

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Mrs. Paul B. Folger was hostess to her contract club Tuesday evening. High score prize went to Mrs. Emma Mock, and runner up to Mrs. B. F. Folger. At the end of the progressions Mrs. Folger served tempting refreshments.

Atty. Wade B. Hampton, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Emma Hampton, for several days last week, returning to Washington Monday.

The Dobson school fair was a great success, both in entertainment and financially. All proceeds will go to the school for better equipment and various necessities. The room exhibits were of high order, showing tact and talent. Miss Emma Comer, fourth grade teacher, won the grammar grade prize on "The Flag." Mrs. W. B. Stone, teacher of the third grade, won the primary grade prize on "The Grocery Store," and Mrs. W. E. Hancock won high school prize on "Science." Miss Comer also won the grand prize. Booths of fishing, candy, fortune telling and bingo drew large crowds, as did the minstrel show. Large crowds attended both days.

A fiddlers convention was held in the school auditorium Saturday evening, for the benefit of the school.

Mrs. Taylor, of Alleghany county, is visiting her son, Mr. E. L. Taylor, and family, and daughter, Mrs. J. Jordan Douglass, on Kapp street.

The wedding of Miss Thelma Comer to Mr. Raymond Richards, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Folger Saturday morning was beautiful in its simplicity. One side of the living room was banked with white pines as a background for candelabra, and huge baskets of white dahlias and fern, in colors of green and white to form the sacred altar. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Lucille Freeman. Rev. Thomas F. Carney, of the Catholic church, performed the impressive ceremony. Miss Clara Freeman attended the bride, and Mr. Herman Coe entered with the groom.

The bride was attired in a going away black dress, with a shoulder corsage of white roses and gardenias. The happy couple left immediately, under showers of rice, for parts unknown. Mrs. Folger served cake and cream to the relatives of the bride and a few friends.

Mrs. Richards is the daughter of Mr. Robert Comer, of Dobson, and holds a position with the school faculty at Southport. Mr. Richards' home is at Erie, Penn., and he is on the faculty at Laurel Hill school.

Mrs. Ed Woltz, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Wilbur Currie, of Carthage, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Emma Comer.

Mrs. John Comer and Miss Julia Comer returned Friday from Bluefield, W. Va., where they visited last week with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Keesee.

Mrs. Emma Hampton and sons,

Your Acceptance of Our New Store Was Overwhelming!

TO THE THOUSANDS WHO VISITED US UPON OUR OPENING, WE EXPRESS

Sincere THANKS!

Although we expected many to visit us Saturday upon the opening of our new store, the thousands who came to see and to express their compliments was beyond our fondest hopes.

That we are proud of our new store goes without saying. That we are proud of your wholehearted reception, and sincerely appreciate the generosity of your compliments and expressions of good will, is what we are trying to put over in this message.

Elkin and this entire section has been good to us since the inauguration of our business here. And we pledge that we will continue to strive to give you the kind of service, the type of store and the high quality in merchandise that you have every right to expect.

Again may we say—THANK YOU!
