

PERFECTING PLANS FOR CASWELL ROAD

Reidsville Committee Which Has Investigation In Charge Gets Services of Expert.

STRONG RIVALRY AMONG TOWNS FOR THE NEW LINE

Governor Glenn in Speech at Reidsville Urged Farmers to Stand and Work Together in the Interest of Good Roads.

Special to Daily Industrial News.

Reidsville, N. C., March 3.—The Reidsville committee appointed to make the preliminary investigations along the route of the proposed electric or steam road into Caswell county has secured the services of a civil engineer and also an expert to estimate on the available timber in the sections through which the road is proposed to traverse and the information is now being got into shape.

W. K. Morick, of Asheville, arrived yesterday and has already begun the work of estimating the timber. He is making a careful survey of the available timber within three, six and ten miles of the proposed road and will be ready to file his report within a week or ten days. The committee is expecting the civil engineer to arrive today and the optical survey will at once be made by him and a report filed with the committee.

The people along the proposed route will be notified to meet with the Reidsville committee to hear the reports of the experts at an early date. At this time it is expected that definite steps will be taken toward organizing the company for building the road. There will be citizens present from more than one route at the meeting to pull for the road. The books of the company will probably be opened at the meeting and subscriptions for stock invited.

The road will certainly be built provided the people along the route and the various municipalities sufficient interest to help in the work. So far the committee is at a loss to decide upon the destination of the road west of Reidsville. Of course this link will be built to some point on the Norfolk and Western Railway, and three progressive little towns are bidding lively for the road to come their way.

Rivalry for Road.

Recently a meeting of the citizens of Stoneville was held, and they voted to vote a bond issue to the amount of several thousand dollars for the road to be extended to that point. Many of the citizens of that section have signified a willingness to take stock, one man alone expressing a desire to subscribe stock to the amount of $10,000. The right of way for the proposed road, it was decided, will be given free. Ridge-way, Va., is turning things inside down to get the projectors of the enterprise to come her way, while Madison also would be glad to have the road, and offers as an inducement a roadbed between Lecksville and that town which was graded in 1880.

It seems that there is to be a battle royal between these rival towns.

Glenn's Plea for Good Roads.

Governor Glenn, who was here this week, and who addressed the farmers at Wentworth, begged them to organize and stand together and protect their interests, and appealed to those who were able to lend assistance to the more unfortunate ones. He advocated the building of warehouses, and suggested that this was the solution to the problem, as it would enable those who have fertilizer and other accounts to settle to draw a part of the value of their crops and pay off those expenses and still hold their crops for good prices.

He entered into a detailed explanation of the great waste which farmers sustain every year from bad roads. He told of the five or six counties of the state which are making the greatest advancement—Mecklenburg, Guilford, Gaston, Pasquotank, Wake and Durham—and said that none of them had enjoyed the natural advantages which Rockingham enjoys. Their wonderful growth and increased value of property was due solely to their good roads.

"I have a plantation in Rockingham county," he said, "which is listed at about $18,000. I have instructed my foreman here today to tell my tenants, fifteen or twenty, who are voters to cast their vote for this bond issue, and when they pay their taxes to charge the increase as a result of this bond issue up to me. I know what macadam roads will do for the county, and my farm is not located on either of the proposed macadam roads.

The governor has promised to return to the county in April and make several speeches in favor of the bond issue.

Miss Ellington entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Reading Club this week. Edgar Allan Poe was the study for the afternoon. The story of this man's short, sad life would fill pages. The greatest part of the poet's life was passed in intense and unceasing toil, and no poems or romances were ever produced at greater expense of brain and spirit than were his.

Mrs. Scott Fillman entertained the Enclave Club this week. The game was called at 4 o'clock, and for an hour and a half good-natured excitement prevailed. Mrs. J. N. Watt and Mrs. A. L. Haskins cut for the first prize, a pair of silk stockings. Mrs. Watt was the lucky one. The booby was given to Mrs. S. A. Hubbard.

A delicious luncheon was served consisting of chicken salad, green peas, potato chips, cheese sandwiches, wafers, pickles and coffee. The club will hold its next meeting with Miss Det Hall.

