Washington, D. C., Oct. 26 .- T' ere is lina Republican Club at the 11 ational city. capital. There are more than a hundred loyal North Carolina Reptiblicans with District Attorney William Travers in the country is coming to a standstill. in Washington, most of whom are in the various departments, and the suggestion that they organize a club has met with instantaneous favor. These Tar Heels take a great integration of the ticket created by the resignation of Charles A. Flammer, the Republican hominee for District Attorney. North Carolina, and most of them go home to vote.

The organization of such a club as is proposed has been agitated and discussed for years, but to no good purpose. It is probably true that the appearance of the Daily Industrial News appearance of the Daily Industrial News is more responsible for the n lovement the questions have been brought into the carganization of the club control of the cl looking to the organization of the club than any other one cause. I early all of the local Republicans subsertibe to the News, and they feel satisfied that by perfecting organization they can be of service in different ways to the party of Roosevelt in North Caroli na.
