GIRL SCOUTING

Troops I and III (Intermediates)
Girl Scout Troops I and II held a gala Halloween party at the American Legion Hut Monday evening, with each girl coming in costume.

During the evening, games and contests were played. Frances Spicer won the prize for the most original costume and Carol Brown for the cutest. The members of the troop committees acted as judges.

Each of the girls brought pennies for the Juliette Low Fund.

Troop II (Brownies)

To celebrate Juliette Lowe's birthday, Troop II was taken to a movie on Monday afternoon and afterwards were served refreshments.

On Wednesday the girls sold homemade candy at the local theatre to earn money for their troop.

As part of the Girl Scout Week observance, the troop will go on a wiener roast, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Utley is leader of Troop II and is assisted by Mrs. Donald Lambeth and Mrs. Harvey Stockton.

Troop IV (Brownies)

Troop IV is made up of Brownie scouts who are in the third and fourth grades at school, with Mrs. Bill Davis as leader and Mrs. Max Cooke as assistant leader. They have had three meetings since the beginning of school.

They have elected the following officers: Mahala Boher, chairman; Rosa Roth, vice-chairman; Susan Richardson, scribe and Betty Spicer, treasurer.

On Friday, October 21, the troop was treated to a wiener roast given by the troop committee composed of Mrs. Gilbert Meed, chairman; Mrs. James Meed, Mrs. H. W. Thompson, Mrs. Eugene Lewis and Mrs. Tom Roth.

On Wednesday of last week, the troop made posters to be displayed in store windows during Girl Scout Week.

Troop V (Senior)

The Senior Girl Scout troop met Monday evening at the home of Glenda Spicer, Terrace Avenue, for a wiener roast. All the girls came in costume.

The girls will act as ushers at the Surry-Yadkin Community Concert Association's first concert tonight at the State Theatre.

Jonesville Senior Scout Troop

The Senior troop participated in a colorful and impressive flag raising ceremony at the Jonesville school yesterday morning, as part of its observance of Girl Scout Week.

During the noon hour, the girls staged a parade through Jonesville displaying posters telling of the work of Girl Scouts.

The organizations of other scout troops in Jonesville will be perfected throughout the week.

BOY SCOUTING

Cub Scouts of Pack 11 held a Halloween carnival Saturday night at the American Legion Hut. Parents and families of the Cub Scouts attended and participated in a number of games and other entertainment. Prizes were awarded by Joe Gwyn Bivins, Cubmaster.

REUNION HELD BY NORMANS

Descendants Of J. I. F. Norman Get Together Sunday Near Boonville

ALL EIGHT ARE PRESENT

The children and grandchildren of the late J. I. F. Norman, (John Isom as he was known) of East Bend, gathered for a family reunion last Sunday, Oct. 30, at the home of one of the daughters, Mrs. Walter Casstevens, near Boonville.

There are now eight children, of the original 13, still living, and all were present Sunday except one son, Tom Norman, of Union, Iowa. The eight now living are: Tom Norman, Union, Iowa; Mrs. Theo Casstevens, Boonville, Mrs. Lora Shutt, Winston-Salem, Turner Norman, East Bend, Lester Norman and Rev. Mrs. Cora Lee Johnson, Greensboro, Mrs. Geneva Pardue, Yadkinville, and Mrs. George Gilmore, Cana, Kansas.

Also there are 42 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren living, and most of them were present Sunday, along with a large number of cousins and many friends of the family.

Rev. E. C. Norman of East Bend and Rev. Cora Norman made short talks. During the afternoon singing was enjoyed, with three quartettes, Oak Ridge, Hamptonville and Kernersville, being among the singers.

Mrs. Gilmore left Monday for her home in Kansas after visiting her brothers and sisters in this section.

J. I. F. Norman was one of the best known men in Yadkin county during his lifetime. He was a well known political leader and served several terms on the Board of County Commissioners. He has been dead about 15 years.

The maximum of mileage of American railways was reached about 1916.

OHIO SLAYING SUSPECT RETURNED

Mrs. Mildred Harding

Mrs. Marion Goodhand

POLICE have returned 67-year-old John A. Harding, alleged hammer slayer of his wife, Mildred, 46, and her mother, Mrs. Fred Thompson, 70, to his hometown of Toledo, O., from Grosse Pointe Woods, a Detroit suburb, where police say he fled to confess the killings to a daughter, Mrs. Marion Goodhand. Police quote Harding as saying he killed his wife because he suspected she had been untrue, and that he beat his mother-in-law.
