

MRS. PARDUE PASSES AWAY

Wilkes Woman Dies Sunday Night Following Illness of Pneumonia

SERVICES HELD MONDAY

Mrs. Martha Hemric Pardue, 74, widow of Dock Pardue, died Sunday night at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Grant Wagoner, near Ronda, from an illness of pneumonia.

Mrs. Pardue was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Hemric of Wilkes county. She was a devout member of the Baptist church. Her husband preceded her in death several years ago.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Grant Wagoner of Ronda, and Mrs. Luther Freeman of Jonesville, and three sons, Cleveland Pardue of Sanford; Grover Pardue of Jonesville, and Everett Pardue of Ronda. One sister and one brother, Mrs. John Brooks of High Point and Lytle Hemric of Virginia, also survive.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock from Bethel Baptist church. The rites were in charge of Rev. Richard Pardue and Rev. Martin Luffman. Interment was in the church cemetery.
