PRESIDENT SURE THAT MR. HUGHES WILL BE ELECTED

Political Situation in New York and the Entire Country Discussed.

CORTLEYOU REPORTS ON EMPIRE STATE AFFAIRS

Considerable Dissatisfaction Expressed With Chairman Woodruff's Management of the Campaign—Warning Against Apathy to Be Sent Out.

By JOHN E. MONK.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—The political situation in the state of New York and throughout the country generally was discussed at length in a conference held at the white house today. Those who participated were the president, Secretary of State Root and Postmaster-General Cortleyou.

The latter spent three or four days in New York last week in close conference with the Republican managers, and it is understood he made a comprehensive report to the president concerning the outlook. It may be stated with authority that while the administration is not entirely satisfied with conditions in the empire state, the president and his advisers are satisfied that Charles E. Hughes will be elected, and by a comfortable majority.

Some criticism of the management of the campaign by Republican Chairman Timothy E. Woodruff is heard in these parts. The complaint is made that a considerable extent Hearst has been permitted to run away with the labor vote; that too little attention has been devoted by the Republicans to Republican strongholds, and that on the whole the aggressiveness and snap usually present in the management of political fights in New York have been lacking this year.

Will Be Whirlwind Finish. This, the closing week of the campaign, will witness a whirlwind finish in New York state. Secretary Root is scheduled to make a speech at Utica on Thursday. It is expected to be the most noteworthy political address of the distinguished New Yorker's public career. It will be made plain to the voters of the state in the strongest possible language that it is the sincere wish of President Roosevelt that Charles E. Hughes shall be elected by a good majority.

"A warning to Republicans" is about to be sent out by Chairman James S. Sherman, of the congressional committee. While Chairman Sherman is not alarmed over the prospects, he does not propose to take any chances with general apathy. Two million postals will be dumped in the mails this week warning Republicans that "there is great danger through apathy of losing the next house of representatives."

"It was lost in 1890," continues the warning, "and in 1892 the Democrats gained the presidency, the senate and house, and the people got the Wilson-Gorman tariff and run in."

What Will Be Voted For. Next Tuesday there will be elections in forty-two states and three territories. Oregon, Maine and Vermont have already elected state officers and members of the sixtieth congress. In twenty-three of the state a governor and other state officers (in twenty of them also a legislature); in ten, minor state officers or justices of the supreme court; in two, congressmen and a legislature; and in seven, congressmen only, are to be elected. Oklahoma is to vote on a state constitution, and Arizona and New Mexico on joint statehood.

The terms of thirty United States senators—fifteen Democrats and fifteen Republicans—expire on March 3, 1907. Virginia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Arkansas have already selected Democrats, and Georgia has a legislature which will elect another; while Maine and Oregon have legislatures which insure the return of Republicans. Of the twenty-one states in which is to be chosen November 6 a legislature that will elect United States senators, fourteen are now represented.

Leader Bailey Excoriates Hearst

JOSEPH WELDON BAILEY,

Democratic Senator From Texas and Leader of the Minority in that Body, Who in a Speech Yesterday Flayed William R. Hearst, Nominee for Governor of New York. Mr. Bailey Declared That Hearst is a Political Ishmaelite—a Moral Pervert and a Political Degenerate.

HEARST IS A POLITICAL DEGENERATE AND MORAL PERVERT, SAYS BAILEY

Democratic Senate Leader Declares That New York Governatorial Leader is a Political Ishmaelite.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 29.—In a speech at Brownwood today Senator J. W. Bailey excoriated Mr. Hearst. He quoted the Democratic governor of California as having denounced Hearst because as New Yorker "buys men and when his money bags will not answer resorts to the sandbag," and that he has done more to corrupt Democratic politics than any man who ever took part in public life.

Continuing he said: "They say I ought not to talk about him because he is the Democratic nominee. If he had lived up to that doctrine he would have the right to invoke it. He is opposing the Democratic candidate for governor in California and has put up independent candidates for assembly in New York where he happens not to like the Democratic nominee. He is a politician. His hand is raised against every man and every man's hand is raised against him. He is so bad that his candidacy will disgrace any office and his leadership would destroy his party."

"He is a moral pervert and a political degenerate."

HUGHES RESENTS HEARST'S CAMPAIGN OF VILLIFICATION

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Charles E. Hughes made addresses before three big audiences in this city tonight. In his speeches today Mr. Hughes went to greater length in criticism of his opponent's journalistic methods than at any time during the campaign.

PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTHERN RY. TO MEET UNION HEAD

Conference Arranged for Earl Part of This Week, Says Spencer.

