Wagoner, who is now making her home at Brooks Cross Roads, as a special guest. Miss Mildred Harris was in charge of the program, "What Southern Baptist are Doing in Africa and Europe to Carry Out the Great Commission." Miss Thelma Shore was in charge of the devotional. Others taking part on the program were: Mesdames Parks Groce, M. A. Holcomb, D. R. Casstevens and Miss Hazel Phillips. During the business period it was voted to send song books to the Negrine Missionaries in Cuba. After the program a social half-hour was enjoyed by all.

BETHEL

The many friends of Clay Martin, who has been in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplett since he was a very small boy, will be glad to know that he was able to return to his home here last Sunday from the Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital at Elkin where he was treated for more than a week for an injured arm and shoulder, hurt at school. Clay is a seventh grade student in Ronda school and will soon be able to resume his work.

G. F. Pardue attended court at Wilkesboro last week, serving as juror.

Last Tuesday evening some of the homes here were visited by several boys and girls who were enjoying some of the sports and fun of the Halloween season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Durham and children were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Jones last Sunday at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Morrison, accompanied by some parties, enjoyed a trip to the scenic highway on the Blue Ridge last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam and children and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., spent last Sunday afternoon at Wilkesboro visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroud.

Miss Ethel Gilliam and Mrs. O. D. Travis, of Elkin, were among the visitors who called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplett last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Seamon Dobbins, of Elkin, spent last Tuesday and Wednesday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stroud. She was present at the big "corn shucking" where several neighbors met and enjoyed a good day.

There are only a few more shuckings in this community for this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam had as their dinner guests the fifth Sunday, Mrs. Gilliam's great-aunt, Mrs. Vicie Shaw.

Mrs. Gertrude Gray and family, of Clingman, were the guests of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Morrison and Mr. Morrison for dinner Sunday, October 30.

Next Sunday morning and evening the regular preaching services will be held here at Bethel church.
