TOWN AND COUNTRY NEWS.

THE NEWS OF A WEEK LAID BEFORE OUR READERS.

What is being done and said by our People.

Church Directory.

METHODIST—Services every first and third Sunday morning and second and fourth Sunday evening. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. Rev. W. L. Sherrill, Pastor.

BAPTIST—Services every third Sunday morning and evening. Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Rev. J. E. Greene, Pastor.

PREBYTERIAN—Services every second Sunday morning and evening. Rev. C. W. Robinson, Pastor.

—Easter comes on Sunday April 14th this year.

—The straw hat and the barefoot boy—sure harbingers of spring have been in evidence recently.

—Prof Butler, the Salem piano tuner, was in town on business a few days last week.

—Mr. Walter Gwyn has returned to North Wilkesboro to resume his duties in the bank.

—Mr. Turner Jennings, of Iredell county, spent a few days with Mr. N. W. Fowler last week.

—The appearance of Dr. Ring's drug store has been much improved by inside work.

—Miss Eva King, who has been visiting Mrs. C. M. King, has returned to her home in Wake county.

—Mr. N. W. Boyden the ex-postmaster at Boyden, Surry county, submitted his case in the Federal court at Greensboro. He was fined $100.

—Mr. Q. L. Barnhardt has the contract for the building of a dwelling for Rev. J. E. Greene at Ronda.

—Mr. H. G. Chatham employed a number of hands last week in getting his lot in condition to commence building a handsome residence.

—Recently Mr. C. H. Gwyn killed a muscovy duck which weighed after being dressed eight pounds and one ounce. Nothing so all about that duck.

—Squire S. T. Wilborn is the list taker for Elkin township and Dr. J. W. King and Mr. W. N. Jackson are the tax assessors for this year.

—"Linked sweeties" long drawn out" abounds in our town since Uncle Bob Bauguss, the Wilkesbee king stored several thousand pounds of his excellent honey in Elkin.

—Don't forget to attend the meeting of citizens Thursday night at the sample room of the Elk Inn for the purpose of nominating candidates for Mayor, Town Commissioners and Constable.

—Rev. C. W. Robinson will preach at the Presbyterian Church Friday night. This service is preparatory to the communion service on Sunday at which time Mr. Robinson will occupy his pulpit.

—The annual picnic at Speas ferry in Yadkin county on Easter Monday will have several attractions. Music by the Yadkinville band and a young man named Phillips proposes to walk a rope across the river.

—A board of medical examiners for United States pensioners has been established at Wilkesboro. The board consisting of Drs. Horton, White and Dougherty, meets every Wednesday.

—Miss Cora Welborn, a daughter of Mr. Richard Welborn, of Mecklenburg county died Wednesday aged 17 years and was buried Friday the services being conducted by Rev. W. L. Sherrill in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

—Yadkin County is entirely out of debt and has money enough ahead to pay expenses for a year accordingly to the County Treasurer. Jurors and witnesses at the next term of Court of Court will receive their pay as soon as dismissed.

—The young ladies of Elkin Academy now wear the very latest in the head gear line—white bonnets which are very becoming. This causes Mason Lillard to ask do angels wear bonnets. The devil who at times is a very perverse imp, suggests another question do they put powder on their faces. Nay, verily not in Elkin town.

The following is a partial list of the list takers and assessors in Yadkin county. The first named in each township is lister, the other two assessors.

Boonville—J. H. Fleming, J. D. Reece, J. M. Speer.

Knots—L. T. Ray, Jno. Holloman, I. N. Vestal.

Back Shoals—Asbury Martin, Shade Bell, Elisha Windsor.

—Judge Henry Bryan spent a few hours in Elkin last week on his way from Alleghany court to Davie court which began Monday. Judge Bryan was much pleased with Elkin noting its general appearance of prosperity and the many improvements being made. He remarked that the Elk Inn furnished the best meal he had eaten in a two months stay in North Western North Carolina.

Green & Gray, are now selling Furniture, Coffins and Caskets, cheaper than you can buy at other places. They have nice goods and a Large Stock to select from. They have a large lot of lumber on hand and they are daily at work making some of the best HAND MADE Furniture in this section. Call on them at Click's old stand and you will sure be pleased. They have goods and prices to suit everybody.

—At the meeting of the Town Commissioners Thursday night, a settlement was made with Mr. J. F. Walsh, the tax collector and his bond was returned. The statement of the town treasurer showed a nice balance on hand after paying the collector and treasurer for their services. The Mayor and Commissioners deserve the thanks of the citizens for their judicious expenditure of the town funds during their term of office having built the bridge across the Elkin creek and made other improvements.