KNOXVILLE TENDERS ITS GOOD OFFICES

In Response to This Manager of the Railway Announces That Company is Making Every Effort to Bring About Peace With Its Employees.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 29.—In response to a telegraphic tender of its good offices in the hope of bringing about a settlement of the strike of machinists in the local shops of the Southern railway, the Knoxville board of trade today received the following telegram from H. B. Spencer, general manager of the Southern:

The company and its officers appreciate fully the interest of Knoxville in the machinists' strike, and we are desirous of settling it promptly and equitably. It has been agreed at the suggestion of the Hon. Seth Low, chairman of the National Civic Federation, that our president will meet the president of the machinists' union and the local committee of the strikers early this week in an effort to make such adjustment. The local shops are still idle with the exception of a few men.

WOULD NOT SHAVE NONUNION MEN

Special to Daily Industrial News.

Salisbury, N. C., Oct. 29.—The strike situation assumed a shape Saturday night that is unique in every sense of the word. If there has been anything like it, little has been heard of it.

On this night O. W. Hayes and C. L. Turner, two foremen, who refused to go out on the recent machinists' strike, came up town for a shave. They went into one of the shops that belongs to the Barbers' Union and were told that they could not be shaved there. The men went to another and were turned down.

Later they found a man who had formerly owned one of the shops and were told by him that he thought they could be waited on in his shop. The proprietor said he would be glad to do it, and then the other barbers refused to work if the men were shaved there. Fearing that there would be a tontorial strike, the proprietor had to refuse the men.

It seems now that there will be something interesting to come of this. The strikers have had, nearly all the way, the sympathy of the townspeople, especially until the refusal of arbitration.

The action of the barbers Saturday night will undoubtedly cause an open shop to be established here, and efforts are now being made to find a place for the proposed new institution. The talk of a sympathetic strike seems to diminish, but the chance that the machinists will go back upon their terms seems afar.

The Southern is adding to its working force and the outlook is now decidedly against those who walked out. They hope to win in the long run, but they do not bank longer upon an early settlement in their favor.

FIFTY-THREE LOST LIVES IN WRECK AT ATLANTIC CITY

Forty-Nine Bodies Recovered From Cars of Electric Train Which Plunged From Drawbridge Into the Thoroughfare Sunday Afternoon.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 29.—The total number of dead in the appalling wreck of Sunday afternoon, when an electric train loaded with passengers plunged into the waterway separating this city from the mainland, is now placed at fifty-three. Of these, forty-nine bodies have been identified, two bodies remain unclaimed in the temporary mortuary, and two people are known to have been drowned, but their bodies have not yet been recovered.

A special car containing the bodies of the Philadelphia victims left tonight for that city. The day has been one of unceasing activity, of gruesome scenes and pathetic incidents. Wrecking crews with derricks succeeded in bringing one of the two submerged cars to the surface and divers working in relays brought up bodies until their task was completed and they reported that no more dead remained either inside the second car or anywhere in the vicinity. Interest now centers in the work of the coroner's jury, which today made a careful inspection of the scene of the wreck, and the drawbridge at which the train left the rails.

Coroner's Jury at Scene. The jury assembled at 1 o'clock and proceeded to the scene of the tragedy. At the bridge they were joined by Mayor Stoy and W. W. Atterbury, general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad. After the forward car of the two submerged coaches had been hoisted to the surface and the divers, who had been at work on the wreckage all day long, had made a final examination of the second car without finding any more bodies, Mr. Atterbury, who with several of his assistants had been on the scene since Sunday night, expressed his belief that the total number of dead would not exceed fifty-three.

"There is a bare possibility that one or two others may have been killed," he said, "but I feel confident that the number of victims will remain at fifty-three."

"I cannot believe that any of the unfortunates were carried out to sea by the ebbing tide." Cause a Mystery, Says Atterbury. On returning from the drawbridge, Mr. Atterbury discussed the accident freely, but when asked to give his theory as to the cause of it he replied that it still is a mystery to him. "I still believe," he declared, "that there was nothing wrong with the rails at the bridge. I am inclined to think that the cause will be ascertained when the first coach is examined."

Mr. Atterbury himself showed the jurors how the bridge is operated and explained in detail the manner of opening and closing the draw. On their return to this city the jury decided to hold the first session of the inquiry on Thursday.

Although reasonably certain that the narrow waterway into which the electric train fell had been relieved of all of its dead, the divers continued their work until late into the night and maintained a diligent search. The wrecking crew was also kept busy, preparing for the hoisting of the second car, and it is expected that this will be raised before morning.

The debris of the last car, which struck and was held fast by an abutment, has not yet been removed, all effort in that direction resulting in half the coach sliding into the stream. Despite the heavy obstructions presented by the wrecked train, the roadway has been sufficiently cleared to permit the resumption of traffic and the scheduled timetable is again being followed.

