Recruiting Sergeant Here Is Transferred

Master Sergeant Sherman T. Colvard was transferred this week from the Elkin recruiting station to headquarters of the 1100th Air Base Group at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D. C.

A regular army veteran of 16 years' experience, Sergeant Colvard served from 1943 to June, 1947, in the air forces, attaining the rank of first lieutenant and provost marshal. A year of that time was spent in the European Theatre of Operations. On June 29, 1947, he was discharged and re-enlisted the next day as a master sergeant to do recruiting work.

Sergeant Colvard first enlisted in the army in 1923, serving until 1926 in Hawaii. He returned to the army in 1931 and saw duty in the Panama Canal Zone from then until 1937.

From 1937 until 1942, he was owner and manager of the Cardwell Lumber Company in North Wilkesboro.

S/Sgt. William F. Davenport, Mount Airy, will be in Elkin each Thursday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Postoffice to enlist for the Army and Air Corps.

Davenport, a native of Mount Airy, will be working out of the Winston-Salem office. He is a former Mount Airy patrolman.

Farm poultry flocks produced eggs at a record rate during February.

Shore Service Held At Boonville Church

Funeral service for Mrs. Dora Shore, 66, who died at her home in Boonville Sunday afternoon was held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at Mitchell's Chapel. The Reverends Clete Simmons and W. R. Jenkins officiated and burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Shore, member of a prominent Yadkin county family, was born in Yadkin county, on June 26, 1882. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Casstevens. On December 30, 1906, she married A. Glenn Shore who died in 1947.

Surviving are four sons, Ernest Shore of Cycle, Gray and Julius Shore of Boonville, and Sidney Shore of Yadkinville; four daughters, Mrs. Eva Hill and Mrs. Jettie Swain, both of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Roslyn Haynes of Cycle and Mrs. Ruby Casstevens of Yadkinville; three brothers, Willie Casstevens of Laurel Highway, Wiley

Casstevens of Yadkinville and Jim Casstevens of Statesville; and 10 grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my friends for their thoughtfulness and many deeds of kindness shown me since the death of my husband; and for the beautiful floral tributes. May God's richest blessings abide with every one who has tried in any way to be of service.