Miss Emma Sharp chaperoned the S. S. Society out to Miss Maude Anderson's. Recitations seemed to be the feature of the evening, among them being "The Society Boy," by Miss Irene Butler; "The Champion Snorer," by Miss Bessie Bennett; "One, Two, Three," by Miss Lucile Womack; "The Broken-hearted Dutchman," by Miss Susie Stokes; and "Maud Muller," by Miss Helen Wray.

A luncheon was served consisting of hot chocolate, chicken salad, potato chips, celery, olives, salted peanuts and mints. The word contest was also an enjoyable feature of the evening. The first prize, a box of stationery, was won by Miss Lucile Womack. And the booby, a jumping jack, was awarded to Miss Belle Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Staples Fuller have gone to New York, where Mrs. Fuller will undergo treatment for appendicitis, from which she has been suffering for some time.

Miss Ida Guyann, of Raleigh, is a guest of her relatives here.

Miss Eva Harris has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Concord.

NEGRO ACCUSED OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Durham Boy Held for Attack on Ex-Senator Lyon and Faces Another Charge.

Special to Daily Industrial News.

Durham, N. C., March 3.—Will Dunningan, colored, charged with highway robbery, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace D. C. Gunter this afternoon. There will be a similar charge against him on Monday. He is now in jail, having been sent over to court under bond of $500 for the case tried today.

On November 24th last there were two cases of highway robbery reported on one of the roads leading out north from the city. One of those robbed was ex-State Senator J. E. Lyon and the other was Jack Chisenhall. The two robberies occurred very close together and it was almost certain that the same man did the robbing.

Soon after Mr. Lyon was robbed he met T. H. Martin and a party of hunters and told them of what had occurred, pointing out the negro, who was then some distance away. Mr. Martin followed the negro and placed him under arrest. It was getting dark and when within a short distance of the city the negro made a break for liberty and escaped.

Mr. Martin shot him twice with bird shot and came on to town, reporting that he thought he had killed the negro. Searching parties went out in that section but could not find the negro.

Escaped Though Badly Wounded.

It is now learned that after the shooting the negro, who was badly wounded in the small of the back, managed to escape to a tobacco barn and from there he was taken by friends and cared for until he was able to travel. Since then he has been to Richmond, Norfolk and other places, returning to Durham a day or so ago.

In the meantime the officers ascertained that Will Dunningan was on the road named that night and his reputation was such that he was suspected. The officers have been looking for him and this morning he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Harward and Sergeant Crabtree of the police force. He has not yet fully recovered from the wounds he received when shot by Mr. Martin.

The hearing today was for holding up Mr. Lyon and he will be tried Monday in the Chisenhall case. Dunningan has a bad record in this county.

Suit Against Traction Company.

Suits were instituted today by J. H. Allen and wife, and another suit by J. H. Allen against the Durham Traction Company. These suits are for injuries received by Mrs. Allen nearly a year ago while getting off a car of the company.

The amounts to be asked for in these two suits are not known but the total damages asked will not be less than $25,000. The complaint will be filed at the approaching term of court and will be tried later in the year.

Mr. Allen, the husband of the injured woman, is now acting treasurer of the county during the illness of Treasurer Laundon. He was city treasurer up to a short while ago. To ease will be one of more ordinary interest.

R. B. Boone and C. M. Edwards, trustees of R. L. Duke, have brought suit against Mrs. Maude Hackney. Pugh, widow of J. E. Pugh, to recover an amount that Mr. Duke claims is due him by the defendant. The summons in this case was issued today.

TRINITY DEFEATED BY WAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Trinity College, Durham, N. C., March 2.—A large and enthusiastic crowd gathered at the college gymnasium last evening to see Trinity play her first game of basket ball. The visiting team was from Wake Forest College.

The Trinity boys played fine ball, considering the short time that the team has been organized, but from the start it was evident that the boys from Wake Forest were better drilled in the game. The first half resulted in a score of 18 for Wake Forest against 3 for Trinity. At the end of the second half the visitors had gained 6 and Trinity 7, making a total of 24 for Wake Forest against 10 for Trinity.

The next game will be played at Wake Forest in about two weeks.

$1,600 REWARD FOR MURDERER

Anonymous Communication in Winston Paper Causes Brother of Kobre to Offer Money.

MOTION TO VOTE ON BOND ISSUE UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED

Holton Sends Reply to Second Batch of Blackburn Charges—Salem's Fire Limit Set—Police Kill Six Supposedly Mad Dogs—H. C. Wooster Dead.