General Manager W. W. Atterbury, of the Pennsylvania railroad, said today: "I do not believe that Stewart, the

WILL SUPPORT FRAZIER FOR STATE SENATOR

Carpenters' Union Pledges Its Strength to Friend of Working Men.

MAKES SPLENDID SPEECH TO ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE

Republican Nominee for Senator Discusses Issues of Campaign in a Most Interesting Manner—Committee From Carpenters Present.

In spite of the fact that the meeting had not been well advertised, a good-sized audience greeted C. P. Frazier, candidate for senator, at the county courthouse last night. The occasion was a meeting of the Republican candidates for the purpose of discussing campaign issues, and although Mr. Frazier was not aware that he was expected to make a speech, his address was a good one.

Mr. Frazier's opening remarks were devoted to the Republican presidents from Abraham Lincoln to Theodore Roosevelt, and he paid beautiful tributes to Lincoln, Garfield, and McKinley.

On referring to the race between himself and J. A. Holt, Mr. Frazier said that nothing would have given him more pleasure than a meeting with Mr. Holt in joint discussion. He was very complimentary to his opponent, and said that the only objection he has to Mr. Holt is that he is a Democrat. He accounts for Mr. Holt's being on the wrong side by saying that the Democrats held him there by promising to elect him senator, with better things to follow. Mr. Frazier said that an article written by Mr. Holt a year or so ago in which he stated that "he had realized that there could never be such a thing as a national Democratic party," was sufficient evidence that he would have left the Democratic party but for the promise the party has made him.

Mr. Frazier stated that Messrs. J. A. and M. H. Holt would not make contemplated improvements in the Oak Ridge

SAYS MONROE DOCTRINE AND PROTECTIVE TARIFF ARE OBSOLETE DOCTRINES

Is First Incumbent of the Roosevelt Chair at Berlin Speaking for Himself.

REMARKS AROUSE INTEREST

Berlin, Oct. 29.—The text of the speech delivered Saturday by Professor Burgess, dean of Columbia University, the first incumbent of the Theodore Roosevelt professorship of American history and instruction at the University of Berlin, has been printed by the University press. There was some curiosity to see precisely what Professor Burgess said regarding the Monroe doctrine being out of date; upon the obsolescence of the high protective tariff, and on the United States interests being promoted by the extensive German emigration to South America.

As the address was made in the presence of the emperor and frequent references were made in it to President Roosevelt, the impression appears to have been made that the president desired to send a message to Germany on these subjects. Of the protective tariff and Monroe doctrine he said:

"Our politicians do not appear to have the least notion that both of these doctrines are almost obsolete and that the reconstruction of European states and their constitution and the acceptance by the United States itself of its position as a world power have made them both nearly senseless."

Professor Burgess added: "The best interests of the United States and the world would be advanced by a strong eunotic tide of emigration to South America, by which the settlement of that gigantic part of the continent by men capable of cultivating it would be secured."

STANDARD OIL CO.'S MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL OVERRULED; FINED $5,000

Court Orders That the Trust Be Given Forty Days In Which to File Exceptions.

LIABLE TO FINE OF $6,000,000

Findlay, Ohio, Oct. 29.—In probate court here today Judge Banker overruled the motion filed by the attorneys of the Standard Oil Company for a new trial, and imposed a fine of $5,000 and costs of the prosecution in the recent suit against the Standard held here.

On motion of the defense, the court ordered that the defendant company be allowed forty days in which to prepare and file its bill of exceptions in the case and another motion by the Standard attorneys. The sentence imposed was ordered suspended for a period of sixty days for the purpose of filing a petition on error in this case.

It was also ordered that the criminal informations pending against John D. Rockefeller, the Buckeye Pipe Line Company and the Manhattan Oil Company, be continued until the next term of court.

The fine imposed by Judge Banker was the limit for one offense, though the law stipulates that each day that the illegal business is carried on constitutes a separate offense. Taking this view of the statutes it was possible for the court to impose an aggregate of fines amounting to over $6,000,000.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO WHO SHOT OFFICERS

BLACK WHO KILLED SHERIFF AND WOUNDED CONSTABLE HANGED IN TENNESSEE.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 29.—George Estes, who last night shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Saseely and wounded Constable John Bowers when the officers at Hale's Point, Tenn., raided a crap game in which the negro was participating, was taken from a sheriff's posse by an armed mob at that place tonight and hanged.

The negro was in custody of Sheriff Pennington and a force of deputies en route to Ripley, the county seat, when overtaken by the mob.

The sheriff and his posse used every means to protect the negro, but were overpowered and the negro secured.
