who register today, I say that democracy is your cause—the cause of youth . . . your act today affirms not only your loyalty to your countrymen, but your will to build your future for yourselves."

Mr. Roosevelt said it was to the cause of democracy, the cause of peace "that we Americans today devote our national will and our national spirit and our national strength."

"It is a day of deep and purposeful meaning in the lives of all of us. For on this day we Americans proclaim the vitality of our history, the singleness of our will and the unity of our nation."

"We prepare to keep the peace in this new world which free men have built for free men to live in."

This can only be classed as remarkable, for on the left there shouts the mother of Hank Greenberg, Detroit's keg of dynamite; and on the right we present the mother of Frank McCormick, powerhouse of the Cincinnati Reds.
