Bailey-Milan Vows Are Spoken

Miss Ethel Marie Milan of this city, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Claude Milan, was married at 10 a. m. Saturday, to Hassell Herman Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dempsey Bailey of Winston-Salem, at the home of Mrs. Annie Pauls, West Main Street. The Rev. Howard J. Ford of First Baptist Church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of navy gabardine with gray accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. R. C. Milan, the bride's only attendant, wore a suit of gray gabardine with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

R. C. Milan was best man. Following the ceremony an informal reception and cake cutting was given by Mrs. Pauls at her home.

The bride was graduated from Elkin High School last June and was formerly employed by Belk-Doughton Department Store.

The bridegroom, a veteran of eighteen months with the U. S. Marine Corps, received his education in Winston-Salem schools and attended radio school in Kansas City, Mo.

Following the wedding trip the couple will be at home in Rock Hill, S. C., where Mr. Bailey is employed as engineer with WTYC Broadcasting Station.

Miss Barker, Mr. Brendle, Engaged

MISS LAURA BARKER

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Barker of Milton, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Laura, of East Bend, to Dwight Brendle, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brendle of Booneville.

The wedding will take place in December.

Honoring Miss Bonnie Swarngen and Charlie (Chuck) Hine who are to be married on November 12, Mr. and Mrs. Linville Norman were hosts to a buffet supper on Thursday evening at their home on North Bridge Street.

Supper was served buffet style from the dining room table which was overlaid with a white linen cloth and centered with a miniature bridal couple standing under an arch entwined with ivy. The scene was framed with lighted tapers. The bridal motif was repeated in the decorations throughout the home.

The bride-elect was presented a gift by Mr. and Mrs. Norman.

Bride-Elect Of December, Feted

Honoring Miss Edna Marie Ferguson, who is to wed Charles Emerson on December 21, Miss Carol Haynes and Miss Sara Ferguson were hostesses at a party and lingerie shower on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Aubrey Ferguson in Jonesville.

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums were used throughout the home carrying out the traditional bridal colors of green and white.

Games and contests were played during the evening with the prize going to Mrs. Mildred Emerson, Miss Ellen Weatherman, Miss Minnie Sue Armstrong and Miss Peggy Myers.

The honoree was presented a corsage by the hostesses. The guests showered Miss Ferguson with many lovely gifts.

The bridal motif was repeated in the refreshment course served by the hostesses who were assisted in serving by Mrs. Aubrey Ferguson and Mrs. Farmer Groce.

The guest list included 32 friends of the honoree.

Helen Dobson Circle Meets

The Helen Dobson circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Grassy Creek Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Dewey Mason last week.

Eleven members, two new members and two visitors were present at the meeting.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. Clifton Davis. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Hubert Adams and prayer was led by Mrs. O. D. Smith.

The program, "The Land of the Crescent and the Five-Pointed Star" was given by Mrs. Clifton Davis assisted by Mrs. Mac Fowler, Mrs. J. B. Felts, Jr., and Mrs. George Felts.

Following the business session, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Bridge Party Is Given Thursday

Mrs. Claude A. McNeill, Jr., and Mrs. Alex Chatham, Jr., were hostesses at a dessert-bridge party on Thursday afternoon at the Gilvin Roth YMCA.

Upon the arrival of the guests, a tempting ice course was served. Twelve tables of bridge were in play and 18 additional guests were invited for dessert.

In the progressions the high score prize was awarded to Mrs. Clyde Cothren and runner-up to Mrs. James Shore.

Mrs. J. H. Townsend and daughter, Mrs. Ben Campen, Jr., of Red Springs, and Mrs. Owen Gwyn, a recent bride, were presented remembrances. Mrs. R. B. Harrell received the draw prize.

Arrangements of Autumn flowers in yellow and bronze shades and foliage furnished a colorful party setting.

Garden Club Plans Display, Nov. 17

"Festive Occasions," a showing of tables and flower arrangements for different holiday occasions, will be shown at the Gilvin Roth YMCA on Thursday, November 17, by the Yadkin Valley Garden Club.

In conjunction with the display, a 32-minute technicolor film on the Bellingrath Gardens of Mobile, Ala., will be shown.

Members of the garden club will arrange tables and flower arrangements for various holidays such as Christmas, Easter, and New Year, tables for children and birthdays and many others.

The public is invited to visit the exhibit and to see the movie. A small admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will be used to help finance various beautification projects carried on by the club.

Mary Lou McCain Honored Friday

Mrs. Ralph McCain honored her daughter, Mary Lou, on her fourth birthday anniversary with a party Friday afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock.

Games and contests were played at the party going to Sandra Collins. Afterwards the guests listened to records.

The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in the decorations and appointments. Each of the guests presented with a tiny pastel basket filled with candy.

The guest list included approximately 15 boys and girls of similar age.

(L. McAdams Rites Held In Thomasville

Funeral service for George L. McAdams, 68, of Thomasville, father of Mel McAdams of this city, was held Saturday at the Memorial Methodist Church in Thomasville.

Stiller-Wilhelm Vows Solemnized

MRS. E. L. STILLER

In a pretty ceremony solemnized at the Island Ford Baptist Church, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, Miss Perle Margaret Wilhelm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilhelm of Booneville, became the bride of Eugene Lee Stiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stiller of Badin. The Rev. R. J. Pardue, pastor of the church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The couple entered together to speak their vows before the altar arranged with Oregon fern, white gladioli and lighted candles in seven branched candelabra.

The bride wore a dress of blue jersey with winged sleeves, plunging neckline and draped skirt. She used black accessories and her only ornament was a double strand of pearls. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. L. P. Martin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Hanford Wilhelm, brother of the bride, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for members of the immediate families and close friends was held.

After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Southern points. For travel the bride changed to a wine suit with which she used black accessories.

Mrs. Stiller is a graduate of Booneville High school and Draughton Business College and is employed by the N. C. Veteran's Commission of this city.

Mr. Stiller is a veteran of World War II having served six and one-half years. He attended Badin High School and Southern Technical Institute, Hickory.

Mr. and Mrs. Stiller will make their home in Jonesville.

Jaycees To Meet At YMCA Tonight

The regular meeting of the Elkin Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight at 6:30, instead of 7 p. m., at Don's Grill as was first planned.
