Miss Kerbaugh, Mr. Greene, Wed

The wedding of Miss Vivian Louise Kerbaugh and Kenneth David Greene of Boone, formerly of this city, was solemnized in the First Baptist Church of North Wilkesboro, at 4 o'clock Sunday.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Kerbaugh of North Wilkesboro. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Granville Clingman Greene of Clingman.

Dr. John T. Wayland officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was provided by Rodney Trueblood of Elizabeth City and Davidson College organist; and Miss Martha Ellen Barr, Elizabeth City soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, had for her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Doris Ruth Kerbaugh, and as bridesmaids, Mrs. Thomas Lee Caudill, sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Hutchens, of Elizabeth City.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, R. B. Greene of Raleigh. Ushers were George Greene of Boone; Graham Greene of Elkin; Lynn Kerbaugh of Wake Forest and Glyn Kerbaugh of Bowling Green, Ky., brothers of the bride.

The bride's wedding gown of white satin was fashioned with a marquisette yoke, corded bertha and fitted bodice scalloped and corded at low waistline. The skirt of unpressed pleats ended in a short train. The double veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with gardenias, and wore a lavalier belonging to her mother.

All the attendants were gowned in white taffeta dresses made with fitted bodices and full skirts. They wore single strands of pearls and carried arm bouquets of red roses, with arrangements of red rosebuds and white net in their hair.

After the ceremony the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to southern points. Upon their return, they will be at home at 130 Blowing Rock Road, Boone. For travel the bride changed to a navy blue dress, gray coat, with which she used navy accessories and pink hat.

The bride is a graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school following graduation from Wake Forest College as director of religious education at the First Baptist Church in Elizabeth City for about a year, leaving there the last of March.

The bridegroom graduated from Ronda High School and attended the Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone. He is now engaged in business in Boone.

Adams-Draughn Wedding Solemnized Sunday At Oak Ridge Baptist Church

MRS. ARTHUR EUGENE ADAMS (PHOTO BY BELL)

Oak Ridge Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mozelle Vernice Draughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey A. Draughn, Booneville, and Arthur Eugene Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Adams, Ronda, who were united in a ceremony solemnized at 5:30 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Rev. T. S. Draughn, cousin of the bride, heard the vows.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Loman Richardson, pianist, and Mrs. Virgil Swaim, soloist. Mrs. Swaim sang the "Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) as the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The vows were spoken before the altar arranged with Oregon fern and native greenery, white gladoli and cathedral tapers in seven branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white crepe satin fashioned with a round neckline, net yoke, fitted bodice, long sleeves and a full skirt. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion cascaded from a wreath of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Miss Georgia Campbell of Yadkinville, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pastel blue taffeta fashioned with a high neckline, fitted bodice, cape sleeves and a full skirt. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Gwyn Adams of Ronda, acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Garvey A. Haynes of Elkin and Richard Spencer, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Jonesville.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a short wedding trip. For travel the bride changed to a suit of gray gabardine with which she used a printed silk blouse with black accessories and matching hat.

Mrs. Adams is a graduate of Booneville High School and now holds a position at the Bank of Elkin.

Mr. Adams, a graduate of Ronda High School, is employed at Chatham Manufacturing Company. Upon returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Adams course served upon the arrival of the guests.

Six tables of rook were in play with the high score prize in the progressions going to Mrs. Graham Myers and the low score to Mrs. T. L. Parnell.

Each of the honorees was presented with a corsage and gifts of china and crystal in their chosen wedding patterns by the hostesses.
