Miss Parks Shown Bridal Courtesies

Two teas were given during the week in honor of Miss Dorothy Bee Parks who is to wed Charles Marshall Colhard, April 9.

Honoring Miss Parks, Miss Mattie Mae Powell entertained at a pretty tea on Wednesday afternoon of last week at her home on Gwyn Avenue.

The bridal colors of green and white were carried out in the decorations with white japonica, white snapdragons and magnolia foliage predominating.

Mrs. Enoch Harris greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line composed of the hostess, the honoree, Mrs. R. W. Parks, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Fred Colhard, mother of the bridegroom-elect.

Mrs. T. A. Leeper directed the guests to the dining room. The tea table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons, flanked with white tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. E. B. Lawrence poured tea. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Joe Harris, Miss Mabel Cathy Leeper and Miss Kathleen Gilliam.

Good-byes were said to Mrs. William T. Roth.

Approximately 100 guests called during the receiving hours from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

As a courtesy to Miss Parks, Mrs. E. C. Grier and daughter, Mrs. Earl Queen were hostesses to an informal tea Saturday afternoon at their home on North Bridge Street.

Approximately 45 guests called during the receiving hours from 3 until 5 o'clock.

Miss Parks was presented a corsage of red rosebuds and a blanket by the hostesses.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Earl Conrad, Mrs. D. G. Smith, Miss Maude Greenwood, Mrs. Harry H. Barker, Jr., and Miss Maude Greenwood.

The receiving rooms of the home were beautifully decorated with early Spring flowers.

Movie Is Shown At B. And P. Club

The Business and Professional Womans Club met Thursday evening in a dinner session at the Gilvin Roth Y.M.C.A. with 30 members present. Mrs. Rufus Crater and Mrs. George Stockton were guests.

Miss Betty Allen gave the invocation.

Miss Lucy Gray, club president, presided and stressed the proposed county health program, urging the support of each club member, making it more effective both in the schools and in Surry county. She also urged the cooperation of members in the support of the pending Education bill.

Featuring the program, Jim Dan Hemmings, vocation agriculture teacher of Mountain Park, spoke briefly on vacation resorts in North Carolina. In conclusion a technical sound movie, "North Carolina Variety Vacation Lands," presented to the N. C. Department of Conservation and Development, by Richard J. Reynolds, II, of Winston-Salem, was shown by Mr. Hemmings.

MARRIED 50 YEARS — Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Riddle, above, of Route 2, Ronda, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary, Sunday, February 13, with a family dinner which was attended by their children, relatives, friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle were united in marriage on Valentine Day 1899 in Wilkes county. They have four children, Mrs. Ila Shore of Cycle, Mrs. Violet Wells of Ronda, Claude Riddle of Haw River and Mrs. Coy W. Carter of Jonesville, seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Miss Caudle Is Shower Honoree

Miss Callie Jane Caudle, bride-elect of March 12, was honored Wednesday evening of last week with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Bobby Stinson of Booneville, at the Gilvin Roth Y.M.C.A.

Decorations consisting of white jonquils, mountain laurel and lighted tapers furnished a pretty party setting.

Miss Caudill was presented a corsage of white carnations by the hostess.

Bridal games and contests were enjoyed with prizes going to Mrs. Richard Norman, Mrs. Ernest Caudle and Mrs. Porter Bryant. Bingo prizes were won by Mrs. Foster Matthews, Mrs. Paul Mathis, Mrs. Herbert Fleming and Mrs. Harvey Smith.

A tempting refreshment course repeating the bridal motif was served to the approximately 70 guests.

The guests presented the honoree with many lovely gifts of china and crystal in her chosen wedding patterns.
