Revival Is Now In Progress At Nazarene Church

REV. CLARE ELKINS

Rev. Clare Elkins of Burlington, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Burlington is conducting a revival meeting which is now in progress at the Church of the Nazarene. The revival began April 17 and will continue through May 1.

The service begins at 7:30 o'clock each evening. Special singing and music will be rendered by Prof. Grady Thomas, church choir director, the Rushing family, and the church quartet.

Rev. Elkins has had a wide experience with young peoples work and has also taught in one of the prominent Bible schools of the country.

The public is cordially invited to attend the revival services.

CONCERT DRIVE ENDS SATURDAY

No New Memberships Can Be Accepted After Deadline Until Next Year

SURRY - YADKIN GROUP

The drive for new memberships to the Surry-Yadkin Community Concert Association will close Saturday evening, according to an announcement made by the president, Mrs. Robert L. Kirkman, Jr., after which no new memberships can be accepted until next season.

A representative will be at Hayes and Speas Furniture Company, headquarters for the association, for the remainder of the week to receive new memberships. Anyone desiring to become a member of the association is requested to see the representative there.

Admission to the concerts is by membership only. No box-office admissions to any of the concerts will be sold.

A canvass has been made in Elkin and the surrounding area for renewals of last season's members. Last year the association presented such artists as Carolyn Long, lyric soprano, Zadel Skolovsky, pianist, and the Columbia Concert Trio.

The type artists the association will be able to secure will depend on the number of members in the association for 1949-50.
