Miss Louvene Jordan Becomes Bride Of H. K. Bennett, Thursday Evening

MRS. HERRON KENT BENNETT

In a ceremony of unusual beauty, Miss Louvene Elizabeth Jordan of Winston-Salem, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Eli G. Jordan of this city, became the bride of Herron Kent Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bennett, of Winston-Salem at 8 o'clock Thursday at Southside Baptist Church in Winston-Salem.

Rev. E. G. Jordan, father of the bride, and Rev. W. R. Grigg, officiated.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Olen Sprinkle, soprano, Cyril Moffatt, tenor and Mrs. Ray Irvin, organist.

The vows were spoken before the altar arranged with palms and fern, white gladiolus and lighted candles in seven branched candelabra. Twin candelabrum were used to mark the pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Bernard Jordan, was gowned in candlelight satin fashioned with a marquisette yoke, scalloped neckline and a full skirt with lace ruffles inset in front giving a Redingote effect, ending in a long train. Her floor length veil of illusion was held in place with a Juliet cap trimmed with apple blossoms. She carried a bou-quet of white roses and fern centered with a white purple throat orchid.

Miss Frances Alexander of Raleigh was maid of honor and Mrs. Preston Anderson of Chapel Hill was matron of honor. Miss Ruth Hall of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Lou Ella Hoots, Miss Frances Southern and Miss Earline Robertson, all of Winston-Salem, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore identical dresses of white organdy, with hooped skirts and ruffled petticoats and carried nosegays of mixed flowers tied with pastel ribbon, the honor attendants with yellow and the bridesmaids with green. Their headdresses were miniature nosegays with yellow and green ribbon bandeaux.

Dale Jordan of this city, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

C. O. Bennett was his son's best man. Ushers were Carol Cooper, Olen Sprinkle, Harold Johnson and Jack Mayberry, all of Winston-Salem, James Hampton of Reidsville and Bill Staton of Greensboro.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the lower auditorium of the church. The

Miss Jarvis, Mr. White, Betrothed

Miss Nelle Frances Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jarvis of Dobson, became the bride of Nathaniel Boyd White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. White of Manson, at 2 p. m. Saturday, June 25, at Central View Baptist Church.

Rev. Delmar Hodges officiated. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Morgan Stanley, pianist, and Mrs. John Llewellyn, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with deep lace yoke and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her headdress was a beaded coronet from which fell a fingertip length veil. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Roselee Jarvis, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Broadus A. Jarvis of Mount Airy, was flower girl. She wore an ankle length white pique dress.

Mrs. Fred Jennart, sister of the bride, matron of honor, wore a baby blue taffeta gown with hoop skirt and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations tied with yellow ribbon. Her headdress was a coronet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Jarvis, sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Shugart of Yadkinville. They wore yellow taffeta gowns like the honor attendants. Their bouquets were of pink carnations tied with baby blue ribbon.

Henry B. White, Jr., was his brother's best man. Ushers were Wallace White and Walter White, also brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. White was graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone. Mr. White, a graduate of North Carolina State College, Raleigh, is employed by the Soil Conservation Service.

Cranfill-Pinnix Vows Are Heard

Miss Ruby Pinnix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Pinnix of Yadkinville, Route 2, became the bride of Loren Cranfill, Jr., of Courthouse at 2 o'clock Saturday, July 2, in Boonville.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's uncle, Rev. W. L. Hutchens, who officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of aqua watered taffeta with white accessories and carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Following the ceremony, a formal cake cutting was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hutchens. The bride couple left after the cake cutting for a wedding trip. On their return, they will be at home with the bridegroom's aunt, Miss Eva Cranfill, in Courthouse.

Mrs. Cranfill is a graduate of Yadkinville High School. Mr. Cranfill was graduated from Courthouse High School and is now employed at the Todd Implement Company.

bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white gladiolus, carnations and asters, flanked with white tapers in silver candelabra. Gardenias were banked around the punch bowl and the three tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. W. N. Dalton presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving and receiving were Mrs. Z. T. Bynum, Miss Shirlee Carter, Miss Mollie Baucum, Miss Joan Bennett, Miss Leonis Johnson and Miss Peggy Pope, all of Winston-Salem, and Miss Mary Mitchell of this city.

The bride and bridegroom left after the reception for a wedding trip to Western North Carolina and Tennessee. Mrs. Bennett changing to a white suit with white accessories for travel. On their return, they will be at home at 207 Queen Street, Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Bennett is a graduate of Mars Hill College and Meredith College. During her college career she was vice-president of the State Baptist Student Union. She now holds a position as educational director at Southside Baptist Church.

Mr. Bennett was graduated from Wake Forest College, where he was president of Theta Chi social fraternity. Now a student at Bowman Gray School of Medicine, he is a member of Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity.

Miss Mary Vance McAdams, Hoyt B. Whitcomb, Speak Vows On Saturday

MRS. HOYT BRUCE WHITCOMB

Miss Mary Vance McAdams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, of Elon College, formerly of this city, became the bride of Hoyt Bruce Whitcomb, son of Mrs. Hoyt Bruce Whitcomb, of Greensboro, and the late Mr. Whitcomb, in a pretty ceremony solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Parish House of the Congregational Christian Church in Elon College.

Rev. Thomas Purse Inabinette of Wilson, uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by the church pastor, Dr. Jesse H. Dollar.

A prelude of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Herbert W. Coble of Burlington, organist, and cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Lee Foster, soloist. Miss Foster sang "I Love Thee" (Grieg), "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stults) and for the benediction sang the marriage hymn, "O Perfect Love."

Mrs. Coble played "Clair De Lune" (Debussy), "Traumerei" (Schumann), "Meditation" (Morrison), "The Flower Song" (Elgar), "Serenade" (Schubert) and "Ave Marie" (Schubert) and during the ceremony, "To A Wild Rose" (McDowell).

The vows were spoken before a background of fern and palms, interspersed with baskets of white gladiolus and lilies and candles in branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, close fitting bodice, a full skirt which extended into a long train. Her fingertip length veil of imported bridal illusion cascaded from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of fleur-d'amour, gardenias and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. James M. Rawlins, Jr., and Miss Revalene Smith, both of Greensboro. The bride's only sister, Katie Jo McAdams, was junior bridesmaid. They wore gowns identical to those of the honor attendants and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Charles A. Whitcomb of Greensboro served his brother as best man. James M. Rawlins, Jr., George H. Brown, Jr., Charles Nichols, and William B. Piephoff, all of Greensboro, were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home.

After the reception the bridal couple left on a wedding trip. For travel the bride changed to a white bolero suit with a blouse of white and green crepe. She wore white linen accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet. The couple plan to make their home at 909 Spring Garden Street, Greensboro.

The bride, a graduate of Elkin High School and Womans College, Greensboro, is a laboratory technician at Vick Chemical Company, Greensboro.

Mr. Whitcomb attended Guilford College and is now with Electric Supply and Equipment Company in Greensboro.
