

ROOSEVELT WINNER OVER WILLKIE

New Governor — Is Again Elected President — Leads Ticket

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF

From the State and Nation

STATE

WINDSOR, Nov. 6.—A "whispering campaign" was the downfall of a Snake Bite, N. C. township officer in yesterday's general election. Henry Dempsey had been township constable for many years and was unopposed for re-election until the last moment. But word got around yesterday morning that Dempsey was a Willkie man. When the township votes were counted, Dempsey had 23 and a write-in candidate, Roy Stocks, had 78. But the township cast 159 votes for President Roosevelt and none for Wendell Willkie—and now everyone is wondering just how that rumor got started.

ALTHOUGH Wendell L. Willkie is running well behind President Roosevelt, he is making a better showing in both electoral votes and popular votes than Alf M. Landon did in 1936. Landon had 8 electoral votes to 523 for Roosevelt. Early Wednesday Willkie had captured, or held the lead in states with 98 electoral votes, as against a tentative total of 433 for Roosevelt.

NATIONAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt's apparent victory over Wendell L. Willkie gave John L. Lewis his self-appointed cue today to step down as C. I. O. president, and it likewise encouraged conjecture that new efforts would be made to end the A. F. L.-C. I. O. schism in union ranks. Lewis staked his C. I. O. leadership on a Roosevelt defeat when he issued his dramatic call to followers two weeks ago for a Willkie triumph. Closest associates said no one would be able to dissuade the veteran labor leader from carrying through with his avowed intention to quit as C. I. O. head.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt today promised undeviating support for principles of his new deal in the harsh years into which he fears the new world is heading. "I think you will find me in the future just exactly the same Franklin Roosevelt as you have known for a great many years," he said in a victory speech to his Hyde Park neighbors. That was the first public utterance of the President after the trend to Tuesday's voting had been established. It implied a promise that after his third inauguration next January 20, the administration will meet the problems of a world at war on the same basis which guided the new deal since March 4, 1933.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The great tide of votes for President Roosevelt was interpreted today as insuring uninterrupted continuation of an American foreign policy predicated on all aid "short of war" for Britain, and a firm stand against the policies and acts of aggressor nations. The diplomatic consensus, too, was that it would add speed to the Pan-American program to strengthen the defenses of the Western Hemisphere. Most observers took it as a foregone conclusion that Cordell Hull, co-author and spokesman of the administration's international foreign policy, would remain as secretary of state in the new administration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Democrats, riding a tide of votes with President Roosevelt, kept control of both House and Senate in Tuesday's election. An official tabulation at 8:10 a. m. (e. s. t.) showed they had won 222 House seats, for more than a majority, to 107 for the Republicans. In addition, one incumbent American Laborite was re-elected. A majority is 218.

BIG BATTLE SAID RAGING

Greek and Italian Armies Reported Locked in Death Struggle

SUCCESS IS REPORTED

Nov. 6.—Greek and Italian armies were reported locked in a tremendous battle today as Great Britain and Germany clashed in big-scale sea and air operations.

A conflict of great importance is raging in Greece, the Italian official radio reported, asserting that Fascist troops are advancing on both northern and southern fronts after bitter fighting in which many Greek prisoners were taken.

The Fascist version of the war conflicted with reports of further Greek advances, especially along the road to Koritza, big Italian base in Albania. An Italian fortified line guarding the Koritza road was reported smashed by Greek mountain troops, which surged forward to seize a new line of hills on the northern front.

The Greeks had been reporting successful progress since they smashed the initial Fascist drive toward Florina (which was heavily bombed by Italian planes against today) and Salonika on the north wing. The Greek mountain troops sliced into Albania at the extreme northwestern corner of Greece (where Greece, Albania and Yugoslavia meet) and had advanced almost to Koritza after crossing the Devoli River yesterday afternoon.