Special to Daily Industrial News.

Winston-Salem, March 3.—Publication of an anonymous communication in the morning paper here, caused some discussion today in regard to the mysterious murder of Henry Kobre, a Hebrew citizen, over a bar-room in this city in January. The writer of the letter published states that "I have the guilty parties located and have enough evidence to put them behind the bars when I get ready for them. I am waiting for more reward to be offered. If the reward is raised double the amount it now stands, will deliver them to the sheriff of Forsyth county, at the court house."

"Now if the citizens will raise the amount the guilty parties will be delivered in less than twenty-four hours. I am not trilling with this subject. It is a fact and I will do just as I say I will do. Please let me know at once or as early as possible, if you can get the reward raised so that I will know when to be on hand."

In reply to the communication Mr. Kobre, brother of the murdered man, makes this proposition: "The party or parties furnishing such evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Henry Kobre will find to his or their credit at the People's National Bank of Winston, N. C., the sum of sixteen hundred ($1,600) dollars. Provided, however, that the said information is furnished within three days from this date, March 2, 1906."

To Vote on Bond Issue.

At the regular meeting of the Salem Commissioners last night City Attorney A. H. Elliot presented to the board an ordinance relative to calling an election on the voting of $125,000 in bonds with which to purchase the plant of the Salem Water Supply Co. The same was adopted unanimously. It provides for the passage of the ordinance at two regular meetings; date of election June 26, 1906; new registration and all legal requisites. The bonds will be for 30 years at 5 per cent. The cost of the plant is not to exceed $85,000. Balance of money, or so much as may be needed will be expended for extensions and improvements.

A report was current this morning to the effect that a child had been found dead in Fairview, northeast of this city. Sheriff Alsbaugh and Coroner Robinson went out and an investigation revealed the fact that the child, whose mother is a young woman named Tucker, residing south of Fairview church, was accidentally smothered to death, during the night. The little one was about one month old. Capt. Robinson decided that investigation by a coroner's jury was unnecessary.

M. E. Crawford Marshall, merchant at Mayodan, today filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy with Judge Boyd, at Greensboro. After adjudication the petition was referred to Maj. J. E. Alexander, of this city, referee in bankruptcy. Mr. Marshall's liabilities are placed at $1,800 and assets $2,600.

Salem's Fire Limit.

The commissioners have designated all property fronting the Salem square and extending east, west, north and south 50 feet as the fire limit, according to a recent state law, and Mr. William Pfuhl has been designated as fire inspector. In larger towns where business is more centered this fire limit and its provisions are very essential, but Salem with its exceptional fire record and peculiar situation was extended special protection by Insurance Commissioner Young of Raleigh, who is inclined to point with pride to Salem in his addresses upon prevention, ancient and modern methods, and remarkable good fortune from the ravages of this element in a period covering a century and a half.

It was Mrs. Chas. Brown instead of Mrs. Chas. Barnes, as sent out in this correspondence, who attempted to commit suicide by cutting her throat Wednesday afternoon at her home on Southside. Mrs. Brown will recover and arrangements are being made to send her to the state hospital at Morganton for mental treatment.

Dr. J. M. Phillips, of Yadkinville, spent the night here on his return from Richmond, Va., where he has been for six weeks. An operation was performed upon Dr. Phillips in a hospital there for appendicitis. He has fully recovered.

Ex-Congressman John M. Brower, of Mt. Airy, was here today en route to Oklahoma, where he goes prospecting with a view of locating.

T. G. Foy left this afternoon for Dobson, Surry county, in response to a telegram.

TO DRUGGISTS

If one of yours had Typhoid and you had a specific that only reached mild forms and another that controlled the most serious cases, which would you use? You would take no chances—you would use the one that would control the case if serious. Exactly the same in Kidney disorders. There are dozens of preparations that are used, but there is only one thing on your shelves that will cure it if serious, and that is Fulton's Remedy Compound for Bright's Disease.

Don't you agree with us that these facts ought to be called to the attention of customers? Farris-Klutznig Drug Co. is our sole agent in Greensboro.

Rankin Society Entertained.

