B. And P. Club Meets Thursday

The Business and Professional Woman's Club met Thursday evening for its regular monthly dinner meeting at the Gilvin Roth YMCA.

No program was planned for the meeting, as the group had previously planned to go to Camp Butner for a picnic.

Miss Lucy Gray appointed a nominating committee which will report at the next meeting. The committee was composed of Miss Mary Hendren, chairman, Miss Willie Guyer and Mrs. Luther Baker.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. C. I. Beger, Mrs. Bob Morris of Henderson, and Miss Nell Martin.

Y.W.A. Meets Monday Night

The Young Women's Association of the First Baptist Church met on Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Betty Jean and Joanne Dorsett on Elk Spur Street. Ten members were present for the meeting.

Betty Lineberry gave the scripture reading for the evening and Carolyn Freeman gave the opening prayer.

After the business session, a very interesting program on the subject "A Neighbor—A Need" was presented by Carolyn Freeman, Joanne Dorsett and Molly Dobbins.

Mrs. Reece Gilliam, adult leader, gave the closing prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Miss Ella Lee Martin Speaks Vows With Aubrey Clement Fuller, Sunday

Arlington Baptist Church was the scene for the wedding of Miss Ella Lee Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Glenn Martin of Jonesville, and Aubrey Clement

Fuller of Jonesville, son of Mrs. Margaret Fuller of Lexington, Ky., and the late R. E. Fuller, in a pretty ceremony solemnized Sunday at 5:30 o'clock.

Rev. D. L. Temple, pastor of the church, heard the vows. The altar was arranged with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, greenery and lighted tapers in branched candelabra.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Kenneth Dudley, pianist, and Mrs. Mon Harris, vocalist.

Mrs. Dudley played "Indian Love Call" (Friend), "Clair De Lune" (Debussy). Mrs. Harris sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stults), "Because" (De Hardelet) and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte). The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Olene Martin, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ellen Minick, cousin of the bride, Miss Rebecca Pardue, both of Jonesville, Miss Mary Lou Baker of Corbin, Ky., and Miss Joan Lykins of Kenova, W. Va., Miss Brenda Gail Martin, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Melvin Rodney Ruggles of Chester, Pa., was best man. Ushers were Radie Martin, brother of the bride, Dexter Rose and Jack Rose, cousins of the bride, and Lott Mayberry, all of Jonesville.

The bride wore a gown of white princess duchess satin styled with a sheer yoke outlined by an off-shoulder swath of satin and lace, long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands and a full skirt. Her full length veil of bridal illusion cascaded from a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor wore a gown of dusty rose taffeta fashioned off-shoulder, fitted bodice, a hooped skirt with a bustle back. In her hair she wore a bandeau of yellow daisy chrysanthemums and yellow net. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore gowns of Nile green taffeta made identical to that of the honor attendant. Their headdresses and bouquets were similar to that of the maid of honor.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple received the guests in the vestibule of the church.

For traveling, the bride changed to a dressmaker suit of sand colored silk shantung with which she used dark brown accessories and the white orchid lifted from her bouquet.

Mrs. Fuller, a graduate of Jonesville Schools, attended Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and is a graduate of Berea College, Berea, Ky. She is a member of the faculty of the Jonesville Schools.

Mr. Fuller, a graduate of Henry Clay High School of Lexington, Ky., and Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, has attended the University of Tampa, Fla., and Duke University, Durham. At present he is athletic director of the Jonesville Schools.

Upon returning from a wedding trip through Western North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will be at home on Cherry Street in Jonesville.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Baird of Knoxville, Tenn., Miss Joan Lykins, of Kenova, W. Va., Melvin R. Ruggles of Chester, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fuller of Chicago, Ill.,

Miss Benson Is Shown Courtesies

Miss Barbara Benson, who is to wed John Fairclough, Jr., of Ridgewood, N. J., September 3, has been shown several pre-nuptial courtesies during the past week.

Miss Benson was honored Thursday afternoon at a "come and sit" tea by Mrs. David Brendle at her home on North Bridge Street. The home was beautifully decorated with gladioli and roses in pastel shades, furnishing a pretty party setting.

A tempting refreshment course of ice cream, individual decorated cakes, nuts and mints was served.

Miss Benson was presented a gift of china. Mrs. Hugh A. Royall received the draw prize.

Approximately 30 friends called during the receiving hours from 4 until 5 o'clock.

