Subscribers Urged to Give Subscriptions Now While They Count Most Votes

STILL ROOM FOR MORE WORKERS IN CAMPAIGN

One Subscription Now Worth More Than Two Later in Campaign

Saturday night. October 15th, is the end of the biggest votes on $30.00 "clubs" of subscriptions. This offer was made to boost early workers and to attract new members. By turning in to campaign headquarters $30.00 worth of old and new subscriptions on or before Saturday night, any member may obtain 300,000 extra votes. Two clubs would earn 600,000 extra votes and so on. Get as many of these $30.00 clubs as is your ability to sell.

Subscriptions carry a far greater vote value now than they will ever again, therefore, it behooves everyone to do his level best now while subscriptions yield such a tremendous vote value.

The suit grew out of a fire that damaged the Greenwood building on East Main street. Mrs. Luffman, who with her husband, operated a cafe there, was trapped in the burning structure. Mauldin, an employee, suffered burns.

The plaintiffs contended that the Greenwood Service Station supplied the cafe with gasoline instead of kerosene, which exploded when placed in an oil stove in the cafe kitchen, causing the fire.

The train does not stop."
"That's all right," said the professor, "If it doesn't stop, then I'm not on it."

In Appearance In October

Proving that the seasons do get a little goofy now and then, H. A. Hanks, of Ronda, brought a May apple into The Tribune office the other day that was found beneath the tree by his wife on October 1.

Everyone knows that May apples are supposed to put in their appearance in May, but this particular apple evidently insisted upon being different. Although a rather puny specimen, nevertheless it was red and ripe, probably falling from the tree because it didn't give a hang.

Other instances of growing things getting all mixed up in their calculations have been reported to The Tribune recently.

MONDAY STEPS OUT AS CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF OF SURRY

Was Planning to Run As Independent

CIRCULATED A PETITION

Republicans Have No Candidates for Sheriff or Clerk of Court

CAN WRITE IN CHOICE

J. E. Monday, defeated in the recent Democratic township conventions as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff, has withdrawn as an independent candidate, it was learned Wednesday afternoon from R. A. Freeman, of Dobson, chairman of the Surry county board of Petitions have been circulated in the county, it has been learned, by friends of Monday asking that his name be placed on the ticket as an independent candidate in opposition to Sheriff Harvey Boyd, the Democratic nominee. Monday was not satisfied with the manner in which the nomination was carried out in the township conventions, and was said to contend he would have been the party's nominee if the will of the voters had been carried out in Elkin and Stewarts Creek townships.

It is not known here just how the will of the voters was out-The local convention voted to give Sheriff Boyd 60 per cent. of the Elkin township vote, and Monday 40 per cent., on the first ballot. After the first ballot the delegates were uninstructed. No objection was raised in the convention as to this distribution of the vote. Monday claimed that he was defeated in the Stewarts Creek township by the blockading ele-

In order to have his name placed on the Surry ticket as an independent candidate, Mr. Monday would have had to secure the signatures of over 2,000 voters.

On the Republican side of the fence, no candidates have named for sheriff and clerk of the court. These two offices will be left blank on the ballot, the voter having the right to write in his Prior to Monday's withdrawal, it was generally predicted that many Republicans would cast their vote for him for sheriff.
