

DOBSON MAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Norman L. Harkrader Passes Away Saturday Afternoon After Long Illness

FUNERAL HELD MONDAY

Norman L. Harkrader, 27, died Saturday afternoon at his home in Dobson following a long illness from a kidney ailment and complications. He was removed to his home from a Statesville hospital a few days ago after hope for his recovery was abandoned.

The deceased was a son of Lacey L. Harkrader and a grandson of Mrs. S. K. Harkrader, of Dobson, and a member of the Dobson Methodist church.

Before his retirement because of ill health he was recreational director of the Dobson CCC camp.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie Coalsen Harkrader, a daughter, Norma Ann, his father, three sisters, Mrs. Fletcher Harris, of Elkin, and Misses Margaret and Helen Harkrader, of Dobson, and three brothers, W. T. Harkrader, of Mt. Airy; Lakey Harkrader, of Columbia, S. C., and F. W. Harkrader, of Roanoke, Va.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Dobson Methodist church.

PLANS MADE FOR PICNIC

Ministers of Statesville District to Gather at Local Hospital

IS AN ANNUAL EVENT

Plans have been perfected for the annual all-day picnic of the ministers of the Statesville district of the Western North Carolina Methodist conference which will be held on the grounds at Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital here today.

The affair, which has been held annually here for the past several years, is attended by all ministers of the district and their families. The district embraces the counties of Alleghany, Ashe, Wilkes, Iredell and Catawba and a part of Surry.

The meeting will convene at 10:30 o'clock and a picnic dinner will be served at noon.

The Ministers' Wives association, of which Mrs. W. G. Grigg is chairman and Mrs. G. W. Vick secretary, will hold their regular annual meeting after lunch.

Young Man Passes Suddenly Friday

Thomas A. Steelman, 28, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Thomas Steelman, on Yadkinville, route 2, at 2:15 o'clock Friday afternoon, after being stricken with a heart attack.

Mr. Steelman, who had been living in Winston-Salem, and who was employed by the Chatham Manufacturing company, had been in ill health recently but was able to be up a part of the time. He was in Yadkinville Friday at noon and stricken here. He was carried to the home of his mother, where he died a short while later. He was the son of the late Thomas Steelman and Ollie Hoots Steelman. He attended Yadkinville high school and was graduated from Oak Ridge Military Academy with the class of 1933.

Survivors include the mother, Mrs. Thomas Steelman; four sisters, Mrs. W. E. McNeal, Winston-Salem, Mrs. DeWitt Sparks, Booneville, and Misses Josephine and Arline Steelman of the home place, and three brothers, George Leak Steelman, Winston-Salem, and Bickett and Bufort Steelman of the home place.

The funeral was held at Emom Baptist church at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Burial was in the church graveyard. Pallbearers were Fred Dinkins, Clay Swaim, Hadley Badgett, Haden Adams, Yance Hall and Jack Whitener.

Unmarried Children

"Have you any children, Mr. Smith?"

"Yes—three."

"Do they live at home with you?"

"Not one of them—they are not married yet."

Napoleon and Pensioners

Teacher: "If Napoleon were still alive today, what do you think he would be doing?"

Smart Pupil: "Drawing the old-age pension, sir."

Mrs. Johnson: "Is Mrs. Amos a well-informed woman?"

Mrs. Watson: "Yes, indeed. Her cook has lived with all the other families in the neighborhood."
