

FREE PROGRAM FOR FARMERS

John Deere Day Monday to Feature Movies at Elkin School Gym

SPONSORED BY HINSHAW

Free to farmers in this and neighboring communities, will be the big John Deere Day movie program to be held at the Elkin school gymnasium Monday, February 3, beginning at 1:00 p.m.

According to the Hinshaw Cash Hardware Co., local John Deere dealer, this year's John Deere Day movie program will appeal to everyone who has anything to do with farming. Leo Hinshaw, owner of the store, extends a cordial invitation to every farmer, farmer's wife, and farm boy to come to this big day of entertainment and education.

The main attraction, "Melody Comes to Town," is a sparkling, all-talking picture with a popular Hollywood cast. It's an appealing story of a rural community rallying to the support of a worth-while cause. Packed with sentiment, laughs, and thrilling music, this heart-warming picture will long be remembered by those who see it.

In addition to "Melody Comes to Town," four other new, all-talking pictures will be shown. They include "The Road to Happiness"—an interesting story of John and Claire, a typical small-farm couple who eliminated many long, hard hours of work and found a new happiness in farm life. "The Shepherds Take a Vacation"—an educational picture depicting the change in harvesting methods with the shift from small- and medium-sized farms throughout the country. "The Control of Quality"—an enlightening picture that takes you "behind the scenes" in the building of modern farm tractors. And a short news reel of "What's New in Farm Equipment for 1941."

According to Mr. Hinshaw, admission to the John Deere Day Show will be ticket only. Any farmer who has not received tickets can get them by inquiring at his store before the day of the show.

THE DOCTOR Tells the Story

by W.E. AUCHINCLOSS M.D.

DR. MUDD
The assassination of President Lincoln was one of the biggest tragedies of all time, for he was loved by those who lived in the south as well as by the northerners. Undoubtedly the man who caused his death was not mentally balanced but felt that in doing what he did he was performing a feat that would rank him as a great hero of the southland, when as a matter of fact it did just the opposite. I speak as a man who knows what he is talking about for I was born in Virginia, that state where the greatest dramas of the Civil War were staged and whose people suffered more than in any other during those terrible days.

After Booth killed President Lincoln who was seated in a box in Ford's Theatre, he jumped from the second floor to the stage and in doing so broke several small bones of his foot. Limping, he reached his horse, held in the alley behind the theatre by a Negro boy, and fled to Maryland, crossing the Annapolis bridge, hoping to get into the South.

However, his foot began swelling and the pain was so intense that he was forced to dismount and seek medical aid. He wrote Dr. Mudd, a country physician, who never before had seen or even heard of him, and who was being ministered to by the doctor, who helped him remount his steed, continued his journey. Instead of going further into the South, Dr. Mudd, he went into hiding in the physician's barn, and was immediately taken and shot by Sergeant Corbett of a Michigan Cavalry Regiment.

Dr. Mudd was arrested and although innocent was tried for the murder of the President and found guilty. He was sentenced to life imprisonment in a fort in the Dry Tortugas, a group of coral islands, situated off the coast of Florida.

Yellow fever broke out among the garrison and many officers and men succumbed to its attack. Finally the army surgeon died in the epidemic, and in this crisis Dr. Mudd volunteered to act, with such success that there were no more deaths. Later at the request of the entire garrison he was pardoned.

I was stationed at the Naval Frank's Cruise further into the Maryland, about five miles from the home of Dr. Mudd, where he had returned to again resume the practice of medicine. Frequently in the evening I rode over to spend the evening with this venerable doctor and talk of old times. He was bitter in his denunciation of the treatment he had received and many, many times told me what he knew, who Booth was and what he had done, that he would have turned him over to the authorities.
