CLEMENT MAYLY, Chairman State Dem. Ex. Com. JOHN W. THOMPSON, Secretary.

Will Speak Off-Hand.

Judge Russell in an interview with the Charlotte Observer's Raleigh correspondent says: "I have no written or prepared speeches. I will speak off-hand. As I am not a candidate for a national position, I will dwell on State issues. I have no doubt of my election. It is merely a question of the size of my plurality." As to a joint canvass Russell said there were many reasons why Watson challenged him, but there are as many reasons why Watson should not challenge Guthrie. Russell said he did not know whether Guthrie would challenge him or not. There is little doubt that the Populists, or certainly one faction of them, would like to see Russell meet Guthrie in debate. There is mighty little Populist love for Russell.

Devoured by Hogs.

The Taylorsville correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says: "John Childers has been missing two weeks. Saturday the remains of a man were found in a field near Daniel Bowman's, on the Catawba river. They had been almost eaten up by the hogs and wild animals. From what clothing re-mained they were identified as John Childer's. He had considerably money when last seen. Some of this was found in his clothing. The impression is that he died from the effects of the hot weather. He had been drinking heavily for some days. A number of men have been arrested on suspicion. but is believed they will be turned loose, as there is not enough evidence to bind."

An Editor's Fatal Accident.

Capt J. W. Goslen, editor and manager of the Winston Republican, in stepping from a moving street car accidentally fell and struck his head, which resulted in his death. Capt. Goslen was 56 years old on the 14th day of July, 1896. He was a gallant ldier during the late war and before it closed was promoted to captain of Company K, Ffty-second North Caro-lina, MacRae's Brigade. He was in command of his company when the surrender came. The family is under the impression that his death was caused from apoplexy, rather than by the fall. Mr. J. W. Ellis, of Salem, has been elected to succeed him as editor and manager.

TWO ACRE METEOR.

Arcolite Falls in Arizona, Killing an Entire Family.

A special from Tucson, Ariz., says that Dr. P. P. M. Smith, of Hagerstown, Md., and a party of mining men, who have just returned from the Ripsey mines, report the fall of an mmense meteor, which struck the desert about two miles north of Hall's ranch, and about the same distance South of the Ripsey mines. It fell on Sunday night, the 9th inst., about 9 o'clock. Members of the party, who were camped at Hall's say the concussion was terrible. Cupboards were upset, dishes thrown down and the houses trembled as a leaf. The noise was like that of many cannon fired simultaneously. The air for miles around was filled with sulphurous gas and the meteor came down red and smoking.

It covers about two sores of ground, appearing to be imbedded hundreds of feet in the earth, and now forms a great mountain in the desert. A herder's hut and corral were in the meteor's path. The herder, his wife and three children, all Mexicans, together with about 1,200 sheep, went down under the mighty mass. Major Thomas Hayes, of Louisville, Ky., who was of the party, was overcome by the phenomenon.

"It was the most brilliant, the grandest and most awe-inspiring sight I ever saw," said about the same distance South of the Ripsey most awe-inspiring sight I ever saw." said the major. "It is simply beyond the power of tongue or pen to accurately describe it. The heat from the meteor is so intense that it will be several days before the mound can be ex-mined closely."

Sult Against the Southern. W. H. Deaver, of Asheville, N. C., brings suit against the Southern Railway to test the legality of hauling express on Sundays in North Carolina. The suit is based upon the section of The Code which provides that no railroad shall permit any cars to run on Sunday save such as are to transport United States mails, either with or without passengers, and those exclusively for live stock, fruits, vegetables and perishable freights. Sunday is construed to be between sunrise and sunset. The Southern Railway will handle no express save perishable articles on and senset. The southern Railway will han-dle no express save perishable articles on Sundays until this question is settled. The penalty is $500 for each train in each county through which the railroad runs. It is stated that under literal construction of the act dead bedies cannot be shipped that day.

The French people who have for so long imposed upon a credulous American public by shipping back to them as the finest of French products Maine herrings and Southern cotton seed oil in the shape of sardines and olive oil are now suffering from a counter imposition which is brought to light by United States Gonsul Fermain at Zurich. In the course of a report to the State Department on the subject of American dried fruits in Switzerland he speaks of the success that has attended the introduction in France last season of California prunes, and says that has attended the introduction in France last season of California prunes, and says that the French receivers are arranging to have all such fruit packed in cases similar to those used in France and bearing French marks, so that the goods may be sold to the retailer as French fruit.

Reports have reached here from Buenos Ayres to the effect that an American syndicate has offered the Argentine Republic $150,000,000 in silver in exchange for $100,000,000 in bonds payable in gold, 4 per cent interest with one-half per cent added as a sinking fund. The offer of the Americans is said to be a part of a general plan by which Argentina is seeking to go from a paper to a specie basis. The plan contemplates that each of the new silver dollars shall take up two of the paper dollars. It is said that the market value of Argentine four per cent gold bonds is such that the investment would prove a profitable one for the Americans while its incidental effect would be to dispose of a considerable supply of the surplus silver of a considerable supply of the surplus silver of the United States

When officials of the Treasury Department prepared Circular 123 they were of the opinion that every concelvable question concerning the finance and coinage of the Union States had been answered. They find they are mistaken. Hardly a day passed but that questions are asked that Circular 123 does not ever refer to those concerning the ownership of gold and silver mines in the United States are the most numerous. Director of the Mint, Preston, says it is almost impossible to give the satisfactory reply to these inquiries. The gold and silver mines of the United States, he says, are largely stocked affairs, and it is very difficult to trace out the ownership of stock. Great blocks of European capital, he says, are always in the United States awaiting paying investments, and when gold and silver mines present themselves they are readily taken up. It is well known, he says, that the Rothschilds and other foreign capit lists are large owners of stock in dividend-paying gold and silver mines in the United States. What percentage of such stock is owned by foreign capitalits cannot be determined. No official statistics on this subject have ever been gathered by the United States Government. Mr. Preston says he will make an effort to gather such information for the present calendar year.

At Jackson, Miss., Chancellor Conn has rendered an opinion in the celebrated politax case, holding that it cannot be collected by distress warrants and sale of personal property. Attorney General Nash ruled some time since that the tax was collectable, whereupon Sheriff Rateliffe, of this county, seized a negro's bed for his poil tax. He was enjoined and the case brought before Chancellor Conn. who decided as above stated.

The quality of wines did not improve in the same ratio with the quantity, the new methods of culture tending more to increase quantity than improve quality.
