Miss Parnell Is Shown Courtesies

Several final pre-nuptial courtesies were extended to Miss Jean Parnell during the past week. Miss Parnell and John Wells were married at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church.

Complimenting Miss Parnell, Mrs. J. D. Brendle and Mrs. L. C. Couch entertained at a "come and sit" tea Thursday afternoon from 3:30 until 4:30 o'clock at the Brendle home on North Bridge Street.

The dining room table was centered with an attractive bridal scene. Pink roses and fever few were used throughout the receiving rooms of the home furnishing a pretty party setting.

The hostesses presented Miss Parnell with a corsage of roses and a gift of china in her chosen pattern. Mrs. Brendle presented Miss Geraldine Couch, bride-elect of the Summer, a corsage and a trousseau gift.

The bridal motif was carried out in the laces and individual cakes served by the hostess.

The guest list included about 20 friends of the honoree.

Mrs. William T. Roth and Miss Louisa Roth entertained at a "come and sit" tea on Wednesday afternoon of last week from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock in honor of Miss Parnell.

Punch, individual cakes and nuts were served from a tea table attractively arranged with roses and snapdragons. Arrangements of roses and sweet peas were used throughout the receiving rooms of the home.

Miss Parnell was presented a corsage and a gift of china in her chosen wedding pattern.

The guest list included 30 friends of the honoree.

Y.W.A. Group Meets Monday

The Young Women's Association of the First Baptist Church met Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Gwyn Walker. Nine members answered roll call. The meeting opened with a poem and a prayer. Betty Lineberry, president, presided over the business session.

Molly Dobbins presented a program on "Christian Schools," assisted by Betty Lineberry, Joan Dorsett and Jean Adams. The program was closed with a prayer by Mrs. Reece Gilliam, leader.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the program.

Moseley-Mackie Vows Are Spoken In Saturday Afternoon Ceremony

MRS. JOHN F. MOSELEY, JR.

Miss Lucille Elizabeth Mackie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Arthur Mackie of Yadkinville became the bride of John Fuller Moseley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller Moseley of this city at 5:30 o'clock, Saturday in Harmony Grove Friends Church in Yadkinville.

Rev. Paul Brunner of Rural Hall, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Worth Hinshaw of Hamptonville and Pleasant Norman of Washington, D. C.

Bridal green and white were effectively used in the church decorations, tall floor baskets of white gladioli and fern interspersed with feverfew were placed at the altar.

Miss Edith Mackie, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Doris Wright of Shelby, Stella Redding of Sophia, Rilla Whitaker and Ruth Haire of Yadkinville.

The maid of honor wore a gown of orchid taffeta with an overskirt of printed organza fashioned with boat neckline and a large ruffle forming a bertha. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations showered with feverfew tied with matching ribbon.

The bridesmaids wore identical dresses of blue and pink and carried a nosegay of pink carnations tied with matching ribbon.

Miss Welborn, Mr. Neubert, Betrothed

The wedding of Miss Joy Patricia Welborn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe David Welborn of Yadkinville, and Ernest Calvin Neubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest O. Neubert of Moorestown, N. J., was solemnized at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, June 10, in the wooded garden of the home of the bride in Harmony Heights.

Rev. E. W. McMurray officiated, using the double ring Episcopal service. Music was presented by Mrs. W. E. Dobbins, pianist, and Arthur D. Garrison, II, of Greensboro, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin designed with a low, round neckline, edged in lace, and the full flared skirt extended into a flowing train. Her full length veil of bridal illusion was worn with matching lace. She carried a prayer book, a gift of her maternal grandmother, topped with a white orchid and showered with lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride's only attendant, Mrs. T. C. Lohr of High Point, wore a gown of pastel yellow tulle and lace. Her old fashioned bouquet was of pastel rosebuds and baby's breath.

Howard C. Neubert of Moorestown, N. J., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were J. D. II, and Max Welborn, brothers of the bride; Johnson and Locksley Hall of Yadkinville, William K. Powell of Goldsboro, Richmond Woodhull of Medford, N. J., and Joseph R. Johnson, Jr., of Moorestown, N. J.

A wedding reception immediately followed the ceremony. Following the reception the bridal couple left for a two week wedding trip. They will be at home in Harmony Heights, Yadkinville, after July 5.

Mrs. Taylor Fetes Daughter

Mrs. V. W. Taylor, Jr., honored her daughter, Susan Grace, on her sixth birthday anniversary with a party yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) at their home in Westover Heights.

The guest list included several friends of the honoree.

home honoring the wedding party, relatives and out-of-town guests.

The bride is a graduate of Yadkinville High School and attended High Point College. She now holds a position with the Yadkin Finance Corporation of Jonesville.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Elkin High School and was graduated from Wake Forest College, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Alpha. Since his graduation, he has been associated with Moseley and Reece.

The couple will be at home at 110 Harris Avenue in this city.
