Cancer Drive To Begin Here On April 25th

Will Ask Quota Of $1,000; Lions Club Is Sponsor

A campaign to raise funds in he fight against cancer will get under way here tomorrow, April 25, under the sponsorship of the Elkin Lions Club. A minimum of $1,000 has been set as Elkin's quota, according to Lion President Jack Caudill.

Glenn Lewis has been appointed chairman of the drive. Business and residential districts will be canvassed in an effort to conclude the campaign by May 1. Persons not contacted are request-

The Lucy Hanes Chatham Clubs number one and two will direct the drive at Chatham Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Caudill urged that citizens respond generously to the appeal for funds. The money will be used primarily for research in an effort to determine the cause and cure of the deadly disease. Funds will also be expended in an educational program designed to acquaint the public with the early symptoms of cancer, since most cases are curable if treated early.

William A. White, of Rusk, has been appointed District Fish and Came Protector for district nine, which includes Surry county, according to an announcement by the Division of Game and Inland Fisheries in Raleigh last week. Mr. White said that several streams in Surry county have been stocked with legal size trout (seven inches and over). He also called attention to the fact that persons using artificial lures are required by law to have county or state fishing license. Persons fishing outside their resident counties are required to have state license for both casting and hook-and-
