Mountain Park Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Nancy Sophia Hanes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Watson Hanes, Sr., of Mountain Park, and Howard Cleveland Hamlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hamlin of Dobson, who were united in marriage in a pretty ceremony solemnized at five o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Holcomb-Pinnix Vows Are Pledged In Pretty Ceremony, Sunday Afternoon

MRS. CLARENCE HAROLD HOLCOMB

Rev. E. G. Jordan of this city, former pastor of the bride, and Rev. W. E. Burrus of Mount Airy, pastor of the bride, officiated using the double ring ritual.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Livingston Williams of this city, pianist, and Mrs. Harold Simmons of Jonesville, soloist. Mrs. Williams played "Serenade" (Schubert), "Claire de Lune" (Debussy), "To the Evening Star" (Wagner), "Tranquere" (Schumann) and "Liebestraum" (Liszt). Mrs. Simmons sang "I Love You Truly," "Always" and "Because" and as the benediction sang "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The vows were spoken before a background of Oregon ferns, palms, and pines interspread with floor baskets of white gladioli and carnations. Lighted tapers in seven branched candelabra and an arch of Southern smilax completed the setting.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, G. W. Hanes, Jr., was gowned in white slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in callalily points over the hands, a fitted bodice joined to a full skirt which extended into a train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion edged with lace, cascaded from a halo of illusion and orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book topped with a white purple throat-ed orchid shawered with satin streamers and valley lilies. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Robert F. McClellan of Charlotte, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of four-ferret-not blue taffeta styled with a net yoke, basque waist and full skirt. Her head-dress was a crown of matching net and she carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli tied with blue ribbon.

Mrs. A. L. Roane, Jr., of Richmond, Va., sister of the bride; Mrs. G. W. Hanes, Jr., of Mountain Park, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Eleanor Hamlin of Mount Airy, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Bobby Brandon of Jonesville, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of bon-bon pink taffeta fashioned similar to that of the honor attendant's. Their headresses were crowns of matching net and they carried bouquets of white gladioli tied with pink ribbon.

Miss Caroline Hamlin of Dobson, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a dress of blue taffeta identical to that of the matron of honor. Her headress was a matching crown of net and she carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Ushers were Bobby Hanes of Mountain Park, brother of the bride, and Bud Hauser of Columbia, S. C.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip to Miami, Fla., and other points of interest. For travel, the bride changed to a beige suit with which she used a coffee brown

Miss Fredrica Pinnix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grady Pinnix of Jonesville, became the bride of Clarence Harold Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Holcomb of this city, in a pretty ceremony solemnized at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Jonesville. Rev. R. J. Hogan, pastor, heard the vows.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Ivry Johnson, organist, and Miss Irene Lewis, soloist.

The vows were spoken before the altar which was arranged with Oregon ferns, white gladioli and lighted tapers in seven branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Romance pink bridal satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, matching lace yoke and peplum, and a full skirt ending in a train. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with a natural orchid.

Mrs. James Robert Martin was matron of honor and her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of pastel blue taffeta styled off-shoulder, a fitted bodice trimmed in matching lace. Her headress was a matching bonnet of taffeta and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

B. R. Holbrook, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers were Bill McBride, John Wesley Mathis, Fred Hemric, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and James Robert Mathis, brother-in-law of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to New York City. For traveling the bride changed to a suit of middy blue with matching accessories. At her shoulder she pinned the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

Mrs. Holcomb is a graduate of Jonesville High School and Campbell College, Buies Creek.

Mr. Holcomb attended Elkin City Schools and is now employed at Shell Service Station.

After a wedding trip they will be at home at 502 Elk Spur Street, Va.