Complimenting Miss Benson, Mrs. Garland Johnson entertained with a "come and sit" tea at her home on Church, Friday afternoon from 4 until 5 o'clock.

A delicious refreshment course consisting of fancy sandwiches, salad, punch and chess tarts, was served.

Miss Benson was presented a corsage and gift of linen. Mrs. Owen Gwyn and Mrs. Mel McAdams, recent brides, were given gifts.

Mrs. A. C. Parker of Dunn, and Mrs. Hoy Moose of Mt. Pleasant were presented remembrances. Mrs. H. F. Laffoon received the draw prize.

Approximately 20 guests called during the receiving hour.

A corsage and a trousseau gift were presented Miss Benson at the coffee given in her honor by Mrs. Ralph W. Parks at her home on North Bridge Street on Wednesday morning of last week.

A tempting salad course was served upon the arrival of the guests.

Mrs. Owen Gwyn, a recent bride, was remembered with a gift of linen.

Guest prizes were won by Mrs. William T. Roth and Mrs. C. C. Poindexter.

The home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of asters, gladioli and roses.

Miss Benson was honored Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Earl M. Hodel entertained at a "come and sit" tea at her home in West-over Heights. Twenty-four friends called during the receiving hour.

Salad, sandwiches, cakes, mints, nuts and tea were served from a table which was overlaid with a satin damask cloth and centered with an arrangement of white asters and silver candelabra.

Mrs. Lee Neaves served salad and Mrs. Alex Chatham, Jr., presided at the tea service.

The honoree was presented a gift of silver in her chosen pattern. Mrs. Owen Gwyn, a recent bride, was remembered with a gift.

Miss Benson was honored Tuesday at a luncheon given by Mrs. John Sagar and Mrs. Van Dillon, Jr., at the Sagar summer home in Roaring Gap.

Luncheon covers were laid for approximately 20 guests.

A gift of linen was presented to Miss Benson. Mrs. James Myrick and Mrs. Owen Gwyn, recent brides, were also given gifts of linen.

Mixed Summer flowers were used throughout the home as decorations.

Mrs. Margaret Fuller of Lexington, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. George Howard of Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Myers of Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bull of Thomasville, B. C. Trexler of Salisbury and Miss Mary Lou Baker of Corbin, Ky.

Following the Fuller-Martin wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, the bride's parents entertained at a cake cutting at their home in Arlington.

Mrs. Sandy Rose and Mrs. Walter Rose greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. George Howard of Winston-Salem directed them to the dining room.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was encircled with greenery and flanked by lighted tapers.

After the traditional cutting of the cake, Mrs. Calvin Baird of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. R. J. Fuller of Chicago, Ill., completed the serving. Mrs. Charles Bull of Thomasville, presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Martin Is Complimented

Miss Ella Lee Martin, who wed Sunday to Aubrey Clement Fuller at the Arlington Baptist Church, was honored on two occasions during the past week.

A corsage of white roses marked Miss Martin's place at a party given Wednesday evening of last week by Mrs. Charles Ball and Miss Rebecca Pardue.

Upon arrival of the guests, a tempting dessert course, carrying out the color scheme of pink and white, was served to the guests.

Three tables of rummy were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Muriel Newman and Mrs. Sandy Rose.

The hostesses presented Miss Martin with a gift of linen.

The home was beautifully decorated with mixed Summer flowers.

The Young Peoples' class of the Arlington Baptist Church honored Miss Martin with a party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Guy Myers.

Games and contests were played with the prizes going to Irene Minick, Wayne Stroud, Billy Wagoner, Doris Stroud, Miss Martin and Dicky Wagoner.

Miss Martin was presented a gift of silver in her chosen wedding pattern.

The traditional green and white motif was carried out in the decorations and in the refreshments served to members of the class.

Jean Konkle Is Party Hostess

Misses Vonne and Olivia Gwaltney, daughters of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Gwaltney, who are leaving September 1, for New Orleans, La., were honored at a party Friday evening at the home of Miss Jean Konkle on Oakland Drive.

Bingo, games and contests were enjoyed by the group with prizes going to Margaret Ann Fletcher, Norma Martin, Nancy Darnell and Mary Ann Long.

The honorees received many lovely gifts.

A color scheme of green and white was used in the decorations and repeated in the appointments.

The guest list included 15 friends of the honorees.
