Vital War Salvage Drive Is To Begin Here Thursday

BOND SOLD FOR EVERY PERSON IN CITY LIMITS

RANGE FROM $25 TO $1000

Wires Are Sent to President Roosevelt and Secretary Morgenthau

GOVERNOR WIRES MAYOR

Sale of United States War Bonds in Elkin for the month of July reached a figure that is believed to have set a national record for cities of over 2,500 population.

During July a bond was sold for every man, woman and child in the city of Elkin, with several hundred bonds to spare.

According to the 1940 census, Elkin's population stands at 2,730 people. A total of 2,978 bonds, ranging in denomination from $25.00 to $1,000, were sold. Total purchase value of the war securities amounted to $67,931.25. Maturity value amounted to $90,574.00.

It has been pointed out that if the total purchase value of the bonds was divided by $18.75, the purchase price of a $25.00 bond, it would show a total of 3,623 twenty-five dollar bonds purchased during the month, or 893 twenty-five dollar bonds in excess of the town's population.

Following the successful conclusion of the bond drive Friday evening, Mayor J. R. Poindexter sent the following wire to President Roosevelt:

"Elkin challenges nation on sale of War Savings Bonds for cities of over 2,500 population. City has just completed drive which shows that one bond has been sold during July for every man, woman and child within the city limits, with bonds to spare. Bonds range from $25.00 to $1,000."

Mayor Poindexter also dispatched a similar wire to Governor J. M. Broughton, which brought the following reply:

"I have received your telegram and wish to congratulate you and the citizens of Elkin on the wonderful record that has been made in the war bond campaign for July. I doubt if any city in the nation can equal this record and I have been glad to make a statement to the press about this remarkable record."

A wire was also sent to Henry Morgenthau, Jr., secretary of the treasury at Washington by Postmaster French W. Graham. However, no reply had been received
