Hunter-Warden Vows Are Heard

Miss Doris Nell Warden, daughter of Mrs. Homer Williams, and Grady J. Hunter, son of Mrs. Otto Hunter of Booneville, were married in a home ceremony Saturday at 3 o'clock. Rev. Charles H. Hutchens officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of white gabardine with navy accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. Mrs. Hunter is a graduate of Yadkinville High School and Winston-Salem College. She is now employed with the Yadkin County Agricultural Association in Yadkinville. Mr. Hunter is a graduate of Booneville High School and spent two years in the European Theatre of Operations during World War II. He is now engaged in farming. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. Upon their return they will make their home with the bridegroom's mother.

At the present time, 42 of the 48 states have artificial dairy breeding associations in operation.

Moxley-Martin Vows Are Heard

MRS. F. M. MOXLEY

Miss Mary Elizabeth Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turner C. Martin of Jonesville, became the bride of Fred Monroe Moxley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Green Moxley of Booneville, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. R. J. Hogan in Jonesville, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The bride was attired in a two piece suit of mauve blue gabardine with which she used navy blue accessories. At her shoulder she pinned a corsage of white gardenias.

The only attendants were Mrs. Maggie Martin, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Peggy Ellen Vestal.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip to Florida and other points of interest.

Mrs. Moxley is a graduate of Jonesville High School and is now employed at Sydnor - Spainhour Department Store.

The bridegroom attended Booneville School and is a veteran of World War II, having served overseas. He is now employed at Steelman's Garage in Booneville.

Upon returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Moxley will be at home in Booneville.

Girls Celebrate 16th Birthday

Miss Jean Adams and Miss Ruthie Click were hostesses to a dance at the Gilvin Roth Y.M.C.A. Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The occasion being the 16th birthday anniversary of both Miss Adams and Miss Click.

The guest list included approximately 60 friends of Miss Click and Miss Adams. Chaperones were Mrs. George Adams and Mrs. Harold Click, mothers of the honorees.

The banquet hall in which the dance was held was beautifully decorated with early Spring flowers with forsythia, daffodils and bridal wreath predominating, carrying out the color scheme of yellow and white.

During the evening, cake, sandwiches and punch were served. The refreshment table was centered with the punch bowl and a birthday cake was used at either end. Miss Margaret Ann Click presided at the punch bowl.

Draw prizes were awarded Miss Betty Tuttle and Bill Allen.

Among the out-of-town guests were Donald Tesh and Jack Childress of Mount Airy; Floyd Brendle, Gayle Mayberry, at home on a visit from Tennessee Military Institute and Miss Margaret Ann Click, a student at Woman's College, Greensboro.

Miss Steelman Is Honored At Tea

Mrs. Leslie Reinhardt and Mrs. Freer Adams entertained at a pretty tea at the Gilvin Roth Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday afternoon of last week, honoring their sister, Miss Betty Lou Steelman, who is engaged to wed Charles Wilfong.

The wedding date was cleverly announced by the words, "Betty Lou and Charlie, April sixteenth," inscribed in gold lettering on the tea napkins.

Mrs. Fred Harris greeted the guests at the door and were directed to the parlor by Mrs. Jake Jones of Blowing Rock. The receiving line was composed of the hostesses and honoree.

Mrs. L. F. Walker and Mrs. Lee Neaves directed the guests to the tea table which was artistically arranged with a large bowl of bridal wreath, flanked by lighted tapers. Early Spring flowers, with bridal wreath, jonquils and forsythia predominating, were used throughout the room.

Mrs. James Burcham and Mrs. T. L. Parnell poured coffee. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Harvey Baker, Mrs. Weaver Masten, Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, Mrs. Paul Sexton, Mrs. Theodore Brown and Mrs. Arlie Steelman and Mrs. Frank Steelman, both of Booneville.
