Jr. O.U.A.M. to Present Musical Program

The public is cordially invited to attend a special musical program sponsored by Elkin Council No. 96, Jr. O.U.A.M., Friday evening, December 9, from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock at the Junior Order Hall, which is located over the store of W. V. Holcomb on Bridge street. The program will include quartets, trios, and duets by singers of Elkin and surrounding communities. Any church or civic organization which can furnish a group of singers is asked to have a part in the program.

Miss Greenwood Is Hostess Thursday

Miss Maude Greenwood entertained members of the Two-Four Bridge Club and a few additional friends at her home on Bridge street Thursday. Luncheon was served at one o'clock.

In the games following, Mrs. J. R. Poindexter won high score award, and the visitor's high score prize went to Mrs. Charles Ashby. Mrs. Gavin Dortch, a bride of the summer, was given a gift of linen.

Guests in addition to the regular members were Mrs. E. W. McDaniel, Mrs. Gavin Dortch and Mrs. Charles Ashby.

Mrs. Edwin Duncan Hostess At Luncheon

Mrs. Edwin Duncan was hostess at a delightful luncheon at her home in Sparta Friday to honor Mrs. Edward C. Voss, a bride of the early fall.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the home. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and bridge was played during the afternoon at three tables. In the progressions Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham received high score award and Mrs. Franklin Folger second high.

Mrs. Voss was presented china in her pattern. Mrs. Sam Neaves, a bride of the summer, and Miss Elizabeth Shores, bride-elect, were given a remembrance.

Baptist Circle Meetings Are Held Monday

Two circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met Monday. The Emma Leachman circle met with Mrs. W. F. Reece, in the afternoon, at her home on Bridge street, with 12 members and one visitor present. Mrs. T. G. Harris conducted the devotional service. Mrs. L. C. Couch had charge of the program. The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. F. A. Brendle.

Mrs. Charlie Young was hostess to the Pearl Johnson circle at the Lucy Hanes club house, in the evening, with 14 members and two visitors present. Mrs. George Adams had charge of the program. She was assisted by Mesdames Beatrice Myers Phillips, Sam Ray, and Mary Laster.

Each hostess served refreshments during a social hour following the programs.

Woman's Club Meeting at Hotel Elkin Tuesday Afternoon

A joint meeting of the departments of the Elkin Woman's Club was held at Hotel Elkin Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Mrs. Paul Gwyn, club president, presided over the meeting. The Club Woman's Hymn was used as the opening song. After the routine of business a program planned by Mrs. L. G. Meed, chairman of the Department of Education, was presented.

Two numbers were given by pupils of the Dorminy dancing class, a dance solo by Ketchel Adams and a group dance by Misses Mabel Cathey Leeper, Julia Bryan, Beulah Yates, Betty Jean Darnell and Mollie Lou Cox.

Prof. Z. H. Dixon was guest speaker for the meeting and gave an interesting and helpful talk on "Our Troubled World." The meeting was closed with the repetition of the collect of the Woman's Club.

Methodist Circles Meet Monday Afternoon

District Meeting of American Legion Auxiliary Here Monday Afternoon

The Elkin unit of the American Legion Auxiliary of the George Gray Post was hostess to the meeting of the thirteenth district of North Carolina Monday afternoon at Hotel Elkin.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. George Royall, vice-chairman, who presented the high school glee club, a project sponsored by the local unit. Under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Beeson, the following numbers were presented: "Partners" and "About Katie" by Ira Wilson, "Irish Melody" and "Silent Night" by Franz Gruber.

The "Star-Spangled Banner" was sung followed by prayer led by Mrs. Leslie Aldridge, chaplain of the local unit. After repeating the preamble of the Auxiliary, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. LeRoy Salmons, district committeewoman, who had charge of the remainder of the program.

Mrs. Joe Bivins gave the official welcome. The response was given by Miss Nannie Dodson, of Winston-Salem. Recognition of officers and war mothers followed. Mrs. Fannie Salmons was the only war mother present.

Short addresses were made by Mrs. Herbert Taylor, of Dunn, state president of the auxiliary, Mrs. George Bostian, of China Grove, department vice-president, and Miss Aurelia Adams, of Dunn, department secretary.

The meeting was closed by singing "America." After the business session, coffee and sandwiches were served.

Mrs. Salmons, Mrs. Smithers and Miss Dodson represented the Winston-Salem unit.

SWAN CREEK

Rev. N. T. Jarvis filled his regular monthly appointment here Saturday after an absence of a month due to his recent illness. His many friends are glad to see him much improved in health. D. C. Swaim talked Sunday at the eleven o'clock service. Everyone present enjoyed his talk very much.

Mrs. Harvey Couch returned to her home last week from the Hugh Chatham hospital where she recently underwent an operation. Her friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. C. Bell is very much improved from a recent illness due to an infected hand. She spent some time in the Davis hospital at Statesville, but has returned to her home at this writing.

Mr. Fletcher Mathis, of Ohio, has been visiting friends and relatives in our community for some time.

Mrs. Mary Coward and son, Buster, Mr. Clarence Faircloth and other friends from Winston-Salem, visited Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Swaim Sunday.

Several people of our community have been attending the revival meetings that have recently closed. Everyone reports a fine meeting, with many members added to the various churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harris and family spent the week-end with Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mays, of the Dennyville community, and attended the baptizing on Sunday at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rumble and children, of Ronda, together with other relatives, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Myers.

Miss Evelyn Swaim and Miss Athelne Pinnix spent the week-end with friends in the Oak Grove community.

It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Key are moving from our community to be near his work at Elkin. He is employed by A. L. Brown.

Mr. James Stroud, of Bethel community, was the dinner guest of his sister, Mrs. R. R. Swaim, on Sunday.

There will be a Christmas program given by the Sunday school consisting of songs, recitations, and a Christmas play, together with a Christmas tree for both young and old. With the cooperation of all, we hope to make this a happy occasion.

More than 3,500,000 persons have visited the big TVA project.

Sense of Humor

Bill: "I think I must have a real sense of humor, for whenever I see something funny, I have to laugh."

Phil: "You must have a pretty tough time shaving."

Not a Good Needle

Teacher: "Now, Tommy, spell needle!"

Tommy: "N E I D L E, needle!"

Teacher: "Wrong, there is no 'I' in needle."

Tommy: "Well, it ain't a good needle, then."