The D. C. Rankin Society, composed of young ladies and young married women of the First Presbyterian church, was most pleasantly entertained on yesterday afternoon by Miss Mary Critz at her home on Spring street. The subject for the evening was "Mission in Mexico." Among the missionaries who are working under the Presbyterian board in that country now is Mrs. Bray-hill. A most interesting paper on the work in Mexico was given by Mrs. W. P. Reid. A very enjoyable symposium of the work in this field was given by Mesdames Charles Norfleet, Sutenfield and Briggs. At this meeting Mesdames J. H. Fletcher, the president, and Mrs. Bettie Woodruff were elected delegates to the Missionary Union, which meets at Graham in April.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church met yesterday with Mrs. George Norfleet, in Spruce street. After the devotional exercises, Mrs. Calvin Wiley was elected president; Mrs. Henry Melver, vice-president; Mrs. E. Webb, secretary; and Mrs. George Norfleet, treasurer. The following were elected delegates to the missionary union at Graham: Mesdames G. E. Webb and Henry Melver and Miss Delphine Carter. After the regular meeting the mission study band, which is studying "Christos Liberators," was led most instructively by Mrs. G. E. Webb.

Henry C. Wooster Dead.

Henry C. Wooster, after a lingering illness of several months died at 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at his home on South Main street, Salem. His age was about 62 years. He was a well known Confederate veteran and an honored member of Norfolk Camp. Mr. Wooster enlisted in Company A, Fifty-third Regiment, North Carolina troops, May 2, 1862.

He was wounded at Spotsylvania Courthouse, and Mount Jackson, Va. He was promoted corporal and sergeant of his company, and was in command of his company at Appomattox as sergeant at the surrender of Lee, at which time there were only twelve members of the company besides Mr. Wooster. The interment will be at Mebaneville, Guilford county, tomorrow. A funeral service was held tonight, conducted by the Rev. Dr. H. A. Brown, chaplain of Norfolk Camp.

The Winston police killed six dogs today reported to have been bitten by a rabid canine.

Holton Replies to Blackburn.

District Attorney Holton has replied to the charges filed against him by Congressman Blackburn with the department of justice at Washington. The answers, which were sworn to, were mailed to Assistant Attorney General Robb last night. One who has seen them says they refute all of the allegations made by Mr. Blackburn.

RHODE ISLAND MEN OF WEALTH AT BEAUFORT

Special to Daily Industrial News. Beaufort, N. C., March 3.—The Rhode Island party who came to Raleigh to return the flag to the surviving members of Company H, Camp North Carolina Regiment, spent a large part of the day in Beaufort. They came down last night on a special train and were met this morning at 9 o'clock at Morehead City by Messrs. W. H. Mace, C. D. Jones, and C. L. Abernethy and were taken on board the yacht Lavinan and carried around Beaufort harbor and landed at Beaufort, where carriages awaited them.

They were driven over Beaufort, of Rhode Island, who was provost marshal in Beaufort during the war; Marsden J. Berry, president of the Union Trust Company, Providence, R. I., and also president of the A. & N. C. and S. R. R. Co.; J. E. Studly, a banker of Rhode Island; A. H. Watson, a manufacturer of Rhode Island; George L. Shepley, a capitalist; Frank S. Gannon, vice president of the Metropolitan Street Railway, New York, and of the A. & N. C. Co., and N. & S. R. R. Co.; M. K. King, general manager N. & S. R. R. Co.; Col. M. W. McGuire, general superintendent N. & S. R. R. Co.; F. J. Case, private secretary of F. S. Gannon; F. L. Merritt, industrial agent, and R. E. L. Bunch, general traffic manager of A. & N. C. Co. and N. & S. R. R. Co., and R. P. Foster, general manager of A. & N. C. Co.

The visitors represent a great amount of capital and are very much interested in Beaufort harbor and its future welfare.

BROMONIA FREE.

Read the following carefully: If you have consumption or some of the contagious forms of blood poisoning we cannot cure you. We do not pretend to cure you. You need the individual treatment of some skilled specialist; but if you are run down in general health, if you have dyspepsia, are subject to fainting spells, a victim to insomnia, biliousness, kidney or liver trouble, catch cold readily, if your system is in that condition that you may become an easy prey to the disease germs of pneumonia, influenza and the various epidemics, if you are bothered with constant headache, loss of memory, generally impaired vitality, if you can help you, and, if you follow our directions, render you immune against sickness.