Republican Leader Admits Defeat And Congratulates FDR

No Further Order Numbers In This Issue

Due to the fact that some uncertainty exists concerning the correctness of the order numbers of registrants under the selective service act, as carried in part in this newspaper last week, The Tribune will not publish further such numbers until the Surry draft board No. 2 releases official order numbers from Dobson. The draft board cannot make up the official list of order numbers until a master copy of the numbers as drawn in Washington, has been received.

Middle West Proves Willkie Stronghold; Solid South Still Solid

WEST IS FOR PRESIDENT

New York, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt's third-term victory over Wendell L. Willkie was building up today toward another electoral college landslide.

Wendell L. Willkie telegraphed President Roosevelt congratulations on his reelection.

The new deal is in for another four years at the White House and at least two more on Capitol Hill, but Willkie appears to have piled up the largest vote ever cast for a losing candidate.

Those results of the 1940 election were indicated hour by hour last night. In more complete returns today the President's reelection became a mathematical certainty at 9:40 a. m. e. s. t., when the national press tabulation showed 20 states with at least 266 electoral votes had given him safe pluralities. Some precincts were missing. But the battle was over.

The new deal had broken through Republican defenses in New England and in the great industrial states of the Middle East. The Solid South held solid and the Far West went to Roosevelt, although Oregon was fighting ground. The Middle West proved a Willkie stronghold.

The President told his Hyde Park, N. Y., neighbors that they would find him "the same Franklin Roosevelt that you have known for a great many years." His first public appearance as President elect was scheduled at noon—with the laying of a cornerstone for the Hyde Park, N. Y., post office. This occasion may enable him to give a first hint of the policies of his third administration.

Miss Dixon Is Named Secretary Teachers' Ass'n

Miss Alice Dixon, of this city, and a member of the high school faculty, was elected secretary of the Northwestern District Teachers Association at a meeting in Winston-Salem on Friday of last week. S. C. Deskins, of Sumner high school in Guilford county, was elected president of the association and Ralph Brimley, principal of the Central school in Winston-Salem, was elected vice-president.

Dedicating themselves to the convention theme of "Teaching to Perpetuate Our American Form of Democracy," the teachers heard two stirring addresses by Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, professor of education at the University of Cincinnati. Claude R. Joyner, principal of the R. J. Reynolds high school in Winston-Salem, and retiring president of the association, and S. G. Hawfield, of Raleigh, president of the North Carolina Education Association, also addressed the group.

The meeting Friday was attended by the faculties of the city schools, North Elkin and Jonesville schools, and other teachers of the northwestern part of the state. Classes were dismissed for the day in order that the entire faculties might attend.

The blaze, thought to have originated from a chimney, was discovered about 12:30 p. m. and rapidly gained headway.

A majority of the furnishings on the ground floor of the home were saved. Furniture upstairs was destroyed.

Mr. Shugart, veteran rural route mail carrier, stated that the loss was partly covered by insurance.

YADKIN G. O. P. TAKES VICTORY

Three Democratic Office Holders Are Thrown Out in Tuesday Election

JONESVILLE FOR F.D.R.

Yadkin county went to the polls Tuesday and threw out all Democratic officeholders, of which there were three, and replaced them with Republicans, returns from that county have shown.

In the race for the house of representatives, Woodhouse, Democrat, seeking to succeed himself, was defeated by Norman by a vote of 4,345 to 3,109.

In the race for county board of commissioners, the two Democratic members seeking to succeed themselves were both defeated. J. W. Shore, Democrat, was given 962 votes to lose to his Republican opponent, C. G. Mathis, who polled 1,068. D. A. Reynolds, Democrat, and chairman of the present board, received 688 votes to lose to R. T. Moore, who polled 726. Other commissioners elected were D. A. Smitherman, B. H. Dinkins and J. W. Garner.

The Yadkin county vote in the presidential race had not been learned late Wednesday afternoon. Jonesville, which is in North Knobs township, returned a majority for Roosevelt.

In the face of early returns from Wilkes county with 11 out of 29 precincts reported, Willkie and McNeill were running ahead of Roosevelt and Broughton. Returns on other state and county candidates were not available.
