In the large villages of Severinovkaa and Anatolievka and the towns of Ovidiopol, Maiaki, Akkerman, Ataki, Olviopol and Winitza many hundred persons are reported to have been killed and thousands wounded.

The details of last week's massacres at Odessa are gradually leaking out and only serve to add to the horrors.

It appears that the soldiers helplessly slaughtered the defenders of Jewish houses. In one case forty-six railway orkmen who were defending Jews were

At the Jewish Agricultural School the rioters arst secured a large sum of money from the principal as a guarantee of his safety and afterwards re-turned and demanded more. Failing in obtaining any more money they slaugh-tered a number of the pupils. The rest escaped.
