B. And P. Women To Organize Club

A supper meeting will be held this evening (Thursday) at 7 o'clock at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of organizing a Business and Professional Women's Club. All business and professional women who are interested in membership in such a club are cordially invited to attend.

Johnson-Gross Vows Announced

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Romey Patrick Johnson of Booneville, of the marriage of their daughter, Lucille Lenora, and Corp. Curtis Lee Gross, which was solemnized in York, S. C., on August 9.

Mrs. Whitaker Fetes Visitor

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker was hostess at an informal party Wednesday afternoon at her home on Church street, to honor her sister, Mrs. J. Matt Tuttle, of Winston-Salem, who was her guest last week.

Miss Hayes Is Hostess At Tea

Miss Eleanor Hayes entertained at a lovely informal tea at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, on Church street, Saturday afternoon from 4 until 5 o'clock, to honor her guest, Miss Rebecca Wearn, of Charlotte.

The guest list included twelve friends.

Early autumn garden flowers were used throughout the home in an attractive arrangement.

Miss Shamel Fetes Visitor and Bride

Miss Aline Shamel entertained at a delightful evening bridge at her home on Hawthorne Road Wednesday, to honor her guest, Miss Jenny Quinn Cavanaugh, of Warsaw, and Mrs. Eugene Wesley Powers, a bride of the summer. Roses and gladioli were used in the living room, where four tables were placed for the games. In the progressions the high score award went to Miss Eleanor Hayes.

Mrs. Powers Is Honored Tuesday

Misses Jo and Jerry Barker entertained at a delightful bridge party at their home on West Main street Tuesday evening, to honor Mrs. Eugene Wesley Powers, a bride of the summer.

Mixed garden flowers were used in the living room, where four tables were placed for the games. The place of the honoree was designated with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

In the progressions the high score award went to Miss Marion Graham. Mrs. Powers was presented crystal in her wedding pattern as guest of honor.

Fortnightly Club Enjoys Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club at a delightful dinner meeting Friday evening at their home on Gwyn Avenue. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests, from small tables arranged with bouquets of garden flowers.

Bridge was played during the evening, with the high score awards, War Savings Stamps, going to Mrs. Marion Allen and H. C. Graham.

Those making up the tables were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ogburn, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour and Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn.

Engagement Is Announced

Of widespread interest here, where the bride-elect frequently visits, is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Margaret Snow Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Callahan of Raleigh, and Charles S. Manooch, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Manooch, Sr., of Raleigh, which was recently announced by the bride-elect's parents.

Miss Callahan graduated this year from Peace Institute in Raleigh. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snow of this city and her mother is the former Miss Esther Snow.

The wedding will take place in the early fall following Mr. Manooch's graduation from Lubbock Flying School, Lubbock, Texas, where he will be commissioned a first lieutenant.

Miss Allen Is Hostess Friday

Miss Mary Elizabeth Allen was hostess at a delightful party Friday evening at her home on Church street to honor Mrs. Eugene Wesley Powers, a bride of the summer, and Miss Jenny Quinn Cavanaugh of Warsaw, guest of Miss Aline Shamel.

Garden flowers were used in the living room, where four tables were placed for bridge. In the progression the high score award went to Miss Aline Shamel. Mrs. Powers was presented one of her wedding announcements which the hostess had hand-decorated with water colors and framed. Miss Cavanaugh, Miss Rebecca Wearn of Charlotte and Miss Genevieve Hinton of Apex, were each presented remembrances.

A salad course was served during the evening.

Fashion Show And Dinner Planned

Members of the Junior Woman's Club will give a dinner-bridge and fashion show at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. C. A. Friday, September 4, at 7 o'clock. The proceeds of the event will be used for the benefit of the school lunchroom here and to provide free lunches for underprivileged children during the winter.

Tables will be arranged for the dinner cabaret style and members of the club will model the latest fashions in fall clothes during the dinner. All of the clothing modeled will be from the regular stocks of Elkin department stores.

A cover charge will be made and will include the privilege of dinner and bridge or rook. Those attending are requested to make up their own tables.

Miss Eldridge To Wed In September

Mrs. Thomas J. Phillips was hostess at a lovely dinner party Friday evening to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Florence Eldridge of this city and Dennis Van Horn of Statesville.

The guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Phillips, on Bridge street, where they were served cocktails. The main dinner was served in the private dining room of the Bon-Ton Grill. Six small tables were arranged with bouquets of old-fashioned garden flowers. Bridal place cards marked the places of the guests and the place of the honoree was designated with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The announcement was made with the dessert course, ices moulded in the shape of wedding bells, and cake. The plates were adorned with green tulle bags of rice to which were attached cards inscribed "Florence-Dennis, September 5."

The guest list included Miss Eldridge, honoree, Mesdames Herman Hoppers, F. M. Norman, Fletcher Harris, D. W. Morrison, Carl Young, Roby Castevens, Ora Vanhoy, Dan Barbour, Jack Brown, Ted Brown, Zeno Dobbins, Thomas Hendren, Robert Poplin, Jr.; Misses Lorna Smith, Dixie Caudill, Nettie Hinshaw, Lillian Johnson and Lucy Gray. Out-of-town guests were Miss Evon Eldridge of Glade Valley; Misses Mary Betty and Elizabeth Norman of Dobson; Mrs. J. I. Myers of North Wilkesboro and Mrs. Gilbert Meed, of Wheeling, West Virginia.

Mrs. Booher Is Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. James Booher was hostess at a lovely luncheon Wednesday at her home in Westover Heights, when she entertained at the second of a series of three parties.

Roses were used as centerpieces for the three small tables, where covers were laid for twelve. Early autumn flowers were used elsewhere in the home.

Mrs. A. S. Robertson, Jr., a bride of the summer, was presented a gift.
