Church Class Holds Party

The Homemakers Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Noah Darnell Friday evening for a Christmas party with 17 members present.

Mrs. H. G. Harris, class teacher, read the Christmas story and Mrs. C. R. Alexander offered the opening prayer.

Games and contests were enjoyed and gifts were exchanged.

A tempting refreshment course was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

"The Lord's Prayer." During the ceremony, Mrs. Johnson played "Clair de Lune." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The vows were exchanged before a background of Oregon fern interspersed with arrangements of white gladioli and candles in branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a skipper blue gabardine suit with a matching hat and gray accessories. At her shoulder she pinned a corsage of red rosebuds. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls.

Miss Bonnie Lee Pardue, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was attired in a gray suit with black accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Jimmy Eldridge of Jonesville, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers were Joe Glenn Weatherman, brother-in-law of the bride, and William Howard Pardue, brother of the bride.

Immediately following the wedding, an informal reception was held. Mrs. R. J. Pardue greeted the guests and directed them to the dining room. A three tiered heart shaped wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the bride's table which was overlaid with a lace cloth. The cake was surrounded with greenery and gladioli blossoms and lighted tapers completed the setting.

Assisting in serving were Miss Peggy Morrison, Miss Edna Wagoner, Miss Carolyn Rary, Miss Betty Lou Scott, Mrs. Pauline Wagoner, all of Jonesville, Mrs. Virgil Shumate of Ronda, Miss Arleen Byrd of Elkin.

After the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to unannounced points, after which they will make their home with the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Smith is a member of the Senior class of Jonesville High School. Mr. Smith, a graduate of Jonesville High School, is employed at Holcomb Brothers Plumbing and Heating Company.

MRS. CHARLES EMERSON
(PHOTO BY BELL)

Miss Edna Marie Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Ferguson of Jonesville, became the bride of Charles Lindbergh Emerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Emerson of Jonesville in a pretty home ceremony yesterday at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. D. L. Temple of Arlington, officiated, using the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. George Walters, pastor of the bride.

Prior to the ceremony a prelude of wedding music was presented by Mrs. J. Clyde Phillips, pianist, and Jerry Blevins, soloist. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Phillips played "Nocturne" (Chopin), "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stults) and Miss Blevins sang "At Dawning" (Cadman), "O Promise Me" (DeKoven). During the ceremony Mrs. Phillips played "I Love You Truly" (Bond). The traditional wedding marches were used.

The vows were exchanged before an improvised altar of Oregon fern, white gladioli and an arch of lighted candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a skipper blue gabardine suit with which she used a matching hat and gray accessories, with a corsage of red rosebuds. Her only ornament was a heirloom necklace belonging to her great-grandmother.

Miss Sarah Lee Ferguson was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a wine gabardine suit with brown accessories and her corsage was of white rosebuds.

Raymond Hemric of Winston-Salem, acted as best man. Ushers were Jack Everidge, Jonesville, uncle of the bride, and J. B. Mathis of Cycle, also an uncle of the bride.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. Mrs. Harry Greene of Ronda, directed the guests to the dining room where the bride's table was overlaid with a three tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The base of the cake was encircled with greenery and white gladioli blossoms. The setting was framed by lighted tapers in crystal holders.

After the traditional cutting of the cake, Mrs. Farmer Groce completed the serving. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Foy Hemric of Booneville. Assisting in serving were Carolyn Haynes, Betty Jo Osborne, and Maggie Burcham.

Mrs. Emerson is a member of the Senior class of Jonesville High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Jonesville High School and is associated with Brendle Cash Wholesale Company.

Upon returning from an unannounced wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson will be at home with the bridegroom's parents.