The funeral services of Mrs. A. M. Smith were held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. Rev. W. L. Sherrill gave a brief sketch of her life in few well chosen words summing up the striking points of the character of this lovely woman. The services were concluded at the grave the body being laid to rest in the Elkin Cemetery by the side of her lamented father, Mr. R. R. Gwyn. The pall bearers were Messrs A. G. Click, J. S. Bell, G. T. Roth, L. H. Hunt, W. E. Paul and W. J. Harris.

The End of a Beautiful Life. No death that has occurred in this community for years has cast such a gloom over the town as that of Mrs. Fannie Gwyn Smith. After a sickness of only a week, Mrs. Smith quietly passed from earth to heaven on Friday evening at a few minutes past 8 o'clock. Mrs. Smith was the youngest daughter of the late R. R. Gwyn and Mrs. M. C. Gwyn. In the full bloom of womanhood being in her 25th year, she was cut down by that grim reaper, Death, who is no respecter of persons. Mrs. Smith's life was spent in Elkin, with the exception of a few years while a student at Greensboro Female College. About three years ago she was happily married to Mr. A. M. Smith, of Lynchburg, Va. This happy union was blessed with two children who with a devoted husband are left to lament over her transition to the Eternal City.

Her character was indeed a beautiful one possessing all those qualities of head and heart that go to make up a perfect woman. "none knew her but to love her." In the family and social circle by her cheerful disposition and spirit ghtly wit she made the life of all those with whom she came in contact brighter and full of joy and sunshine. At the age of 13, Mrs. Smith became a member of the Methodist church and by her consistent Christian life demonstrated her strong faith in the meek and lowly Jesus, whose humble follower she was. An affectionate sister, an obedient daughter, a loving wife and mother, her life was one that was not lived for naught, for the world is better because she lived. The heartfelt sympathy of the whole community goes out to the fond husband and devoted sisters, brothers and mother who are bowed down in sorrow over this sudden and sad affliction.

The hope melted down "neath the coffin lid, And the sorrowful tears that fall in his tender care. He will safely keep, And God is over all."

Cool Spring Items.

Mrs. Eda Norman died last Saturday night and was buried at Grassy Creek Monday in the presence of a number of her relatives and friends. Mrs. John Harpe visited Mrs. C. F. Fields this week. Mrs. D. A. Edwards visited Mrs. Norwood Kenedy last week. John Carter, an inmate of Surry Poor House, has been annoying our people some of late. Wheat is taking a start to grow since we have had a few warm days, it has a splendid start on the land and bids fair now to make a good crop.

Uncle Ned. Cool Spring, April 6, 1895.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume Jonathan Kenison, of Bo'lan, Worth Co. Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. S. Bell Druggist.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson druggist, South Chicago Ill. It is for sale by J. S. Bell, Druggist.

A HOUSEHOLD TREASURE.

D. W. Butler, of Canastota, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results followed its use; that he would not be without it if procurable. G. A. Dykeman Druggist, Canastota, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy that he has used in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at W. Ring's Drug Store.

Statesville, N. C., Dec. 20, 1894.

SPECIAL

MENTION.

We are pleased to call attention to a few LEADING SPECIALTES that are just now in high season and are sure to sell fast and please all buyers. First we would remind you that we have a full stock of

GARDEN

A MID

FIELD

SEEDS.

Our Clover, Orchard, Herds Grass and Timothy Seed are the best on the market. Buying cheap seed is a waste of money and a damage to your pastures also.

"CLIMAX" "DIAMOND BONE."

These are the brands that stand at the top and make the highest records at harvest time. Nothing cheap about them and the price so reasonable. Buy them for your Oats, Corn, Buc wheat, Potatoes and Garden truck.

MOLASSES & SYRUPS.

The largest stock—best assortment—best goods and at the most reasonable prices. The above explains why we sell so much more than others do and why our trade on this line of goods constantly increases.

Dry Goods

For men's and boys clothing For Ladies Misses and childrens clothing.

Embracing everything from the cheapest to the best and our customers say prices are much lower than they can buy elsewhere.

We will not try to tell you about everything this time, we will soon be in our new store and extend a cordial invitation to every one to call on us and inspect our goods and prices. Some merchants say prices don't make much difference but we have tried it recently by lowering prices and it has helped sales so much we have decided to make them still lower.

Your friends, L. H. Hunt, M. E. Mottsinger, W. H. Worth. Salesmen. Click & Co.
