In a Sunday afternoon ceremony marked by beauty and reverence, Miss Zana Mariette Rary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Rary of Jonesville, and Dewey Keith Mayberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey L. Mayberry of Jonesville, were united in marriage at five o'clock at the Jonesville Methodist Church. Rev. C. Marvin Boggs, pastor of the church, officiated, using the double ring ritual, assisted by Rev. R. J. Hogan, pastor of the Jonesville Baptist Church.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. R. G. Boles, pianist, and Miss Peggy Lineberry, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

Vows were exchanged before a background of native greenery interspersed with floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and seven branched candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin crepe fashioned with a deep yoke of rosepoint lace outlined with a bertha, a fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands, and a full skirt extending into a train. Her veil of bridal illusion fell from a Queen Victoria bonnet trimmed with orange blossoms and she carried a prayer book topped with a white purple throated orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of her father.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Carolyn Rary, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth Stroud, sister of the bride; Miss Erline Mayberry, cousin of the bridegroom; Misses Norma Melchor and Geraldine Melchor, Salisbury, cousins of the bride; Little Miss Vicki Mayberry, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

The maid of honor wore a dress of fuchsia taffeta styled with a bertha giving an off-shoulder effect, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums and wore a bandeau of silver sequins in her hair. The bridesmaids wore dresses of aqua taffeta fashioned identical to that of the honor attendant and carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Their only ornaments were rhinestone clips, gifts of the bride.

Miss Vicki Mayberry wore a dress of white taffeta and carried a satin basket filled with rose petals.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of black crepe with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a street length dress of Nile green. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

The bridegroom was attended by his father as best man. Ushers were Herbert Mayberry, brother of the bridegroom; Lott Mayberry and Lynn Holcomb, cousins of the bridegroom and Kenneth Stroud, brother-in-law of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mayberry, parents of the bridegroom, entertained at an informal reception at their home for relatives and out-of-town guests. Mrs. Marvin Mayberry greeted guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line, composed of the parents of the bridal couple, the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Kenneth Stroud directed guests to the dining room, where the bride's table was overlaid with an imported lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with silver bells. The base of the cake was encircled with greenery and small white chrysanthemums. White tapers in silver holders completed the setting.

Mrs. Odell H. Mayberry of Pulaski, Va., and Mrs. Hosea Arnold presided at the punch bowl and cake was served by Miss Arleena Arnold and Mrs. Charles Harris. Assisting were Miss Aileen Holcomb, Miss Betty Jo Apperson, Miss Carolyn Rary, Miss Erline Mayberry and Mrs. T. P. Mayberry. Mrs. George Hart presided in the gift room and goodbyes were said to Mrs. Hugh Holcomb.

After the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to northern points of interest. For traveling the bride changed to a suit of gray crepe gabardine with black accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

Mrs. Mayberry, a graduate of Jonesville High School, attended Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and now holds a secretarial position with Duke Power Company of this city.

Mr. Mayberry is a graduate of Jonesville High School and prior to attending Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, served 36 months in the armed service, two years of which were spent overseas. He is now associated with his father, who owns and operates the Yellow Cab Company of this city.

Upon returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Mayberry will be at home in Jonesville.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Melchor, Salisbury, aunt and uncle of the bride, and son Richard; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Disher, Salisbury, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Disher, Charlotte, aunt and uncle of the bride, and daughter, Anne; Mrs. Elizabeth Craver, Charlotte, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lipe and Miss Agnes Lipe, Kannapolis and Miss Arleene Arnold, Winston-Salem; Mrs. R. T. Palmer and daughter, Miss Lucy Gray Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shields of Spencer; Mrs. Robey Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Penninger, Mr. and Mrs. Leander McClellan and children, Delores, Nancy Lou and Tommy, all of Concord.

In an impressive afternoon ceremony, Miss Lucille Hall, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Hall of Jonesville, became the bride of Clay Edward Church, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vergil McKinley Church of Miller's Creek, at five o'clock Friday at the home of the bride with Rev. R. J. Hogan, pastor of the Jonesville Baptist Church, hearing the vows. Only the families and close friends of the bridal couple witnessed the ceremony.

Mrs. Ivry Johnson, pianist and Miss Romona Simpson, Charlotte, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The vows were spoken in the living room of the home under an improvised bridal arch. The altar was banked with palms, Oregon fern and white chrysanthemums flanked by seven branched candelabra holding lighted tapers.

The bride joined her father, who gave her in marriage, at the arch in the hallway. Her gown was of ivory slipper satin styled with a deep yoke of marquisette outlined in a scalloped bertha embroidered with seed pearls, fitted bodice with long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands and a full skirt with a bustle back extending into a court train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Carlyle Hall, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of royal blue velvet fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice and full hoop skirt. She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations and wore a band of matching flowers and ribbons in her hair.

Bruce Church of North Wilkesboro, attended his brother as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For travel the bride wore a two piece suit of brown wool with moss green accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Church is a graduate of Jonesville High School and attended Pfeiffer Junior College, Misenheimer.

Mr. Church is a graduate of Mount Pleasant High School and is co-owner of the Basic Cab Company of North Wilkesboro.

Upon returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Church will be at home at 909 D Street, North Wilkesboro.

Immediately following the Church-Hall wedding rehearsal at the home of the bride Thursday evening, a cake cutting was given at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. C. A. by the bride's parents. The guest list included members of the wedding party, relatives and close friends.

The bride's table was overlaid with an imported lace cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. The base of the cake was surrounded with greenery interspersed with gladioli blossoms. Lighted tapers in crystal holders completed the setting.

Mrs. Hope Brown served the wedding cake and Mrs. Walter P. Rose presided at the punch bowl. Misses Kathleen Burcham and Aileen Holcomb assisted in serving.
