Affianced Couple Honored Friday

Following the Johnson-Lineberry wedding rehearsal Friday evening, Mrs. Sally Masten Lineberry and daughter, Miss Betty Lineberry, entertained at a cake cutting at the Gilvin Roth YMCA.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Jones Holcomb and directed to the parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Masten.

The bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The base of the cake was encircled with greenery and white chrysanthemums. The mantle was banked with magnolia foliage, ivy, white dahlias and lighted tapers. Other floral arrangements carrying out the green and white motif were used throughout the room.

After the traditional cutting of the cake, Mrs. Jones Holcomb and Mrs. C. H. Cline completed the serving. Mrs. Frank H. Walker and Mrs. Fred Norman presided at the punch bowls at either end of the table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Reece Cockerham, Miss Joan Gross, Miss Carolyn Johnson of Winston-Salem, Miss Carolyn Freeman and Miss Erline Mayberry.

Miss Grace Laffoon presided at the guest register. During the evening, Mrs. Hoyle Cranford played piano selections.

Miss Peggy Lineberry And Graham Johnson, Speak Vows Saturday

In a pretty candlelight ceremony solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Baptist Church, Miss Peggy Lou Lineberry, daughter of Mrs. Sally Masten Lineberry of this city, became the bride of Graham Click Johnson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Russell Coston Johnson of Winston-Salem.

The Rev. Howard J. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist Church, heard the vows, using the double ring ritual.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Mabel Cathey Leeper, organist, and Miss Mildred Freeman, soloist.

The vows were spoken before the altar which was arranged with Oregon fern, Pom-pom chrysanthemums, white gladioli and lighted tapers in seven branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, G. W. Masten, wore a gown of white bridal satin styled with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in calli lily points over the hands, full gathered skirt with a bustle back and circular train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion cascaded from a circlet of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book surmounted with a white orchid.

Miss Betty Lineberry, maid of honor and her sister's only attendant, wore a gown of emerald green satin styled with fitted bodice and cap sleeves. The low neckline was bordered with an inset of sheared satin and the full gathered skirt had the same sheared effect. She wore matching mitts and her address was a satin bandeau. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Ben Gross acted as best man. Ushers were Fred Norman, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Gene Nicks, Robert Isbell and George Littman, all of this city.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple left on a wedding trip to unannounced points. For travel the bride changed to a wine gabardine suit with which she used a matching hat and black accessories. At her shoulder she pinned the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Elkin High School and attended Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs. At present she is employed in the main office of Chatham Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Johnson, a graduate of Elkin High School, attended Pfeiffer Junior College, Misenheimer, and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He is a veteran of World War II having served two years with the U. S. Navy. He now holds a position with F. W. Chevrolet Company.

Upon returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home at the Lewis Apartments.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the Lineberry-Johnson wedding were Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spangh, Spurgeon Craver, Mrs. Della J. Walker, Miss Carolyn Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weatherman, Ambrose Walls, all of Winston-Salem; J. D. Lemons, Badin, and Ed Small of Davidson

Miss Mayberry Is Feted Wednesday
