

JONESVILLE

Mrs. Grover C. Graham, Editor Phone 123-R

Fred Shore left Monday for Baltimore where he will attend to business matters.

Seaman 2/c Fred Davis, of Cambridge, Md., is spending a furlough with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Warden, Mrs. J. P. Canipe, Mrs. Horace E. Moser and Mrs. Odell Holcomb spent Saturday in Winston-Salem on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Groce spent the week-end in High Point visiting relatives.

Jennie Smith, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Smith, is reported much improved after a week of serious illness.

Mr. Will Lovelace is reported critically ill with pneumonia.

Mark Reece, of Wake Forest College freshman class, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reece.

Mayor Z. B. Martin and Rev. G. C. Graham attended the organization meeting for the Fourth Bond campaign held in the Court-house at Yadkinville Monday evening.

Instances of illness from the influenza epidemic have greatly decreased in the village. Some families reported the entire membership affected when the disease was most prevalent recently.

Mr. Tom Shugart, of Jacksonville, has concluded a visit of several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Shugart.

Baptist Society Meets

The Rose Marlowe society met with Mrs. F. A. Lineberry with ten members and two visitors present. The devotional subject, "The Beatitudes of Jesus" was given by Miss Bertha Adams. Miss Adams also led the program.

The topic of the evening, "The Characteristics of Citizens of the Kingdom" was presented by Miss Bertha Adams, Mrs. M. A. Holcomb, Miss Thelma Shore, and Miss Mary Frances Apperson. After the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Woman's Society of Christian Service

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Boles, with Mrs. O. E. Boles assistant hostess. Rev. G. C. Graham, guest of the evening, led the scheduled program for opening the New Year, the "Installation Pledge Service for 1944."

The officers were each given an individual charge pertaining to the particular task to be performed, the symbol of each being given by the leader. After an appropriate response by the president, Mrs. G. C. Graham, the members signed pledges in support of the world-wide program of the Methodist Women's organization.

Mrs. W. L. Hine, chairman of Mission study, presented the new book, "We Who Are America" by Kenneth D. Miller. The first chapter of the book, "Our America" was presented by Mrs. G. C. Graham. Several matters of business were discussed. Refreshments and social visiting closed the meeting.

JAYCEES HOLD DINNER MEET

Informal Program In Observance of National Jaycee Week Is Presented

Forty - Five Attend

evening, with forty-five in attendance.

Claude Farrell, president of the club, who had not attended the meetings for sometime due to illness, was present and presided over the session. Among the business transacted was the election of Homer Edwards as program chairman, replacing J. C. McPhail, who leaves today for duty with the U. S. Army.

An informal program, in observance of National Jaycee Week was presented. The program consisted of intra-club speaking. Among the speakers and their subjects were: Herbert Cochrane, who spoke on "Advantages of Being a Jaycee"; Walter Metz on

"Publicity in Jaycee Work"; Paul Royall, who gave a brief resume of the activities of the local club during the last half of 1943, and C. C. Weaver, Jr., on "What a Jaycee Can Do For Community, State and Nation." Rev. Herman F. Duncan, a special guest, spoke briefly on the subject "As Others See Us."

PREPARED FOR CASEY

Murphy—What's that in your pocket?

Pat (in whisper)—Dynamite. I'm waiting for Casey. Every time he meets me he slugs me on the chest and breaks me pipe. Next time he does it he'll blow his hand off.
