Miss Byrd, Mr. Jackson, Are Wed

Miss Verna Lee Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Byrd of Benham, became the bride of John Robert Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley Jackson of this city, in a ceremony solemnized at 5:30 o'clock Friday at the Benham Baptist Church.

The Rev. Marvin Burcham officiated. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Eleanor Petree, pianist, and Mrs. James Lovett, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with fitted bodice, high neckline, long sleeves, and a full skirt extending into a short train. Her lace-bordered veil of French illusion fell from a satin cap and she carried a white Bible topped with gardenias showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. Claytus Cothren, aunt of the bride and matron of honor, wore an ankle-length dress of shell pink taffeta, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her headdress was of matching material and her bouquet was of white carnations.

Harold Hayes of this city was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Claytus Cothren of Benham and Billy Joe Jackson of this city.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given for the wedding party and immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

For a wedding trip, the bride changed to a suit of navy gabardine with contrasting accessories. Upon their return the couple will be at home in this city.

Mrs. Jackson was graduated from Traphill High School and is now a member of the nursing staff of Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital.

The bridegroom attended Elkin city schools and is now employed at Chatham Manufacturing Company.

Miss Fleming Feted At Party

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Fleming of Booneville honored their daughter, Ina Sue, on her birthday anniversary with a party at the Booneville Community Building on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming were assisted in entertaining by Mr. and Mrs. Everette Gough.

A beautifully appointed refreshment course was served to the 60 guests present.

Among the out-of-town guests were Linda Reece and James Parde of Jonesville; Don Hobson and Bud Martin of East Bend; George Wells of Miami, Fla.; Mary Jewell Jenkins and Gene Wagoner of Yadkinville and Ralph Johnson of Winston-Salem.

The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Miss Mildred Ruth Casey Becomes The Bride of Eugene W. Collins, Friday

MRS. EUGENE WILLIE COLLINS (PHOTO BY BELL)

Cool Springs Baptist Church was the scene for the wedding of Miss Mildred Ruth Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Worth Casey of this city, and Eugene Willie Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Collins, also of this city, which took place in a pretty ceremony at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The Rev. Marvin Burcham heard the vows, assisted by Rev. David W. Day.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Peggy Petree, pianist, and Miss Lynn Oliver, soloist. Miss Oliver sang "O Promise Me," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and for the benediction sang "The Wedding Prayer." During the ceremony, Miss Petree played "To A Wild Irish Rose." The traditional wedding march was used.

The vows were exchanged before a background of Oregon fern interspersed with arrangements of white gladioli and the nuptial setting was softly lighted by tapers in seven branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in slipper satin styled with a marquisette yoke, fitted bodice and a full gathered skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion cascaded from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer-book topped with an orchid.

Miss Betty Newman was maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta gown styled similar to that of the bride. Her headdress was a halo of starched lace and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Geraldine Casey, sister of the bride; Miss Kathryn Collins, sister of the groom; Miss Emma Jean Couch and Miss Eleanor Petree. All wore gowns of pink taffeta made identical to that of the honor attendant. Their headdresses were halos of starched lace and they carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Leo Collins acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were John Patterson of Fort Mill, S. C., Earl Welborn, Jimmie Couch and Gwyn Lawrence, all of this city.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Assisting in serving were Miss Frances Swaim and Mrs. Roy Hampton.

After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling she wore a gray tweed suit with black accessories. At her shoulder she pinned the white orchid lifted from her prayer-book.

Mrs. Collins is a graduate of Ronda High School. Mr. Collins is a graduate of Elkin High School and attended Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone. At present he is employed at Chatham Manufacturing Company.

Upon returning from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Collins will be at home in Pleasant Hill.

Johnny Dockery Feted Tuesday

Mrs. Herbert Dockery honored her son, Johnny, on his seventh birthday anniversary with a party on Tuesday afternoon at their home on Elk Spur Street.

Frank Young, uncle of the honoree, showed movies for the guests, after which they were invited into the dining room for refreshments.

The table was centered with a large birthday cake decorated in Christmas colors and a music box played "Happy Birthday." A cluster of balloons were extended from the ceiling over the table.

Cake, ice cream and candies were served to the 22 guests of similar ages. Each of the guests were presented a remembrance. Johnny received many lovely gifts.

Assisting Mrs. Dockery in entertaining were Mrs. Delos Underwood, Mrs. Gene Sprinkle of this city and Mrs. Sam Brandon of Yadkinville.

Calhouns Are Hosts Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calhoun were hosts at a buffet supper on Friday evening at their home on Hawthorne Road.

The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Yuletide season, furnishing a pretty party setting.

Approximately 50 guests called during the receiving hours.

Miss Moxley, Mr. Ray, Speak Vows

Miss Nellie Lillian Moxley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Moxley of Booneville, and Dan Franklin Ray, son of Mrs. Mellie Ray and the late Mr. Ray of Cycle, were united in marriage at the home of the Rev. Stewart Inman at Thomasville at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The bride was attired in a suit of gray gabardine with black accessories and her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Ray is employed by Chatham Manufacturing Company. Mr. Ray is employed by the Burlington Mills at Kernersville.

Younger Set Is Feted At Party

Misses Lucy, Winnie and Jean Luffman were hostesses at a Christmas party on Friday evening at their home at State Road. The guest list included approximately 40 friends, members of the high school set and college students home on vacation.

During the evening, games and contests were enjoyed by the group.

Tom Cooley, Jr., and Eugene Johnson who were observing their birthday anniversaries were given remembrances.

The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations used throughout the home and was repeated in the appointments.

Miss Abernethy Is Engaged To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. J. Graham Abernethy of this city, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Womble, to George Lawrence Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller of Atlantic Highlands, N. J.

The wedding will take place in Elkin in the Spring.
