E. H. S. Seniors Honored Saturday

The Juniors and Seniors of Elkin High School danced to the music of Harold Gale and his orchestra amid a colorful Dutch setting at the Junior-Senior prom Saturday evening at the high school gymnasium.

The gymnasium was transformed into a lovely Dutch scene with a flower garden, wishing well and windmill.

To open the festivities, the members of the Junior class formed the figures "49" in honor of the Senior class.

Highlighting the evening was the grand march which was led by Dale Aldridge, president of the Junior class, with Nancy Carol Gambill, and Miss Jenny Tranosou, president of the Senior class, escorted by Rowan Molsinger.

A contest featuring pictures of the Seniors when babies was held with Sonny Blackburn being crowned "Mr. Baby High of 1949."

During the intermission refreshments were served by members of the Home Economics department. John Frank Price acted as master of ceremonies. Members of the faculty and school board members were chaperones.

Ferguson-Harris Vows Solemnized

Miss Florence Harris of Washington, D. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris of this city, and Edwin W. Ferguson, son of Mrs. Martha Ferguson of Washington, D. C., and the late Mr. Ferguson, were united in marriage at 7 o'clock Saturday, April 30 at the Washington Cathedral in St. Joseph's Chapel.

The Rev. George J. Cleveland, officiated, using the double ring ritual.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of pastel orchid crepe with which she used black and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. John W. Mathis of Washington, D. C., was her sister's matron of honor and her only attendant. Hugh Ferguson was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mathis.

Mrs. Ferguson holds a position with Garfinkle Department Store in Washington. The bridegroom is a veteran of World War II having served overseas and is now employed by the Potomac Electric Power Company.

Following an unannounced wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will make their home in Washington, D. C.
