

WILKES SCOUTS YEAR REVIEWED

Successful Year of Operations Reported As District Officers Nominated

AT NORTH WILKESBORO

Reports of a successful year of operations were received and recommendations were made for district officers in the annual meeting of the Wilkes Boy Scout district held Tuesday night in North Wilkesboro.

The nominating committee made the following recommendations, which were unanimously approved by the meeting, to the council meeting to be held in Winston-Salem Tuesday night: W. K. Sturdivant, district chairman; Gilbert Foster, vice-chairman; Robert Gibbs, district commissioner; L. M. Nelson, district committeeman at large. Joe McCoy was chairman of the nominating committee and other members were T. E. Story and E. G. Finley.

Robert Gibbs, district chairman this year, presided. Joe Edwards, field executive, explained the printed report which was distributed to the more than 50 attending the meeting. The report showed progress during the year.

Joe Barber, finance chairman, made his report on the finance campaign. He reported $3,535.37 collected to date, with pledges expected to boost the total to about $3,800. It was a joint campaign for Boy and Girl Scout programs. It was urged at the meeting that work continue in effort to reach the goal of $5,400.

W. K. Sturdivant spoke briefly and urged maximum effort in the Scout program during the coming year. Others on the program were Sam Vickery, chairman of arrangements, and Rev. W. N. Brookshire, who opened the meeting with an invocation.

W. E. Vaughn-Lloyd, of Winston-Salem, executive of the Old Hickory Council, urged attendance at the council meeting and presented the principal speaker, Dr. Stanley A. Harris, of Boone. Dr. Harris is a retired national executive of Inter-Racial Relations of Boy Scouts of America.

Former Yadkin Man Dies In Florida
