News from the County Capital

The Missionary Society of Dobson Baptist church met with Mrs. W. L. Reece Thursday evening. Opening song, "The King's Business." Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Emma Mock. Miss Elizabeth Norman introduced the subject, "Whatever Things Are Just—Think on These Things," and spoke on "Things That Are Just."

Mrs. Reece discussed, "Injustice"; Miss Beatrice Holbrook spoke on, "Injustice in America," and Mrs. W. E. Reid had for her subject, "The Paths of Justice." "America the Beautiful" was sung which concluded the program. After the business session refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. E. Reid, with Miss Holbrook joint hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norman had as dinner guests Wednesday evening, Mr. Don Dickinson, of Galax; Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Asked to write a brief essay on the life of Benjamin Franklin, a little girl wrote this gem of a paragraph:

"He was born in Boston, traveled to Philadelphia, met a lady on the street, she laughed at him, he married her, and discovered electricity."

"I'm fed up on that," cried the baby, pointing to the high chair.

her dessert-bridge club Saturday evening. After the progressions, Mrs. R. C. Lewellyn was found to be winner of high score prize, and Miss Edythe Reece runner-up. Refreshments were served.

NOT YET

The farmer's wife was spending the day in bed with a severe cough, and her husband was working in the back yard, hammering nails into some boards.

"How's your wife?" asked a caller.

"Not so good," said the farmer. "Is that her coughin'?"

"No, you fathead," replied the farmer, "It's a hen house."

REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR!

ALL WRONG

Three shop girls were enjoying a selection by the orchestra.

"Isn't it divine! Wonder what they're playing?" said Madge.

"It's the sextet from 'Lucia,'" announced Tillie positively.

"No, it's 'Tales from Hoffman,'" persisted Annabelle.

"I think that you are both wrong; but there is a card up there—I'll go and see for myself!" announced Madge, suiting the action to the word. She came back triumphant.

"You're way off, girls! It's the 'Refrain from Spitting!'"
