RICHMOND, Va. United States faces shortage" of cod liver oil this fall as result of the war in Norway, Robert W. Rodman, New York pharmaceutical editor, told a meeting of the American Pharmaceutical Association here today. "When Germany invaded Norway, the source of supply of 70 per cent. of the cod liver oil used in the United States was immediately cut off," he said. "The hostilities came at a bad time for the cod liver oil industry as spring is the big cod fishing season and stocks of oil in this country are at their low point following heavy winter sales when vitamin products are in the greatest demand."

GRANGEVILLE, Idaho -Clifford Albert Zipse, 16, described by his attorney as a mentally subnormal farm boy subject to terrible rages, was condemned today to die on the gallows for fatally shooting Wesley Curtis, 15, his Rocky Point schoolmate. Testimony brought out that Zipse confessed he waited on a hillside March 1 and shot Curtis several times "because he was making trouble for me with

NEW YORK, May 8-Rear Admiral Clark H. Woodward, commandant of the third naval district, declared flatly yes-terday that "no battleship has yet been sunk by an airplane" and cited U. S. Navy tests to support his assertion. "In 1924." he said, "the battleship Washington was taken off the capes and bombs were rained upon her. She had to be sunk by the guns of the Texas. Then we took the old German Ostfriesland, and dropped 69 bombs at her. Only 16 hits were scored, and it took them all to sink her."

Labor Party Is to Force Vote in Commons

SEEKING RECOGNITION

Dutch Government Maintaining Precautions Against German Invasion

ALL LEAVES CANCELLED

London, May 8.—The leadership of the labor party decided today to force a vote in the House of Commons tonight testing the confidenece of Parliament in the cabinet of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain.

The action of the laborites was equivalent to demanding that Commons vote "no confidence" in the cabinet after a two day debate on the unsuccessful allied expediionary campaign in Norway.

Laborites reversed their previous position in deciding to force a vote at the end of debate tonight. They had taken a tentative decision yesterday not to seek a vote.

The new decision sent the conservative party whips into action to rally government supporters. It was generally believed that the Chambelain government, despite bitter attacks on its conduct of the war, would be able to secure a majority, but some of the Laborites were hopeful of an up-A vote of non-confidence would almost certainly force Chamberlain's resignation. (The Conservative party has
