CHARTER IS PRESENTED

An inspiring address by Judge G. H. Hastings, of Winston-Salem, a past director of Lions International and one of the oldest members of the Lions organization in North Carolina, featured the Elkin Lions Club Charter Night meeting at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. PLAN FIRST C. A., here Tuesday evening. Approximately 100 persons attended the meeting, including a large number of guests from Mt. Airy, Sparta, North Wilkesboro, Boone, Statesville, Greensboro and High Point.

Judge Hastings, in reviewing the history of the Lions Clubs. stated that one club in the United States has over 800 members. more members than all the clubs in the country boasted at the time the organization came into being with 25 charter clubs.

Presentation of the Charter was made by District Governor John H. Kalte, of High Point, and was accepted by President W. J. Graham of the local club. Mayor J R. Poindexter, who was unable to be present, sent a letter in which he welcomed the club to the "Best Little Town in North Carolina." #### Surry County Sales Nearly Three Million

Final figures on the Sixth War Loan drive in Surry county, released Wednesday by J. F. Yokley, of Mount Airy, Surry chairman; have disclosed that the county exceeded its over-all quota of $1,-293.000 by $1,675,000.25, and that it topped its E-Bond quota of $529,000 by $134,411.25.

These impressive figures are official, having been reported to Mr. Yokley by the Federal Reserve Bank at Richmond.

Total E-Bond sales, Mr. Yokley said, amounted to $663,411.25. Sales of Bonds of individuals amounted to $1,117,811.25, and the total over-all sales were $2,-968.402.25, or just $31,597.75 shy of three million dollars.

Both Mr. Yokley and Garland Johnson, chairman of the local War Loan drive, expressed themselves as highly pleased with the result of the drive, and asked that their thanks be extended to everyone, workers and Bond purchasers alike, for making this splendid

Annual Red Cross Drive Here In March

ELKIN QUOTA IS $10,000

Mrs. A. O. Bryan, of West Main street, will again serve as chairman of the Red Cross War Fund drive for the Elkin district, when it is held sometime in March, it was learned Tuesday from Mrs. Joe O. Bivins, chairman of the Elkin Branch.

Mrs. Bivins said that the exact date for the local drive has not been decided upon, but that it will be conducted near the first

Mrs. Bryan was chairman of last year's successful drive and the acceptance of this year's chairmanship should do much toward making the drive a success. The Elkin district includes Devotion, Zephyr, State Road, Burch and Crutchfield.

The Elkin Branch quota for this year is $10,000, Mrs. Bivins said, and the Surry County Chapter quota is $25,000, the same as last year. The national quota has been set at $14,000,000.

Selection of workers who will be needed to aid in the local campaign will be announced at an early date.

In view of the increasing demands upon the American Red Cross for service to the nation's fighting men; to the prisoners of war, and to families of service men, the Red Cross will need a generous response in the March drive. Officials of the Surry county Chapter are confident that the people of the county will respond generously to the drive and will put it over the top as in all former campaigns conducted by the

Baptists Hope To Erect New Structure In Post-War Era

BUY FROM CHATHAMS

Lot Is Located At Corner of Gwyn Avenue and East Market Street

EXTENDS TO E. MAIN ST.

The Elkin First Baptist church, with a view toward erecting a new church building in the post-war era, recently purchased the property of Mrs. Mary Armfield Chatham and heirs. The lot is located at the corner of Gwyn Avenue and East Market street and extends eastward to East Main street. It is the site of the home of the late Hugh Chatham and was more recently occupied by Mrs. Mary Armfield Chatham. widow of the late R. M. Chatham, and family. The transaction also included a small adjoining lot which was the property of Hugh Chatham, son of R. M. Chatham, of Stanleytown, Virginia.

The entire purchase was made for $26,750, of which $1,750 was paid Hugh Chatham for his property. The Chatham Foundation contributed $10,000 to the church to aid in the purchase of the lots. At a meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist church on Sunday morning, January 7, it was unamiously voted that the purchase be made. Serving on the church committee for the pur-Pvt.
