkin in Line for Mail Delivery if Two Sidewalks Are Constructed

ARE TO BEGIN SUITS

If two sections of paved sidewalks are constructed, one on West Main street and the other on North Bridge street, Elkin will be in line for city mail delivery, Postmaster F. W. Graham told the Elkin board of commissioners Monday night.

The sections referred to include a stretch on West Main from the J. L. Hall property to the intersection of Elk Spur. On north Bridge a walk would have to be built from the George Chatman property to the Church street intersection.

Mayor J. R. Poindexter appointed Paul Gwyn and Postmaster Graham to interview the property owners of the sections concerned and request them to agree to the construction of such walks.

During the meeting it was ordered that all street assessments over three years in arrears be turned over to the town attorney with instructions to notify owners that suits are to be started at once.

Tom Shugart, local cafe operator, appeared before the board and asked permission to keep his place of business open all night. However, no definite action was taken.

KIWANIS OFFICIAL IS GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. C. W. Armstrong, of Salisbury, lieutenant-governor of the 3rd Kiwanis district, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Elkin Kiwanis club at Hotel Elkin last Thursday evening.

Dr. Armstrong stressed the opportunity for service to the community, especially as concerns underprivileged child work, and urged the club to get behind such a project.

The Kiwanians named delegates to the Carolina convention, to be held at Spartanburg, S. C., October 23, 24 and 25. Delegates were Paul Gwyn, Dr. C. L. Haywood, and President Wilbur Carter, by virtue of his office. Alternates were E. C. James, E. W. McDaniel and Julius Hall.

FRANCE DROPPED BY RUSSIA AS AN ALLY, IS REPORT

Mutual Aid Accord Believed
Discarded by Soviets

SAYS PACT ANNULLED

Questions France's Word and the Value of Her Pledges to U. S. S. R.

HAS ONLY ONE ALLY

Moscow, Oct. 4.—The French language newspaper Le Journal de Moscou which habitually reflects the views of the soviet foreign office gave expression today to what was regarded in diplomatic quarters as Russia's farewell to her ally, France.

France "no longer has an ally in Europe except Britain," the paper said.

This was accepted as meaning soviet Russia no longer regards herself a partner in the Franco-Soviet mutual assistance pact in event of aggression.

"International public opinion now asks what is the value of France's word—the value of her pledges to the U. S. S. R., and of the Franco-soviet pact?" the newspaper asked in a discussion of the four-power Munich settlement of September 30 in which Britain, France, Germany and Italy agreed to the partition of Czechoslovakia.

Neither Czechoslovakia nor Russia, an ally of Czechoslovakia's in that she was pledged to aid her against an aggressor provided France did so, was represented in the Munich conference.

"The fact is that France on her own initiative and without consulting the union of socialist soviet republics has already annulled the Czechoslovak-soviet pact which was a corollary of the Franco-soviet pact," Le Journal de Moscou continued.

"What now is the value of the latter pact since France has just torn up her treaty with Czechoslovakia—a treaty which bound her much more strongly?"

If what is called "passing the buck" would suffice, no man's word pile would "have a nigger in it."

APPLICATION DENIED GROUP

State Board of Control Refuses to Allow Incorporation of "North Elkin"

WOULD LEVY NO TAXES

Stating that a town without taxes or any source of revenue would be of no effect and would not be to the best interests of the community or of the public, the state municipal board of control Saturday dismissed an application for a charter to create the town of North Elkin, adjoining Elkin.

The hearing was held in Raleigh, those interested in the incorporation of the town being represented by Otis J. Reynolds, of Elkin, and J. H. Whicker, of North Wilkesboro, attorneys-at-law. The town of Elkin, which opposed such a move, was represented by W. M. Allen, town attorney.

The limits of "North Elkin" would have touched the border of Elkin at one or two points and would have embraced an area of one mile by one-half mile.

Reason for wishing to incorporate the town was to forestall the inclusion of the area in the limits of Elkin. However, Attorney Allen stated that it would be years before an attempt would be made to include the area in the corporate limits of Elkin.

He also pointed out that Elkin is bounded on the west by Wilkes county, on the south by Yadkin county, and if "North Elkin" was incorporated, Elkin would have no way in which to grow. It was further stated that Jonesville and Arlington are towns south of Elkin, the three joining one another, and that if a fourth town were created, it would mean four towns in a row all within a distance of three or four miles.

The petition presented by the "North Elkin" group provided that no taxes ever be levied in the proposed town.

MT. AIRY MAN PRAISES EXHIBITS AT ELKIN FAIR

W. E. Woodruff, prominent florist of Mount Airy, who acted as judge of the flower show at the Elkin Fair, stated that in his estimation the local fair was excellent and far superior to the exhibits seen at a number of larger fairs of this section.

The Mount Airy man expressed himself as being highly pleased with the event.

Others who attended the fair here also have expressed themselves as favorably impressed with the high quality of the exhibits, declaring that this year's fair was the best yet staged here.
